THE LADIES' STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

THE BEST SHOW IN TOWN!

THE FAIRLEE MINSTRELS WERE FINE and GUY BROS. did well, but all who have visited Jefferson Bros.' store seem to agree that the grand display of SPRING GOODS for 1911 constitutes the best show in town. The Dress Goods, White Goods, Laces, Embroideries, Staple Articles, Etc. (not to mention the big preparation they are making for Spring Millinery and Shoes) surpass in variety and quality all other standards of excellence reached in the five years history of the store. In short, the store is making a new record for itself.

All are cordially invited to THE BEST SHOW IN TOWN—ADMISSION FREE.

Silks, Foulards and Collar Voiles.

These fabrics will be used extensively this season, Foulards are here at the following prices—69c, 85c and 90c per yard. The blue with white dot will make a stylish dress. Cotton Voiles, fancy and plain, at 50c and 25c per yard, respectively.

We have fancy Voile is colors—white, black, light blue, lavender, old rose and green. Daintier goods than these can nowhere be found, and if you contemplate buying an evening dress, you should see these beautiful Voiles at 50c per yard.

SILK MESSALINE!

Our line of Messalines was filled in last week, and now about all colors are represented. These Silks (27 inches wide) and prices of same are very popular, 85c and 90c per yard.

FLAXON!

This comparatively new material appears in many designs this season. The plain, striped, large and small checked and colored make a choice selection for spring and summer dresses. Prices 18c and 25c.

DRESS GOODS.

Our line of Dress Goods is the best yet. Serges, Voiles, Striped Mohairs, Santoys and Panamas take the lead, and we are prepared to please you in all the newest weaves. We can show a large assortment at all these prices:

According to value—25c, 50c, 60c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 per yd.

GINGHAMS AND PERCALES.

Our sales since January 1st in Ginghams and Percales have far exceeded those of former years. Here's the reason for it, more and better patterns.

Ginghams, 8c, 10c, 12c and 15c per yard. Percales, 12c per yard.

SUITS!

The beautiful Spring Suits have arrived, and it will be a pleasure to show them to you. Their style, quality and kind of material will greatly attract you. We purchased the best moderate priced Suits that could be bought in New York and Philadelphia. We are making a specialty of ordering Suits from measurements, and guarantee a fit.

N. B.—We want two Apprentice Girls to learn the Millinery. Apply at once.

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

THE LADIES' STORE,

THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. SADIE E. SEVERSON.

Mrs. Sadie E. Severson, wife of Mr. Charles Severson, died at her home in Still Pond on Monday morning last after a lingering illness, aged 36 years. The deceased had conducted a millinery store in that town for a number of years until failing health compelled her to give it up about a year ago. Mrs. Severson was a woman of fine disposition and she made many friends in whatever surroundings she was placed. During her entire illness she did not complain, but placing herself in the hands of her Creator, whom she served so well, resigned her all to His hands. She loved the church and church work and was always found in the house of God, active in His service. Until failing health compelled her to desist, she taught a class of young men in Still Pond Sunday school, and they were always met with a sweet smile and a loving welcome from their teacher when it was their good fortune to be present. The community will miss her, as will also the church, and her place will be hard to fill; but her release from her suffering was but a happy entrance into that sweet rest beyond. She leaves a husband, Mr. Charles Severson; one son, Linsley; also a mother, Mrs. James H. Warren; a brother, Mr. Hanson Crew, of Baltimore; also a half brother, Mr. R. G. Warren, of Still Pond. Funeral services took place at her late home in Still Pond on Thursday afternoon. Interment was in Still Pond cemetery. The pall-bearers were six of the young men of her Sunday school class, as follows: Charles, Wallace and Edwin Ford, Herman Robinson, Elon Beauchamp and Richard Robinson. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. CLARA BRAMBLE.

Mrs. Clara Bramble, a well-known and highly esteemed resident of this county, and wife of Mr. James H. Bramble, one of our well-known and prosperous farmers, died at her home on the Fairlee farm, near Tolchester, last Friday afternoon, aged 59 years. The deceased had been in feeble health for some time, but only recently had her condition become alarming. Mrs. Bramble was a lady of fine christian character, and was interested in her husband's labors to such an extent that she made an ideal farmer's wife. She bore her great suffering with christian fortitude, and leaves a host of friends in the county who were shocked to hear of her somewhat sudden death. The deceased was a Miss Wood before marriage, sister of Mr. C. C. Wood, of the Fifth District. She leaves besides her husband, four sons, Messrs. Alfred, of Baltimore; Henry, of Wilmington; Herman and Matthew, of this county. Funeral services were held on Monday, conducted by Revs. H. Kelso, W. E. Hubbard and Ivanhoe Willis. Interment was made in Chester Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Herman Bramble, James M. Wood, Andrew Harper, Arnold Willis, Chas. D. Wood and Bartus Hatcherson. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. JOHN W. GODWIN.

Mr. John W. Godwin died last week at his residence, 2101 East Fayette street, Baltimore. He was born in Centreville, Queen Annes county, Md., in 1842, and was closely related to the Coppages, a well-known family of the Eastern Shore. Mr. Godwin was a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted and served in Battery B. First Maryland Light Artillery, under Capt. Alonzo Snow, receiving an honorable discharge in Baltimore on July 3, 1865. He was a carpenter by occupation and was employed by the firm of Ross & Sanford for a number of years. During the adminstration of the Republican party in Baltimore county, from 1896 to 1900, he was keeper of the Canton Police Station. Mr. Godwin is survived by a widow (Mrs. Clara M. Godwin), two sons (Messrs. Howard S. and John P. Godwin) and one daughter (Miss Clara Godwin). He was a member of Oriole Lodge, No 46, Shield of Honor.

MRS. MARTHA A. COLEMAN.

Mrs. Martha A. Coleman, mother of Mrs. Enoch Latham, of this town, died at her home in Rock Hall on Tuesday, aged 63 years. The deceased was before marriage a Miss Sinton. She leaves five children, two sons and three daughters. Funeral services were held yesterday conducted by Rev. V. P. Northrup. Interment was made in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Latham and sons attended the funeral.

Still Pond Farmers Club.

The Still Pond Farmers' Club was entertained at the beautiful home of Miss Lavina Harper on Thursday of last week. There were present, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, Mrs. Beauchamp, Rev. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. F. Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Price, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Bennett, Captain and Mrs. D. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bonwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Redding, Mr. and Mrs. Roseberry, Mr. and Mrs. L. Price, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jarrell, Mrs. Shafer, Miss Emma Shafer, Mrs. J. Biddle Hossinger, Mrs. K. Crew, Mrs. Emma Meeks, Mrs. John Parrott, Mrs. Walters, Miss Bessie Wheatley, Mr. James Webb.

TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF CHESTERTOWN.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election as a member of the Board of Town Commissioners subject to the approaching election on Monday, April 24th. If elected I promise to give my close attention to the needs of the town as I have done in the past, and am in favor of all improvements that tend towards the progress and [illegible] of the town.
