LOCAL MATTERS.

Betterton Town Election.—At the annual election held in Betterton on Saturday afternoon last, there were five candidates in the field for town commissioners. The following was the vote, the three highest being elected: Geo. E. Owens, 58; John Brice, 40; A. P. Emerson, 46; Alfred Bowman, 33; William Crew, 28.

Rock Hall Property Changes Hands.—Mr. Clarence Thompson has sold to Mr. A. L. Urie his property on Main street, Rock Hall, for $2,000, it is reported. Mr. Thompson is negotiating for the purchase of the Chesapeake House, and if he secures it, he contemplates the erection of a pnacing pavilion, pool room, ten pin alley, and an ice cream parlor.

Almshouse Dinner.—The almshouse trustees and members of the Board of County Commissioners were entertained at dinner at the almshouse on Wednesday. As usual on such occasions, Mr. Wm. Ford, the efficient superintendent and his popular daughter, Miss Sue, served a splendid repast in excellent style. The condition of the buildings and premises were found to be excellent.

Awarded Heavy Damages.—The removal damage case from Queen Annes county of Miss Bessie M. Hammond against the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railroad Company for $10,000 for being run over while crossing the company's tracks near Centreville, in February, 1907, which occupied the attention of the Circuit Court for Talbot county all last week, was given to the jury on Friday night. Saturday morning the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $4,500, with costs.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†*Some of our farmers expect to begin cutting wheat on the 15th. The crop will likely be a good one.

*†*Dogs raided the sheep-fold of Mr. D. W. Hill, near Kennedyville, one day last week, and killed 16 fine sheep.

*†*Thos. B. Elliott & Son, are painting Mr. Wm. H. McKee's home on Maple avenue in attractive colors.

*†*Several of the farmers are complaining that their wheat is scabbing. The recent heavy fogs and hot suns are supposed to have caused the wheat to scab.

*†*Mr. A. S. Turner, the hustling grain buyer and implement and carriage dealer, refused an offer of $300 on Thursday morning for his fine young Russell colt.

*†*Capt. Jas. E. Woodall and Rev. Mr. Baker, of Georgetown and Fredericktown, have recently purchased fine new automobiles. Mr. Raymond Prettyman expects one in a few days.

*†*The cherry crop will be a failure because of the rainy and damp weather. Mr. J. Romie Byron has bushels of the fruit, but they have rotted so fast that Mr. Byron will have none to sell.

*†*Mr. Wm. Robertson has one of the finest pair of young bay horses in the county. They are stylish in action, and when hitched to his handsome little rubber tire runabout, they make a most attractive team.

*†*Mr. Wm. Steel has finished installing a drivewell on the farm tenanted by Mr. Edward Loud, near town. Mr. Steel will shortly install fine bathroom fixtures in the home of Mr. Wm. H. Loper, in Millington.

*†*Dogs have been playing havoc among poultry and sheep in and around Spry's gate recently. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Godwin lost a fine turkey gobbler and a gander, and Capt. Peter Brinsfield lost a number of sheep.

*†*National Bank Examiner, Sam'l W. Hann, examined the affairs of the Second National Bank on Tuesday, and as usual found every department of the work in fine shape. We have it from the best authority that the Second National Bank is doing the largest volume of business of any bank on the Eastern Shore with the possible exception of Easton bank.

*†*Mr. John A. Smith, of Lankford, will please accept our thanks for two boxes of large and luscious strawberries of the Aroma variety. The berries are larger than the Sharpless and very sweet in flavor, and it only requires a few berries to fill a quart box. Mr. Smith is making a speciality of different varieties of berries, but says the heavy dews and warm suns have caused many to rot.

*†*Mr. James Quinn has rented the Gooding farm near Galena for next year. Mr. James Thompson, the present tenant, will remove to another farm. Mr. Walter Gale takes the Joseph Woodall farm near Lambson's. Mr. Gale is now on the Jarrell home farm. It is reported that Mr. R. C. Morgan will tenant Rose Hill farm in Grove Neck, Cecil county, owned by Mr. Andrew W. Woodall, next year.

*†*The "Handy Farm," advertised in the TRANSCRIPT by Wm. W. Beck, Esq., assignee, was offered at public sale on Tuesday by Auctioneer Charles H. Hurlock, and was purchased by Mr. Albert Jervis, of Still Pond, for $8,800. The farm contains 300 acres of land and is one of the most beautifully located tracts of land on the Chesapeake Bay. The farm was purchased sometime ago by Herbert Stimpson, Esq., of Baltimore, who negotitated for its sale to a syndicate of Pennsylvania capitalists for $50,000 who proposed to establish a summer colony there. Aside from laying out avenues, walks, etc., and grading banks, nothing was done to develop the property, and it fell under the hammer. Mr. Jervis purchased last week the Kilpatrick farm from Mrs. Robt. H. VanDyke.

Cards have been issued for the wedding on June 16 at New Brunswick, N. J., of Miss Susan Elizabeth Sutton to Mr. Daniel B. Miner. Miss Sutton is the daughter of Mrs. John C. Sutton and the late John Carvel Sutton, of Kent county, Maryland, and is a sister of Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, assistant at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Baltimore.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Rev. H. W. Kellogg, D. D., pastor of Grace Church, Wilmington, Del., delivered a very able and interesting address last Sunday evening in the M. E. Church, under the auspices of the Epworth League.

Electric light fixtures are being installed in Christ M. P. Church. Supt. Frederick H. Russell says there will be light shortly.

As will be noted elsewhere in this issue, Rev. Leonard Bates Smith, of Baltimore, a graduate of Washington College, will preach the sermon to the Christian Associations in William Smith Hall during commencement. This is quite an honor to our young friend, but we are sure that he will measure up to the high standard set by his predecessors.

Children's Day services will be held in Still Pond M. E. Church tomorrow (Sunday). At the morning services the pastor, Rev. E. H. Collins, will preach a special sermon to the children, and baptise any that may desire to be baptized. The benevolent offerings of the year will be received. A special exercise by the children will be rendered at the evening service.

Tomorrow (Sunday) will be Children's Day at St. James M. P. Church. A fine programme has been arranged. Mr. James Shuster will sing a solo, and Miss Eva Hurlock and Mr. Shuster will sing a duett.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little preached a strong sermon on the use and abuse of money last Sunday morning.

Children's Day services will be held in the Chestertown M. E. Church tomorrow (Sunday) evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10.30 A. M., subject: "Inquire thou whose son the stripling is." Sunday School at 2 15 P. M. Epworth League meeting 6.45 P. M. Children's Day celebration at 7.30 P. M. All are cordially invited.

Miss Anna Smith entertained the members of the Queen Esther Circle of the M. E. Church at a "porch party" at her home on Washington avenue on Tuesday evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the Huntley Standard Bearers was held at the home of Miss Eunice Lambert on Maple avenue yesterday evening.

Mr. Bordley Sappington sang a beautiful baritone solo in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday morning. Mr. Sappington has a rich, mellow voice and sings with much expression. He is a member of a prominent church choir in Washington.

Dr. Frederick J. Kinsman, professor in General Theological Seminary, New York, was elected bishop of the Diocese of Delaware on Wednesday to succeed the late Bishop Leighton Coleman. Bishop Kinsman was unanimously elected on the first ballot. He is unmarried and 40 years old. He is an eloquent speaker and a man of strong personality. The salary of the office is $3,600 a year.

The 40th annual convention of the Diocese of Easton held interesting sessions in St. Paul's Church, Centreville, on Wednesday and Thursday. Much business of importance was transacted and many questions of interest to the religious life of the church were discussed.

The executive committee of the county Christian Endeavor Union met in Christ M. P. Church on Wednesday to arrange for the approaching convention.

Christ M. P. Church—Rev. Dr. F. T. Little pastor. Testimony meeting at 9.30 A. M. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. Sunday school at 2.30 P. M. Juniors at six o'clock. Twilight services at 6.30 P. M. To all these services the public is cordially invited.

Children's Day Services.

Christ M. P. Church was crowded last Sunday evening to witness the Annual Children's Day exercises, which were of a particularly pleasing and impressive character. The committee in charge—Mrs. Thos. D. Bowers, Mrs. Harry B. Nicholson, Misses Fannie Baker, Mary Knight and Bessie Wheatley, deserve much credit for the success of the occasion and the charming manner in which each "spoke her piece." The feature of the evening was a symbolic exercise entitled "Rock of Ages" illustrated by a number of interesting children of the Primary department. The beautiful symbol, the large rock and cross, surrounded by the beautiful flowers and bright faces of the children, was very impressive. The collection for the evening amounted to about $35, the banner being won by Mr. F. G. Usilton's class which contributed $6. The singing by the school, though the orchestra was much missed, was bright and spirited under the direction of Mr. Fred G. Usilton. The following programme was rendered:

Song—"Sing Your Happy Praises," by school; Lord's Prayer and Apostle's Creed in unison; song "Children's Day," by school; Recitation, by Dorothy Woodall; exercise, "Three Friends," Roy Barnett; Cathryn Fowler, representing Faith; Salye White, representing Hope, and Frances Bacon, representing Love; song, "Loyal Hearts March On," by school; address, by Laura Nicholson; Spoken duet by Harriett Reed and Pauline Hoyle; song, "Praise Him," by school; symbolic exercise, "Rock of Ages," by eleven girls, Elizabeth Reed, Harriett Reed, Evelyn Russell, Helen Kendall, Emily Lusby, Elizabeth Elliott, Olive Kent, Edith Roland, Irene Kirby, Louise and Mary Whiteley; Report of classes; singing by school, "Marching On;" Presentation of banner by Dr. F. T. Little; song, "Praise Him," benediction.

Base Ball Notes.

All games scheduled for Saturday in the county were postponed on account of the rain.

Washington College was defeated by Maryland Agricultural College at College Park on Saturday morning, score 6 to 0. Both Johns and Byrd pitched good ball, Washington getting seven hits off Byrd, and the farmers eight off Johns. The Aggies hits came at the right time, and thereby hangs the tale.

Lovers of base ball will see a good game on Washington Field this afternoon at three, when the home team will have the strong Baltimore City College team as their opponents.

Coach M. J. Thompson left the college team at College Park after the game with M. A. C. and went to Washington where he umpired a series of fast athletic sports at Georgetown University. Mr. Thompson is arranging a series of fine athletic sports for commencement week, June 16th, and he has secured the promise of some of the finest athletes in the county for exhibition at the games.

STUNG.

The rivalry between the Vets of 1907 and the P. O. S. of A. ended in a climax Monday afternoon. Both teams were in their prime. Clay for the Vets served up benders and twisters with which the P. O. S. of A. were unable to connect. Fallowfield behind the batter cut off many would-be base stealers. Fred Russell at third, Charles Wheatley at first, Carle Russell at second and Matthews at short displayed championship style. The outfield, Waddall, Wilmer and Rolph, the stars of the High School team played their usual game of getting all that came their way. Much to the surprise and chargin of of the P. O. S. of A. manager, the Vets won by a score of 7 to 5. Another game in the near future will be played and the P. O. S. of A. team will make a better showing.

Fine Souvenir Cards.

We are indebted to Owens & Co., of Betterton, for twenty-eight handsome souvenir post cards, showing as many different views of Kent's charming summer resort—Betterton.
