The Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

SATURDAY, - - DEC. 15, 1894

REED's boom for President continues.

DEMOCRATIC Presidential candidates are all in the woods.

THE Maryland State Grange, which has been in session in Baltimore, passed resolutions favoring a new assessment.

COL. JOHN CARROLL WALSH, a prominent citizen of Harford county, died suddenly at his home near Balair on Saturday.

THE Herald reports a shark in Baltimore harbor for several days this week. What a good time it would have been to pitch some city sharks into the water!

"MAD-DOGS!" has been the universal theme of interest in Chestertown this week. A "healthy fatality" among the canine family is one of the results.

THE Delaware Legislature meets Jan. 1. Of the Senatorial situation the Smyrna Times says "Mr. Higgins is hopeful and the Addicks party aggressive."

IN MAILING Christmas presents be sure to have sufficient postage on the package or it will go to the dead-letter office. Bear this in mind and it will save much annoyance.

THREE WIVES applied for divorce in Baltimore last Wednesday. This will do for one day. These wives probably "married in haste to repent at leisure." A good wife or a good husband is of value untold, but the bad ones—well, they are fit only for fish bait!

THE Centreville Observer says it was the "dead head" business which killed the telephone company in that county and suggests that it was doubtless the same thing that killed it in Kent. We think this is very close to the truth.

THE Republican municipal investigating committee in Baltimore has gotten to work. Now we'll see how much truth there is in the charges of corruption made by the opponents of the Democracy. It will certainly be wonderful if some looseness is not discovered where a party has been in power so long. And yet, we still believe that Baltimore is one of the best governed cities in the Union!

THE long expected report of the Canal Commission has at last been made to Congress. It is a great disappointment and surprise to Baltimore city, where so much was expected from the selection of some one of the routes proposed. The commission has rejected all the routes heretofore discussed, and reports in favor of the Back Creek route, which is substantially on the line of the existing Chesapeake and Delaware canal. The board estimates that a canal twenty-seven feet depth of water along this route will cost $7,600,000, which would make it cheaper by several millions than any of the other routes.

"FREE" RASIN is charged by Republicans and mugwumps with controlling the political destinies of Baltimore. And all sorts of jobs and misdeeds are laid at his door by his enemies. All of which Mr. Rasin has very properly treated with silent contempt, resting in the consciousness of rectitude, and that "truth is mighty and will prevail." The little fices are to be found everywhere barking at the heels of their great superiors. Baltimore is not an exception. The investigation now going on in city affairs will demonstrate this truth. I. Freeman Rasin is not only a great political leader, but he is a man of sterling integrity and upright life. Because of this arises his wonderful influence. And because of this many enemies hate him and lie about him.

Censuring our Congressman.

The New York World, dem., is making serious charges already against one of our newly elected Congressmen. It says:

"The most active spirit of the railroad lobby is Attorney John K. Cowen, of Baltimore, who has the privilege of the floor by courtesy as a member-elect. It is said that he is an attorney for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

"For the past three days Mr. Cowen has been on the floor and has been actively at work. He has followed the discussion closely, and has openly assumed to prompt speakers who favor the bill. While Mr. Bartlett, of New York, was speaking today Mr. Cowen moved into a seat beside him and several times in the course of Mr. Bartlett's remarks whispered some points to him. Mr. Bartlett looked annoyed, but Cowen did not appear at all embarrassed thereby. When a member interrupted, Mr. Cowen would slide out of one seat and go to him to explain the point he had raised. The cool audacity of the man was commented upon on all sides. He did everything but actually address the House as a body."

The Baltimore Argus is also after Cowen with a sharp stick. It says, as to the cause of the Democratic reverse—

Now, what did lick us? We will tell you the truth. Bad party management. Certain newspapers hammered and hammered away at the people about Tariff! Tariff! Tariff! Senator Gorman was held up for damnation and all kinds of sins and evils loaded on him. Then later when the tariff bill was passed, the President instead of accepting it as the best that could be got, deliberately left his post of duty, the country suffering the pangs and throes of disaster and despair for something definite, and he went a fishing! When he did come back, he characterized the law as a fraud, a cheat and a delusive snare. Gave it a black eye before the whole country. Where was business then? And the workingman saw it and remembered it on election day. As if this was not enough, we had added to it all, here in Baltimore and Maryland, the worst kind of political management. With every paper against us yet professing Democracy, these dailies were filled with denunciations of Democratic leaders whom they couldn't control. Then the blunders at the City Hall, the gross imbecility of Captain Smyrk, Mayor Latrobe and other officials made us sick, tough in our Democracy as we are, but as if all these were not enough, we were subjected to another dose of Horace Greeley candidacy, in the forced nomination of John K. Cowen. Thousands of voters, regular Democrats, stayed away from the polls, just as they did in Horace Greeley's day, because they maintained their self-respect. It was a curse to us, with our party principles, which war against corporations to put up as a candidate the very embodiment and spirit of a soulless corporation, and to go away picking up a foreigner, a stranger to the district, disgusted the workingman Democrats, they showed their resentment by staying at home on election day. Look how close and disastrous the fight was in many of the wards if you want to see brilliant party management. Everything was run along in a fools-paradise-sort-of-style of self-assurance and happy-go-lucky to get there. The Democratic party wants brains, common sense, fidelity to itself and no more alliances with strange gods, or Independents like Cowen and his tribe. Let all real mats quit their factional wrangling together for next year and a grand sure!

THERE are yet a plenty of Democratic Gubernational candidates in Maryland.—According to the Baltimore papers this week, the three candidates on the Democratic side, who now have, apparently, distanced all the rest, are Messrs. Rayner, Jones and Hayes in about the order in which they are named; while among the Republicans Messrs. Baker, of Harford, Lowdnes, of Allegany, and Malster of Baltimore city, seem to be going along the course without much distance between them.

A WONDERFUL case of endurance is recited in the Baltimore Herald of Wednesday. Thomas M. Muth was found in a hay rick in Orange county, N. J., with a bullet wound in his throat and both feet frozen. He had been thus exposed and without food for fourteen days! The wound was accidental. He has a sister who keeps a boarding house at 604 W. Lombard street., Baltimore. He is now in the hospital.

THE Centreville Observer, in discussing the probabilities of another reassessment measure by the General Assembly of Maryland, pertinently says: "The people need representatives, and if they are alive to their own interests they will have them. It makes no difference which faction succeeds at the primary, provided sound, able men, and men of influence and character are chosen." Nothing truer could be uttered, and we trust this will be the guiding principle in the selection of candidates—not only in Queen Anne's but in Kent and in every other county—and then we shall not be at the mercy of selfish corporations. "Men of character," as our cotemporary puts it, are truly the need of the times. They should be selected more with a view to their reliability as representatives, than to their PROMISES, or to their ability as scholars, or manipulators, or political schemers. Therefore when the time comes for the selection of legislative candidates, let us be sure of the affirmative on these points before giving our support to any man: Will he vote according to the wishes and interests of the people of his county? Their interests now—their wishes now? And that not only upon the re-assessment question but upon all other questions? We care not whether a would-be candidate has been favorable to a new assessment or not, or what his views are now or have been—on that or any other subject—if he is honest, intelligent and fully appreciative of his duty as a representative—if he can be trusted to disregard the blandishments of lobbyists and flatterers, and, laying aside his own selfishness, act according to the understood needs of his people—then our county at least will be voiced properly. It is not so much the written platform or the verbal pledge of fidelity that the people ask; character is the postive demand for the contest of next year.

Harmony in Prospect.

President Cleveland, representing the Executive department of the Government; Secretary Carlisle the head of the Treasury department; Senator Gorman, Congressman Crisp, Wilson and others of the acknowledged Democratic leaders of the Senate and House of Congress, are said to be at last in accord upon the great question of finance. All believe this to be the paramount issue now before the people. President Cleveland so stated it in his message to Congress just assembled. The settlement of this question upon a proper basis will have more to do with bringing about a return to prosperity than all the tariffs ever dreamed of! The people are hopeful of speedy results on this line. If there is failure, then good-bye to Democracy!—at least for a time.

Doings in Congress.

The Senate on Wednesday refused by a vote of 27 to 23 to make sugar free, thus settling tariff legislation for the present session. Neither of the Maryland Senators were present.

In the House an effort was made to defeat the appropriation for the enforcement of the income tax, but it signally failed. The vote was 127 to 54.

Senator Vorhees, who as chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, did his utmost for tariff reform during the last session, made public his views last Wednesday for the first time since the election on some current questions. Of the tariff he said—

"The law as it now stands should have a fair, practical test before any further agitation takes place on the subject of the tariff. Agitation would be exceedingly unwise and hurtful to the public interests, as well as to the reviving business of the country. The duty left on coal and iron is so insignificant in amount that it does not materially affect the revenues of the Government, or prices to consumers.

Touching the sugar question, Mr. Voorhees said: "So far as sugar is concerned the question is different. The Secretary of the Treasury finds the moderate duty placed on sugar to be absolutely necessary to the revenues of the Government, and he has found no substitute on which to rely in place of sugar. For the present at least this source of revenue cannot be disturbed. It is a pleasure in this connection however, to know that the price of sugar to the consumer has gone down instead of up, under the existing law ever since its enactment, plainly owing to the repeal of the wretched bounty tax, and the extinction of three-fourths of the tax of the trust."

MAKING A CORNER.—Saloon-keepers of Elkton, Northeast, Port Deposit and other places in Cecil county are quietly securing places in Havre de Grace to open saloons when the anti-license law of Cecil goes into effect. It is reported that the number of saloons in Havre de Grace will be increased from 14, the present number of licensed places, to 20 or 25. By the provisions of the law granting high license in Havre de Grace the city gets the revenue, and it is appropriated yearly in diminishing the city's debt. The price of license is $350.

LEGAL OPINION ON SCHOOL QUESTIONS.—Attorney-General Poe has given to Governor Brown his written opinion on a number of questions relating to the school propounded by the Kent county school board. The board wanted to know if a teacher is required to take the oath of office a second time if he resigns as a teacher and is afterward reappointed. The Attorney-General says he is. Mr. Poe decides that under no pretext can a school commissioner receive more than his legal compensation of $100 a year. He also says that the secretary and examiner cannot receive extra compensation above the salary fixed by the board.

THE C. C. C. held a largely attended meeting Tuesday evening in their new club rooms in Stam's building. A committee of five was appointed with full power to purchase Brussels carpet, chairs, etc., and to fit up the two rooms creditably. Mr. Edw. Lambert, on behalf of the club, extended congratulations to Mr. W. W. Chapman for his splendid achievement in the Baltimore ten-mile race.

PUBLIC SALE!

I WILL offer at Public Sale to the highest bidder in connection with the farming utensils, etc., of Mr. Wm. R. Dolton, on the same terms, at Mr. Chas. H. Davis' livery yard, on

SATURDAY, Dec. 15, To-Day,

AT THREE O'CLOCK P. M.,

A Lot of Pure Blood

HOLSTEIN FRIESIAN CALVES

coming two years old.

These Calves are especially strong in the blood of the two most remarkable families of the Holstein, viz.: The Netherland and the Aggie. I know that I am giving the farmers of this and adjoining counties an opportunity to improve their herds. With proper attention these Calves cannot fail to develop into splendid cows. I regret that I did not know before that I would offer them at public sale, so that they might have been put in better condition, as it is, they have not the growth they would of had in consequence of our long summer drouth. These calves are mostly white, from the Aggie blood, being the predominating color of that strain. I will furnish applications for registry, in each calf.

HELMA 2, Born April, 1893; sire, Prize No. 18497; grand sire, Blondine's Aggie Netherland, 14795; he by Aggie Rosa's Prince, 3122; he by Netherland Prince, 716; dam side, Keast Halma, No. 2480; she from Keast, 588; she from Flora Knowling, imported, No. 181.

LITTLE DOT, Born Dec., 1892; sire, Blondine's Aggie Netherland, 18795; dam, Blondine's Princess Aggie Gift, 19356; grand dam, Blondine's Princess Aggie; she out of imported Blondine, 8987.

PRINCESS, Born June, 1893; sire, Prize, No. 18477; dam, Blondine's Princess Aggie, No. 9633; she from Imported Blondine, No. 8987.

EVINCED!

OF THE MANY PEOPLE who have visited our CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT this season, we suffice to say that not ONE, even the most economically inclined, passed our doors dissatisfied. Our advertising has not proven a fraudulent scheme to attract great crowds, but a successful and square business method substantiated by a strict reliable firm.

Our past offerings have had decided effect, but as it is about the close of the year and in consideration of the financial depression of our people we conclude these more startling prices: MEN'S SUITS, all wool, $8.00; also, a nice line from $4.00 to $6.00, and besides these we carry a full stock of Fine Custom Suits in Cheviots, Worsteds, Tricots and Cassimeres. Regent Clay, a Black Worsted, $10. MEN'S OVERCOATS for $4, $6 and $8, in Beaver, Melton, and Kersey, all shades. In addition to them we have just received from our New York manufacturers a big lot of Blue and Black Meltons and Kerseys, Satin and Cassimere-lined, which we offer at $10, only about one-half actual value. YOUTH'S BOYS' and CHILDREN'S OVERCOATS from $1.75 to $3 and $4. BIG BOYS' SUITS, age 14 to 19 years, at $2.50, $4 $5 and $6. CHILDREN'S SUITS, age 4 to 14 years, such as Reefers, Zouaves and something special for the little fellows, prices from $1.25, $2, $2.75, $3 and up to $5. MEN'S PANTS from $1 to $5. Also, a big line of CHILDREN'S PANTS from 25c. to 90c, extra strong. All the above lots are complete, yet we have some odds and ends that will be sold at a great loss. You will do yourself a great injustice to buy without first examining these goods. Yours, respectfully,
