Departed this life, early on Sunday morning last, little Katie, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliff, of this town. On Christmas morning, Katie, with many other children of the Sunday School was in the church to receive their nice treat, in which the good superintendent, Mr. John Medders, and others took so great an interest. As little Katie came at the call of her name, so sweet and demure, the superintendent said—"good morning." She attracted special attention. Two weeks after that time, last Sunday morning, the "Good Shepherd" took her in His bosom and bore her safely to the great Heavenly Fold. I wonder if the angels and loved ones there did not say "good morning" as Katie entered the home of the blest. Funeral services at the home of the parents, Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, officiating. "Asleep in Jesus" and "Safe in the arms of Jesus" were the hymns sung by many who were present to pay the tribute of love and sympathy. The remains of Katie looked peaceful and free from suffering in the pure white casket, surrounded by flowers with her little doll under her left arm. Many tears were shed. "Suffer the little children to come unto Me," saith the "Good Shepherd."

Rev. Mr. Mullineaux was called to Harrington, Del., on Wednesday to assist in the funeral services of Mr. Ezekiel Fleming, an aged and most active business man of that town, who departed this life on Saturday of the past week, after some weeks' illness. Mr. Fleming became very fond of Mr. Mullineaux during his pastorate of said town, and last summer gave to the latter and his wife the use of his beautiful palatial cottage at Reboboth Beach for a couple of weeks, thus giving to the pastor and wife a most delightful summer vacation. Mr. Fleming was a man of sterling worth and enterprise, and his kindness and friendship is known to scores and hundreds of people in Delaware and Maryland. He was a special friend to the poor, and it seemed to give him the greatest pleasure to help the needy.

"Help somebody to-day,
Somebody along life's way;
Let sorrow be ended,
The friendless be friended;
O, Help somebody to-day."

Sunday services, January 15th, 1911, Kennedyville M. P. Church.—9.30 A. M., Sunday School; 10.30 A. M., sermon by the pastor; 2 30 P. M, Junior C. E. service, Supt. Mrs. Leonard Pennington; public worship at 7 P. M. Everybody welcome to all these services.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the town, met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Redmile on Friday evening of this week.

In the near future the Juniors of the C. E. Society will give a pie social in the home of their good superintendent, Mrs. Pennington. Let everybody come and help the little folks in their most worthy enterprise.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE AND RESOLUTIONS TO WM. J. HURLOCK.

WHEREAS, On the 3rd of October, 1910, our Divine Lord and Father, in His infinite wisdom and goodness, has seen fit to enter our circle and remove from our midst our beloved friend and honored brother and fellow member of our church and quarterly conference, Wm J. Hurlock. And

WHEREAS, We bow in humble submission to the will of the Great Head of the church in calling to Himself our esteemed brother and faithful co-laborer:

"Not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The reaper came that day,
But an angel visited the earth
And took our brother away" from days of weary suffering and nights of restlessness and pain.

Resolved, That Kennedyville charge, Methodist Protestant Church, has sustained in the departure of Bro. Hurlock, a serious loss.

Resolved, That our quarterly conference has had removed from its membership one of its most faithful, devoted and consecrated number.

Resolved, That we bear this willing and affectionate testimony to his many virtues as a christian and fellow laborer in the church he loved so well.

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Hurlock, the community has lost a conscientious, honorable and valuable citizen; his associates a warm hearted, genial friend, and his family a devoted, affectionate husband and father.

Resolved, That we tender to the family and relatives of the deceased Bro Hurlock, our profound sympathy, and sincerely pray that the God of the departed one may bless and comfort them in their time of deep sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of this tribute be placed upon the journal of our quarterly conference, transmitted to the family of the deceased, and published in the Methodist Protestant and county papers as a perpetual memorial.

Kennedyville, Md., 3rd quarterly conference, Methodist Protestant Church, January 9th, 1911.
