Still Pond Notes.

The Epworth League had its business and social meeting at Betterton at the home of Mrs. L. A. Hickman—a straw-ride event from Still Pond. At the meeting it was decided to have a festival and entertainment the 29th of June at the home of Mr. F. H. Cornelius.

Miss Bertha Zentcraft returned to her home in Catonsville after a pleasant visit to the home of Mrs. Charles Walter.

Miss Lillias Walter spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sam Moffet.

Miss Anna Bowers is home from her studies at Washington College, Chestertown.

A straw-ride of young people went from our town on Monday evening to the festival at Lynch's, Md., and all say they had a fine time.

Miss Mae Nickerson returned to her home in Galena after a pleasant visit to Still Pond.

Mr. W. H. Krusen and Rev. John Beauchamp spent a few days in Baltimore.

Mr. Miller, of Baltimore, spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Lavinia Harper.

Mr. Thompson, of Rock Hall, is on a visit to his family.

Our Children's Day was observed last Sunday night, and as large a crowd as was ever seen at our church enjoyed the service. Programme as follows:

March. Processional—"Hosanna to the King." Invocation. Song—"Our Sunshine Day." Recitation—Specially Children's Day. Song—"In Our Father's Care." Recitation—Lawrence Krusen—"If I was a Robin." Recitation—Lindsay Severson—"Thank You Song." Song—"Branches of Palms." Exercise—"Come." Solo and chorus—Anna Walter—"Such a One as I." Recitation—Bertha Hackett.'—"Summer in Everything." Duet and chorus—Bertha Price and Marion Hackett—"Just Because He Loves Me So." Exercise—"Pansy Thoughts." Song—"Like the Flowers." Recitation—Mary Rash—"We should not be Proud." Song—"Count Us In." Recitation—Six boys—"Beneath the flag" Song—"Little Sunbeams Do Not Stay." Song—"Happy Christmas Day." Children's Day Greeting—Pastor. Recitation—Five little girls—"About giving." Collection. Closing Song—"On this day of gladness." Benediction.

Don't forget our services Sunday morning and evening. Presiding elder preaches at night. All are welcome.

Rock Hall Items.

Last Saturday the people of this town were treated to a remarkable exhibition of a model of the steamship, City of Paris, which was converted into an armored cruiser during the Spanish-American war. The model was 18 feet long, 2 feet wide and 16 inches deep, made of wood and rigged complete by the exhibitor. He said that he was over ten years constructing it. The boat was mounted on a very attractive little wagon and advertised as the Paris show.

Mr. Harry Lake, whose building burned here at the time of the Thompson fire, is rebuilding. He is replacing the former building with a two-story dwelling. Messrs. Taylor & Judefind have the contract.

The Rock Hall M. E. Church has installed a very pretty organ of the Williams make, and it resembles a pipe organ a great deal in tone. This is a much needed improvement.

Mr. S. B. Maslin, while in Baltimore last week, visited the Garfield Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. He was received with great welcome and made to feel at home. Mr. Maslin was very much impressed with the members of the council of our neighbors. This shows the great fraternal spirit practiced in that order.

Rev. Dr. Stephenson, the District Superintendent of the M. E. Church delivered an interesting sermon at our church last Sunday. This is the first time the people of Rock Hall have had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Stephenson, and they express their appreciation of his work, and all would like very much to hear him again in the near future.

Miss Milton Maslin and Miss Mamie Wickes were quietly married in Baltimore last Monday. This was a big surprise to all their friends.

The commencement exercises of the Rock Hall High School will be held on Monday, the 14th, in the Rock Hall M. E. Church. The address to the graduating class will be delivered by Dr. L. E. Barrett, of Chestertown, Md.

Mrs. Maggie Apsley attended the exhibition of the Larkin Co., in Baltimore, this week. Every one knows this firm and are no doubt familiar with their products. It was a very interesting exhibit.

Mrs. Rhoda Davis and Mrs. Hayward Ashley are visiting friends in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Frank Brown, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. William Durding and Mrs. William Ashley, this week in Rock Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey are in Havre de Grace this week where they will attend an organ recital at the M. E. Church.

Mrs. Marian Coleman and son, Ralph, are visiting friends in Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Judefind, Mrs. Clara Downey and Mr. Howard Legg were in Washington, D. C., this week.

Mr. Henry Davis and Mr. Charlie Davis, Jr., and family, both of Baltimore, are visiting Capt. Chas. Davis for a few days.

Miss Mamie Miller has moved in the Coppage house on Wharf Lane.

The Catholic Church has had a fresh coat of paint.

Miss Marguette Turner, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Hennie Rodney this week.

Dr. B. Schwatka and family, of Baltimore, were visiting his brother, Dr. H. Schwatka, of this town, for a few days.

Kennedyville Items.

The rainy weather is delaying the farmers with their work very much the past week.

Our teachers are closing out another year of teaching, and the scholars are looking forward to the time when they can put their books away for months instead of hours.

While every Sunday is special, next Sunday, the 13th, will be more so at the M. P. Church, as the pastor will preach a special sermon in the morning, having for his subject "The Real and the Unreal," and at night the Children's Day service will be held. Those who have charge of the children are working faithfully to have a good service.

One of our popular and highly esteemed merchants, Mr. W. A. Pote, just quietly left town one morning last week and went to Philadelphia, apparantly as he has done many times before on business, but on looking through the paper a day or two later, we see where our merchant had combined some pleasure with the business cares of life by getting a marriage license, and sure enough on Saturday morning's train Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pote arrived at home, leaving the trolley car strike in Philadelphia to settle their own affairs and they to live a life worth living. We welcome Mrs. Pote to our community and wish them many happy years. The wise ones had been prophecying, but Will sprung a surprise on them just the same. May we not be surprised several times in the near future by some more of our marriageable men in our community.

Miss Lizzie Hessner, we are sorry to hear, improves very slowly.

Mr. Edward Faulkner has been suffering with one of his eyes for some time, and it is thought by the doctor that the sight is gone. Many times we do not appreciate our eyesight as we should until it begins to fail.

Everything is on the move in the Democratic political field as this is the last week for the candidates, and they have started for a home run, which some will make and some will be left on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd bases—so everybody will listen for the umpire's decision when he closes the polls and counts the vote on Saturday eve.

CITIZEN.

Betterton Briefs.

A large excursion from Wilmington spent the day at Betterton on Thursday.

Owners of hotels and cottages are busy preparing for the boarding season, and large crowds are expected during the summer months.

Mr. George Mann and family have moved into their new home on Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Owens have returned home from a pleasant visit with their daughter, Mrs. Shinn, at Atlantic City.

Misses Katherine and Annie Moloney, of Baltimore, are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Molone, of Germantown, Pa., are guests of Mrs. Jess on Ericsson avenue.

Mrs. Walter Brice and children, of Philadelphia, spent several days this week with Mrs. George Moore.

Mr. Alex. Mair opened his ice-cream parlors on Thursday evening.

The Sunday School is busy rehearsing for Children's Day services, which will be held on this Sunday evening.

The Easton Pennsylvania Branch of Y. M. C. A. are busy preparing for their annual outing at Chesapeake Haven. They will be in camp three weeks in July.
