CHURCH WORK.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, April 2d, as follows: 10.30 A. M., brief sermon by the pastor, followed by sacremental service; 2.10 P. M., Sabbath-school and pastor's Bible class; missionary collection; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service; 7.30 P. M., preaching by the pastor.

Last Sabbath marked the beginning of the conference year. Great congregations greeted the new pastor morning and evening. Everybody seemed happy and pleased.

The Chestertown M. E. Sabbath School elected on Sunday afternoon the following Missionary officers for the year 1911: President, M. E. Newsome; vice-president, John E. Barnes; secretary, He[illegible]; treasurer, James Kreeger.

The anniversary of the Missionary society of Christ M. P. Church Sunday School will be held to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock. An interesting programme of recitation and sweet music has been prepared. All the other services of the church during the day. Last Sunday of the conference year. Dr. Little will be glad to see a large congregation.

Revs. Dr. F. T. Little, of Chestertown and John S. Bowers, of Baltimore, with Mr. Wilson, of Rhode Island avenue church, Washington, D. C. who where appointed by the Maryland Conference as delegates to the Baltimore Conference, of the M. E. Church to discuss the question of Church Union, addressed that body this week, which is now in session in Washington.

Next Friday, April 7th, Mr. Wm. F. Cochran, of Baltimore, will be present and make an address in Emmanuel Church at 7.45 P. M. All are cordially invited to attend this service.

Bishop Adams has changed the date of his visit to Emmanuel Church from Wednesday, April 12th to Tuesday, April 11th, one day sooner than he first appointed. He will, therefore, visit the Parish, preach and administer the rito of confirmation on Tuesday, April 11th.

It is reported that on account of his health Rev. J. E. Nicholson the popular pastor of Crumpton M. P. Church, may be asked to be left without an appointment for next year.

Rev. Dr. J. Houston Eccleston, rector of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore, and one of the oldest and best known ministers in the Maryland Diocese, was badly injured Monday afternoon when a carriage in which he was riding was struck and overturned by an automobile owned by Dr. R. Tunstall Taylor, of St. Paul and Twentieth streets. The accident occurred shortly after 4 o'clock at the corner of Mount Royal avenue and St. Paul street, and immediately after the overturned vehicle had been removed from his body the aged minister was removed to his home, 910 St. Paul street, in another automobile. He is suffering from a fractured collarbone and severe bruises of the head and body. Dr. Eccleston is a close relative of Mrs. Carolene L. Hynson, of this town, and his many friends here who regret seriously his misfortune, and hope for his speedy recovery.

The Maryland Annual Conference will convene in Federalsburg on Wednesday. Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor of Christ Church here, will leave on Tuesday, and there will be no preaching services morning or evening on the following Sunday. Rev. Dr. Little is closing a most successful fourth year's pastorate, and his congregation and the people at large will be greatly pleased at his return for another year. Mr. Fred G. Usilton is the delegate and Mr. Wm. Vansant the alternate.

Rhode Island Avenue Church, Washington, D. C., will extend an invitation to the next annual conference to meet there, and that church has the knack of getting what it wants, when it wants it.

Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin will preach a special sermon to the Masonic lodge on Good Friday evening, in Emmanuel P. E. Church.

The annual coference of the M. E. Church South, is in session at Clifton Forge, Va. Rev. Dr. Alexander Rood, of Chesterville and Millington charge, is in attendance. There will be much rejoicing if Dr. Rood is returned to Kent for another year. He is a forceful speaker, a splendid christian gentleman, and extremely popular with all classes.

Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell, one of the oldest and most beloved ministers of the Maryland Methodist Protesent Conference, lies in a precarious condition in his home in Belair, as the result of a third stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Hoblitzell, is an ex-pastor of Christ M. P. Church, this town, and has many friends here who sympathize with the family in their sad affliction.

Dr. Mowbray Leaves Smyrna.

The members of Asbury M.E. church, Smyrna, Del., were given a surprise at the close of the Sunday morning service, when Rev. A. S. Mowbray, pastor of the church for the past year, told them that he desired to be released to the Baltimore Conference, where he had been called by one of the churches to a pastorate in Washington, and where he will also become a professor in the Lucia Webb Hayes school, in the same place. A meeting of the members of the Smyrna church was held and the request of Dr. Mowbray was granted. Dr. Mowbray is one of the most prominent members of the Wilmington Conference, and he will be a distinct loss to that body.
