Miss Fannie Baker led the Christian Workers Service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. She was splendidly assisted by her Juniors. The meeting was very interesting.

Rev. S. J. Cleeland, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Dover, Del., has been elected Superintendent of the Anti Saloon League in place of Rev. J. M. Arters. The headquarters will be removed from Wilmington, Del., to Dover.

An interesting event took place in Christ M. P. Sunday School on Sunday afternoon last, when little Arthur Appleby Bolton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bolton, of near Cecilton, was baptized by the pastor Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Mrs. J. L. Smyth, sister of Mrs. Bolton was sponsor for the parents. Little Arthur is a very sweet little boy and is a member of class No. 8 in the Sunday School. He is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, which by the way attacked the whole family of which little Arthur is a member, and his aunt Mrs. Smyth is kindly caring for him. He is the pet of the Sunday School, and a splendid boy.

Rev. J. M. Arters, who recently resigned the post of Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Delaware, has accepted the office of Superintendent of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, with headquarters in Salisbury.

Rock Hall Items.

Goldie Wilkins, of the U. S. N., formerly of this town, fell and hurt himself very badly, having fallen from the mast head thirty-five feet down astraddle a tower. He is confined to the hospital at Annapolis.

Winter has set in for fair, and it looks as if we might have some for Christmas.

Herbert Elburn, in making sausage, used a caseing forty feet, which took three gallons of meat to fill. Mr. Elburn had very nice hogs, weighing 300 and 250 pounds.

Harry Watkins and wife have rented Grett Urie's house on Main street, where they will reside.

Max Alexander spent a couple of days in Baltimore this week.

R. A. Shallcross will move into R. T. Crew's residence on S. Main street, and Prof. Greenhawk will take the house vacated by Mr. Shallcross.

Frank Ford, of East Neck Island, has rented two farms recently purchased by Wm. Smith, of Fairlee.

The curtain and scenery for the new hall have been ordered and will be an interesting feature as well as a great attraction.

There is still some doubt as to whether Rock Hall will have a bowling alley in the near future or not.

The postmaster has been confined to his house for several days this week.
