LOCAL MATTERS.

Badly Bitten by Dog.—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Romie McCauley, living near town, was severely bitten by a shepherd dog on Monday morning. The dog attacked the lad in the yard, and bit him in several places from his thigh to his knee. A large piece of the flesh of the thigh was bitten completely off. Dr. H. G. Simpers was called and cauterized the wound. The little boy is doing well.

A Contemplated Change.—The friends of Mr. Samuel Hicks learn with great regret that he is seriously contemplating moving to Seattle, one of the most progressive cities in the western part of the United States. It is sincerely hoped that Mr. Hicks may conclude to remain with us, but in the event of his determining finally to leave it would be well for those who are interested in the wheelwright and blacksmith business to investigate, because his is one of the most valuable and desirable stands in the town, doing a large and thirving business.

NEWSY BRIEFS.

*†*Bethel A. M. E. Church has been holding a camp-meeting on a vacant lot in Lynchburg during the week.

*†*The corn crop in certain sections of the county has been threatened by the dry cool weather.

*†*Capt. Billy Thompson caught four dozen fine perch off Mr. Ray Bowers' shore on Tuesday evening.

*†*A colored baseball team from Elkton was defeated by the crack Chestertown sluggers in Chestertown on Wednesday; score 10 to 0.

A letter from Dr. Martin to his sister, states that he reached the Old World in safety after a delightful trip across the ocean in one of the big liners.

*†*Mr. Thos. D. France and his cousin, Robert France Esq., of Baltimore, had two days of fine sport last week, off Bowers' Beach, catching fine cull perch.

*†*Capt. Curtis E. Crane took a party of friends to Oxford last week on his yacht Josephine, to witness the annual regetta of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club.

*†*East Neck Island bridge, which has been closed by order of the commissioners for sometime, is open to travel, all repairs having been completed.

*†*The fine rains the last of this week were worth thousands of dollars to the farmers in this section, many of whom had not had a good rain for a month or more.

*†*Messrs. Cannan Bros. began this week the erection of a comfortable new home for Mr. William H. Lambert, on his recently-purchased lot on Mt. Vernon Place adjoining the lot of Mr. Vansant.

*†*A prominent fisherman on the Chesapeake bay caught 3,600 lbs. of rock fish at one haul last week. His net broke with its great weight, otherwise there is no telling what quantity of fish he would have caught.

*†*Local buyers were paying $1.14 for wheat yesterday. This is 3½ cents lower than one week ago, and the decrease in price is thought to be due to the amount of wheat now being offered for sale.

*†*Hughes & Newnam, the well-known music and machine firm, have removed their store goods to a part of the large room occupied by the Roland Bros.' restaurant. They are attractively fixed up, and are ready to serve the public in their usually pleasing manner.

*†*Mr. Samuel Tucker has rented Mr. James Brice's Morgnec farm for 1910. Mr. Brice had six applicants for the farm from the time the TRANSCRIPT came out on Saturday morning to Monday. You see how the TRANSCRIPT is read in Kent and Queen Annes.

*†*The sunset on Sunday evening was one of the most beautiful natural sights ever seen in this locality. Every color of the rainbow was blended in the scene, and as the sun sank a bright golden color was succeeded by a deep gorgeous red. It was followed by high winds and much cooler weather.

Fine New Boat.

Messrs. Charles L. Tarr and Samuel M. Blades launched on Thursday of last week what is considered to be one of the finest canoes ever built in St. Michaels. The vessel was built for Mr. Owen C. Smith, of Baltimore, a brother of Mr. Charles S. Smith, of Chestertown, and is to be called Estella. She is installed with a 6-horse power Bauers Marine Engine. Her dimensions are 35 ft. 6 in. in length, 8 ft. beam, 2 ft. draft. Mr. Smith will use his launch for pleasure. He and his family are camping at the Cliffs until September. Mr. Smith had his new boat in Chester harbor on Monday morning, and she is a beauty.

Wheat Notes.

Mr. J. S. Webb, on Mrs. F. H. Harper's farm, near Still Pond, threshed 30 bushels per acre from 18 acres. His yield on the balance of his tilliage was also good.

Warner Garey got 18 bushels per acre.

Mr. William Janvier, on his Turner's Creek farm, from 10 acres got 25 bushels per acre. He got 19 bushels as an average.

Mr. Thomas Quigley, in Shrewsbury Neck, got 3000 bushels from 250 acres.

All of the above wheat was threshed by Mr. Harvey Freeman's machine.

Mr. Moffett, on Mr. James W. Lambert's Morgnec farm, got an average of 28 bushels per acre, and the wheat is in fine condition.

Mr. William Hendricks, on Mr. James W. Lambert's farm, near Kennedyville, got an average of 20 bushels per acre.

Mr. Kennard Aldridge, near town, got an average of 18 bushels per acre. One of his fields yielded 24 bushels per acre. He sold at $1.13½ per bushel to Mr. C. W. Kibler.

A prominent farmer living year town, bet his neighbor, who lives just across the road from him, and who thought his yield of wheat would be poor, a $25 suit of clothes against a box of cigars that he would get 750 bushels of wheat. The neighbor got 752 bushels and the other fellow will be wearing a $25 suit of clothes before long.

Mr. H. Clay Lusby got a yield of 25 bushels per acre from a part of his tillage.

Mr. William S. Collins, on his Radcliff farm, got an average yield of 26 bushels per acre, and the wheat is in most excellent condition.

More reports from the Miracle wheat show the following:

Arthur Rivers, near St. Michaels, 51 lbs. from 1 lb. seeding.

C. I. Barto, Cordova, Talbot county, 58 lbs. from 1 lb seeding.

Chas. L. Dodd reports 120 lbs. choice wheat from 2 lbs. of seeding. These yields are considered excellent for the season.

ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS.

Miss Whaland, of Philadelphia, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Harriett Welch, on Maple avenue.

Mr. James W. Crouch and family are spending his two weeks vacation camping at Betterton, as are also Mr. Robt. Moffett's family and Mr. George W. McWhorter's family.

Mr. Edward Lambert came over from Easton on Wednesday night in an automobile to see his mother, Mrs. Jane Lambert, who is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Brown.

Mrs. Charles P. Colladay, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Arthur Hurlock and children, of Cambridge, are visiting Mrs. Colladay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hurlock on Queen street.

Mr. Wm. Henry Miller's little brother is named Franklin Dodd Miller.

Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., has been the guest of Mrs. Frank V. Simpers in Dover, Del., during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Kendall have been entertaining his mother from Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Davis, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mrs. Joseph A. Wickes on Front street during the week.

Fraternal Order Notes.

The committee of Camp No. 34 P.O.S. of A., having in charge the arrangements for the annual sessions of the State Camp which meets in this town Aug. 10 and 11, are meeting with great success and hearty co-operation from the merchants and town people generally. Nearly all the merchants and business men have consented to decorate their places of business, and to do everything in their power to provide splendid entertainment and amusement for the delegates. The programme which will be an attractive one, is in the hands of the TRANSCRIPT printers, and will be ready shortly for distribution. A chorus of 20 voices is being organized to sing patriotic songs at an open air meeting on the High School lawn, one evening, and prominent National and State officers will be present to make addresses during the sessions. Let everybody get ready to show the delegates who will come from all parts of the State, what genuine Eastern Shore hospitality is.

Miss Marie R. Conner, State Councilor of the Daughters of America visited the Chestertown Council on Monday evening and was given a splendid reception.

Wedding Bells.

Mr. Walter H. Wyble, of Coleman, and Miss Emma R. Kinsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kinsey, of Still Pond, were married in Atlantic City on July 6th. Mr. and Mrs. Wyble have returned to his home in Coleman. Mr. Wyble holds a responsible position with the Baltimore & Philadelphia Steamboat Company at Harris' wharf.

At the M. E. parsonage on Wednesday evening by the pastor, Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett, Mr. Matthew S. Bramble and Miss Ida Sewell, both of Kent county, were married.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS.

Miss Mary Lamborn, of Baltimore, who has been the guest of Miss Avis Dodd, sang a beautiful solo, "Abide with me," at the twilight service in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday evening. Misses Addie and Eva Hurlock sang a sweet duett at the morning service.

The St. James M. P. Sunday School Picnie will be held at Worton Manor Beach the first Thursday in August.

As a sequel to the action of Rev. R. T. Coursey in asking Mayor William H. L. Compte to have enforced that portion of the Sunday law preventing the sale of tobacco and soft drinks, an attempt was made to rotten egg Mr. Coursey, who is pastor of Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, Cambridge, while he was standing in front of his residence on Locust street. An effort was made to lure Mr. Coursey to a distant part of the town by a fake telephone message, but he suspected a trap and declined to go. A few minutes later missiles began coming from the Baptist churchyard, across the street. Mr. Coursey was talking with the State's attorney at the time and the two started across the street to investigate, and the assailants took to their heels. None of the eggs struck Mr. Coursey, but his house was well spattered. The assault is generally deplored and arrests may follow.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, July 18th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School; 6 P. M., Junior League; 6.45 P. M., Vesper service of one hour, spirited singing and a short address by the pastor. All invited, come, you are welcome.

Accidents and Drowning.

Millard, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Robinson was painfully injured last Friday afternoon by being run over by Col. Albert Story's milk wagon. The little fellow was gathering milk bottles and taking them to the wagon, and in jumping from it he fell under the wheel which passed over his shoulder, breaking his collar bone, and lacerating his face and body in numerous places. Dr. Chas. W. Whaland rendered medical attention and the little fellow is doing nicely at this writing.

Mr. Benj. Kramer and Mr. Grover Copper, of Gratitude, met with quite a bad accident on last Sunday while driving a young horse. The bridle bit broke and the horse ran away throwing them both out on the roadside. Mr. Kramer sustained painful bruises, and Mr. Copper's collar bone was broken.

Jesse Perkins, a colored waiter on board the Maryland, Delaware & Virginia Railway Company's steamer, B. S. Ford, was drowned while in bathing at Rock Hall at 8.30 o'clock Friday night. Capt. W. J. Taylor, master of the B. S. Ford, reported Perkins got into a small skiff, which was tied to the wharf, for the purpose of going in bathing. He jumped over the side and shortly afterwaad disappeared. As soon as it was discovered that the man was missing, Captain Taylor, with some of the crew, got into the same skiff and dragged for the body, which was recovered within a half hour. Coroner Wilkins, of Rock Hall, deemed an inquest unnecessary and the body was turned over to Undertaker Casey, Perkins was 24 years of age. He has a mother living at Charlottesville, Va.

Mr. Charles Tate, his wife and sister, Miss Frances, of Arnolds, Md., and Mrs. Woodward, of Baltimore, have been spending the week at the parsonage.

Rev. C. M. Moore, and wife spent Tuesday at the parsonage.

The friends of Miss Ella Jones in this vicinity are glad to know that she is rapidly recovering from her accident.

MEMORIAM.

In rememberance of Walter W. Crew, who died at the residence of his mother on High street, Chestertown, Md., July 14th, 1909, at one o'clock, age 52 years.

Dear son I miss you so,
All through the day wherever I go,
All through the night how lonly it seems,
For no son to wake me out or my dreams;
I miss you all through the weary hours,
I miss you as others do sunshine and flowers,
Day-time or night-time wherever I go,
Dear son I miss you so.
MOTHER.

'Tis hard to break the tender word
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
We must forever part.
Dearest loved one we have laid thee
In the peaceful graves embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy Heavenly face.
BRO. ALFRED.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low,
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our sorrow know;
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in Heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.
SISTER ANNA.

With sorrowful hearts we are to-day,
For our loved one has passed away,
The evening of life had scarce begun,
When the darkness fell and the day was done.
SISTER.
