VOL XLIX—NO. 38. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1911. $1.00 PER ANNUM

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

THE ONLY NATIONAL BANK IN KENT COUNTY.

A comparative statement of Deposits (as Sworn to) of the three banks of Chestertown—ten years ago and the last statement made—Jan. 7th, 1911:

	Jan. 7th, 1911.	Feb. 5th, 1901.	Increase.
Kent County Savings Bank	$323,643.57	$246,623.59	$77,019.98
Chestertown Bank	399,459.66	253,306.62	146,153.04
Second-Third National	667,140.40	294,014.37	373,126.03

Analyze the above figures; they will tell you the growth of banking in Chestertown. Notice the Third National Bank's growth—$373,126.03—more than double. It is the bank carrying the largest Reserve Fund, always prepared to meet any emergency. Everybody treated alike. Interest paid on all Savings Deposits.

Discrimination in the selection of a Bank in the duty of every depositor.

The National Bank Examiner made an examination of our affairs last week, and of course found us in splendid shape.

Let us have your banking business,

Very respectfully,

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

of Chestertown, Maryland.

Testimonial to Advertising

Messrs. H. F. Jefferfon & Bro. one of the county's largest advertisers says in their big advertisment this week—"It was a surprise to us to know how many people read advertisements. From town and from all parts of the county the wise buyer came in to ask for her share in the white goods sale, etc." This statement from a large and reliable business firm speaks for itself. It is an evidence that the country newspaper is the best advertising medium in the world for a rural community. This fact is attested by not only Jefferson & Bro. but by other large advertisers who have learned the value of newspaper advertiseing. The merchant who spends big money in calendars, signs and other devices, is wasting money so far as its advertising value is concerned, and the man who sells the calendars is very often the fellow who has no interest in the town or county except to come here and get your money which never comes back any more. Put what money you've got for advertising in newspaper space, and you will not only benefit the newspaper which is one of the greatest forces in your county for its development, but you will be sure to get the very best results.
