THE BALTIMORE CUSTOM HOUSE.

The Baltimore papers of Saturday announced that the late President had on the previous afternoon directed commissions to be issued to certain gentlemen to fill the various offices in the Baltimore Custom House. It appears, however, that the statement was either premature or the order has miscarried. The Sun says:—"The present incumbents of the Federal offices in Maryland have made inquiry into the matter, and represent that the respective members of the Cabinet to whose departments these appointments would pertain—the Treasury and Postoffice—have no knowledge of any such commissions having been ordered, though it is said to be usual for the President, before final action on such matters, to consult his Cabinet advisers." The Washington Star also says that no such appointments have been made, and adds: "We hear that recommendations for such appointments were filed late on Friday afternoon, but that no action whatever was taken in regard to them."

The following are the names of some of the gentlemen reported to have been appointed: Collector of Customs, Hon. Edwin H. Webster, of Harford. Surveyor of the Port, Edington Fulton, of Baltimore. Naval Officer, Samuel M. Evans, of Baltimore. Naval Agent, Dr. T. King Carroll, of Dorchester county. District Marshal, James W. Clayton, of Cecil.—District Attorney, W. J. Jones, of Cecil.

How the News of the President's Assassination was Received at Richmond.

A Washington despatch says: Both Petersburg and Richmond are now draped in mourning. The cities which resisted our bayonets three weeks ago unite with us now to lament the Chief Magistrate's death. General Lee at first refused to hear the details of the murder. A Mr. Suite and another gentleman waited upon him on Sunday night with the particulars. He said that when he (General Lee) dispossessed himself of the command of the Rebel forces he kept in mind President Lincoln's benignity, and surrendered as much to the latter's goodness as to Grant's artillery. The General said that he regretted Mr. Lincoln's death as much as any man in the North, and believed him to be the epitome of magnanimity and good faith. These candid expressions being circulated at large have done Lee much honor, and he and Richmond are out of danger of mob violence.

STONEMAN'S EXPEDITION SUCCESSFUL. Salisbury, N. C., Captured.

General Stoneman captured Salisbury, North Carolina, on the 12th, with eight stands of colors, nineteen guns, 1164 prisoners, 1000 stand of arms and accoutrements, 1,000,000 rounds of small ammunition, 1000 rounds of fixed ammunition and shells, 60,000 pounds of powder, 75,000 complete suits of clothing, 350,000 army blankets, 20,000 pounds of bacon, 100,000 pounds of salt, 20,000 pounds of sugar, 27,000 pounds of rice, 10,000 pounds of saltpetre, 50,000 bushels of wheat, one hundred thousand dollars worth of medical supplies and 7000 bales of cotton. Thirteen pieces of artillery were brought away, and all the other stores not needed by the command were destroyed. The greater part of the supplies had just been received from Raleigh. Our loss was very few in killed and wounded.

DETAILS OF THE SURRENDER OF GENERAL LEE'S ARMY.—Additional interesting details of the ceremonies attending the surrender of General Lee's army, are given by army correspondents. The work of paroling the rebels commencing on the 11th instant, and it was thought that three or four days altogether would be required to complete it. The number of men under General Lee's immediate command, covered by the surrender, was estimated at only about 16,000, including officers, privates and teamsters. The surrendered artillery is supposed to comprise 170 pieces. Several hundred wagons also formed part of the Union prize. So nearly exhausted were the provisions of the rebels, that while the surrender was in progress, a large number of them had to be supplied with food by Gen. Grant's commissaries.

The New York Herald gives a very different statement. It says:

It has been stated very generally in the newspapers, that General Lee had turned over only eight thousand men, and it was supposed that the best portion of his army had been sent to Johnston before the completion of the negotiation for surrender. This statement is incorrect. He had turned over, under the articles of capitulation, over thirty-five thousand men, with a hundred and fifty pieces of artillery, and ten thousand stand of arms.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

BY authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as

THE SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of June 15th, 1865, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per Cent.
GOLD BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are worth a premium which increases the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, and its exemption from State and municipal taxation adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable in currency semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent	per day	on a	$50 note.
Two cents	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions, and the notes forwarded at once. The interest to 15th June next will be paid in advance. This is now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being aasorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

JAY COOKE,
SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions will be received by the
