A Wise Precaution.

The opinion of the veterinary profession is practically unanimous and the medical profession is rapidly realizing the danger to public health through dairy products from tuberculous animals and in the interest of the public health we believe that ordinances in every municipality in the state should be passed to insure the healthfulness and wholesomeness of milk and dairy products. As an up-to-day and progressive move for the protection of the health of its citizens, The Board of Town Commissioners of this town has passed an ordinance requiring that all cows supplying milk to the citizens of town shall have a clean bill of health. This is the first town in the state to adopt such a measure and it is a very wise precaution, for we are firmly convinced that much of the tuberculosis and tubercular affection now existing in this country are due primarily to infected milk and dairy products. To Dr. G. Allen Jarman is due much of the credit for bringing this important matter to the attention of the Town Commissioners, who have shown a distinctly progressive spirit in the adoption of the ordinance. We believe our dairymen and all other venders of milk products will see the patriotism in such and will co-operate with the Town Commissioners in preserving the health of the citizens of this town, which would be greatly endangered by the use of infected milk and dairy products.

FIREMEN'S SUPPER.

ON THURSDAY EVENING, JANUARY 26th, the ladies of the town will hold a SUPPER in Fireman's Hall for the benefit of the fire company. All are urged to come and get a good supper. Tickets 50 cents. There will also be home-made candy for sale.
