SOCIETY REALMS.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Page strong have returned to their home in Baltimore after a visit of several weeks to Dr. Strong's mother, Mrs. T. Romie Strong. Dr. Strong was greatly benefited in health by his visit to old Kent and has resumed his practice.

Mr. Spencer S. Coleman, who holds a lucrative position with the Washington City Railway Campany, has been enjoying a week's vacation with relatives and friends in Queen Anne's and Kent counties. He was a welcome caller at the TRANSCRIPT office on Saturday morning.

Dr. Charles P. Gilpin has returned home, and we are very glad to state that he is greatly improved in health and is able to attend to his large office practice.

Mr. George B. McWhorter was quite sick several days this week but we are very glad to report him better.

Mr. James Noonan, one of the most popular students at Washington College, and one of its best all round athletes has withdrawn from college in order to engage in business. We regret very much to lose "Jimmie".

Mr. James H. Shuster has been in town on business during the week.

Messrs. Wethered Barroll, Houston Toulson and Simon Westcott, of Baltimore, were at home to vote.

Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., was in Centreville court this week on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cochran, of Galena, announce the engagement of their daughter Florence Lute to Mr. Ralph Thomas Vandyke, of Locust Grove, Md.

Mrs. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore, and nephew, Master Freeman Gale, of New Freedom, Pa., has been visiting relatives and friends in the county and town during the week.

Mr. W. Frank Jarrell returned on Monday evening from Atlantic City where he spent several days last week.

The young folks of the town, chaperoned by Mrs. Charles R. Twilley, gave a delightful dance in Firemen's Hall on Saturday evening last. Prof. Sadler, of Baltimore, rendered fine music for the occasion.

Mrs. J. B. Burchinal has been confined to her bed for the past week, but we are glad to state that she is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Northam and the Lusby boys have removed to her farm in Broad Neck, and Mrs. Hadaway goes to the house corner High and Kent streets.

Rev. Dr. Peregrine Wroth, a distinguished Baltimore divine, and his wife, were guests of Mrs. Ellen Beck on Maple avenue last week.

Mrs. H. C. D. Wilkinson and little son, John, of Baltimore, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes, on High street.

Mr. Fred Hirons, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hirons, on Cannon street.

Miss Mamie Miller has gone to Wilmington, Del., where she will make her home with her brother. We regret to lose Miss Miller from our midst.

Mrs. Wm. B. Coleman is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Polk Bramble, in Baltimore.

Mr. James Dunbracco will represent the Prudential Insurance Company as substitute for Mr. William Maslin, who is away from home for the benefit of his health.

Mrs. Vandiver, wife of State Treasurer Murray Vandiver, who resides at Havre de Grace, is the proud possessor of a banana bearing tree. The tree is about six years old and ten feet high, and this is the first year that it has borne fruit.

TO HE TAX-PAYERS OF KENT COUNTY.

TREASURER'S NOVEMBER SITTING.

In pursuance of an act of Assembly passed at the session in 1891, Chapter 292, the undersigned, Treasurer of Kent County, hereby gives notice that for the purpose of receiving the

STATE AND COUNTY TAXES

in said county for the year 1910, he will sit for the September Sitting in the several Election Districts between the hours at 10 A. M. and 3 P. M., on Monday, November 14th,

Millington—At Feddeman & Collins' Store.
Rock Hall—At Chesapeake House.

Thursday, November 17th,
Betterton—At Chas. H. Brice's Store.
Still Pond—At Medders & Co.'s Store.

Monday, Nov. 21st.
Fairlee—At Kilbourn & Bramble's Store.
Cliffs—At Wm. F. Stoops' Store.

At all other times will be at Treasurer's Office in Chestertown.
The Treasurer's office in the Court House will not be open on the above days.

The Treasurer's office in the Court House will be open every day except on the above dates from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. for the receipt of Taxes. Taxpayers will please take notice that taxes will be due and payable Sept. 1st and that on all bills unpaid on January 1st, interest will be charged and collected from Sept. 1st. On the first day of January all taxes unpaid are declared by law to be in arrears, and delinquents will be warned that unless settlement in full is made before April 1st the claims against them will be placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the county, who will proceed to seize and sell their property to pay the taxes due with charges and all costs of sale. The Treasurer would therefore respectfully urge all taxpayers to pay promptly.

n5-3t. WILLIAM J. TARBUTTON, Treasurer.

FIRE SALE! FIRE SALE!
—OF—
CLOTHING AND SHOES
AT BORDLEY'S NEW STORE
ON THE SQUARE.

The whole stock of Clothing saved from the Bordley Building will be offered for sale at a Tremendous Sacrifice!

All the new suit goods bought this season, and opened a few days before the fire, were carefully taken from the store and carried to the Old Transcript Building, and not a garment soiled. The suits, the best $12 and $15 suit that money can buy, will be sold for $8 and $10. All the old stock still on hand will be sold for a SONG. I am determined that I will not carry a single garment of my present stock to my new store. What I fail to sell in my present quarters will be shipped to the city and sold at auction. If you want a SUIT or OVERCOAT for less money than you ever dreamed of buying one, don't fail to call at this GREAT FIRE SALE. If you want the pick, call early. I have

A Line of Children's Suits worth, when new from $3.50 to $5, which I Am Selling for Only $1.00.
A Line of Men's Serviceable Suits for Every-day Wear for $2.50 and $3.00.

In the rush last Saturday many could not get waited on. If you come again on Saturday I beg of you to be just a little patient. To insure better service, however, I would advise you to call through the week.

Respectfully,

Thomas S. Bordley.
