With the Fishermen.

Fishing with hook and line down the river this week has been off. Lovers of the sport report poor catches. The wind has been east most of the week, and the fishermen say there is never anything doing with hook and line on east winds.

Good catches of white cat fish have been made during the week off Chester and Morgnec bridges. A few pan rock have also been caught from Chester bridge.

—The personal property sale of Mr. L. Harris Crew will take place on Monday. Mr. Crew will offer to the public an exceptionally fine lot of stock, especially his horses, among which are some fine drivers and excellent workers, and any one desiring a good horse can get suited at Mr. Crew's sale on Monday.
