THE People's Candidates! What people's candidates? The Organization people's candidates. They couldn't be anything else than the Organizations people's candidates if they wanted to be. Their candidates are named by the PEOPLE. What people? The Organization people. That's all. Nobody fooled.

THE wave of Democracy is still sweeping ovor the country. Chicago elected a democratic Mayor by a big majority on Tuesday; Hartford, Conn., went Democratic on Tuesday for the first time in 20 years, and the Democrats will carry Baltimore city in May, notwithstanding the opposition of the Baltimore Sun.

GOVERNOR CROTHERS on Monday appointed Judge Stockbridge, of Baltimore city, to the vacancy on the Court of Appeals bench caused by the death of Judge Schmucker, and appointed Mr. Carroll Bond to Judge Stockbridge's place in the Supreme Court of Baltimore. They are most excellent appointments.

ANTI-BOSSISM! Now just think of such a thing as the Organization crying Anti-Bossism, when two men in Chestertown have selected every candidate they have on their bobtail ticket, and the people of the various districts have not been consulted about a single candidate, and when the First District offered a man for the Legislature the Bosses in Chestertown turned him down flat footed, and would not hear to such dictation.

SUPREME Court Justice James Aloysius O'Gorman, 52 years old, was elected Friday night United States Senator from New York State to succeed Chauncey M. Depew, ending a 10-weeks' deadlock, caused by a Democratic insurgent outbreak against the candidate chosen by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. Justice O'Gorman received 112 votes to 80 cast for ex-Senator Depew.

MR. GEORGE HUDSON, of the Sixth District says the Kent News was ashamed to publish what he really did tell them. He says he told them they were worse than Teddy Roosevelt, who stole all of Mr. Bryan's politics. He said he told the News that they had not only taken the Antis' politics, but that they had even taken their name, and some of their candidates, and that's the reason they think we have a bobtail ticket. Good boy, George, didn't you invite them to the harmony dinner?

WE deeply regret the defeat of Mayor Mahool in the primaries last Tuesday, and we believe that the sentiment in Kent among Democrats of all shades of political opinion was strongly for the mayor. But the primaries are over and Mr. Preston is nominated. It is sincerely hoped that all factions of the party in Baltimore will get together, forget their differences and elect Mr. Preston and his associates on the ticket and thus insure the success of the party in the fall. The best sort of a Democrat is he who is a Democrat, whether he wins or loses in a primary, and the TRANSCRIPT sincerely hopes that all elements of the party may unite and give Mr. Preston a fine majority.

WE were satisfied that they would be Anti-something in their issue last Saturday. They were just a little afraid at this stage of the campaign to announce themselves Anti-Organization, and so they just modestly announced their bobtail ticket as standing for ANTI-BOSSISM and for ECONOMY and LOW TAXES. Oh! we tell you the harmony dinner is progressing fine. But you fellows up there in the First District stop laughing. The Organization organ, what once was, is making speeches every Saturday to the People's candidates to keep up their courage, and they don't want to be interrupted by your vociferous ejaculations. So keep quiet till the proper time, and then you can let her go, and oh! my, what a time there will be.

WEIGHED IN THE BALANCE.

Who would have thought this time two years ago, that the Organization forces would have been reduced to such dire straits as that they are ashamed any longer to own their name—Organization. There was a time when they gloried in the name of Organization, and any man who dared oppose their methods or attempted to throttle the engine of their bosses incurred their hatred and mortal enmity. But now what a change! They are now no longer ORGANIZATION, but are fighting desperately to get on the side of the people, and are announcing their candidates as the PEOPLE'S CANDIDATES, and hurrahing for ECONOMY and LOW TAXES after they have spent all of the money of the people nearly, and have left as a legacy to the people the low (?) tax rate of $1.85. With no intention whatever to be sacrilegious, or to use Holy Writ lightly, we do not know how more fittingly to describe the position of the Organization at the present moment than to pharaphase Scriptural text to suit the Organization's confession to the people to wit:

"We have sinned and erred from thy ways (the People's ways) like lost sheep, we have followed too much the desires of our own hearts, we have done those things which we ought not to have done in county affairs, and have left undone in the Maryland Legislature those things which we ought to have done, and there is no hope for us."

And it came to pass when the people heard these sayings, they murmured greatly among themselves, saying, "Ye have had your feast, ye have taken your ease, and the hand writing is on the wall, which being interpreted means, THOU ART WEIGHED IN THE BALANCE AND FOUND WANTING." And they went away sorrowful.

AN APRIL FOOL JOKE.

The Barroll organ, in stating that the People's candidates were for trading purposes, must have forgotten that in this campaign no license or permit is required for a man to ask for votes, at least on the People's side. Of course when it is remembered that no man can be a candidate on the Barroll side unless he gets a license, or permit, we can understand why the Barroll organ should have thought it required one on all sides.

No, gentlemen, these men are not dealing in cattle or merchandise. The People's candidates are all men of character and do not look upon voters as dumb-driven cattle. It requires no Traders License to be a candidate on the People's side. These candidates are named by the People and not by one man. Each man will heartily support the other and all are working in harmony for the cause of lower taxes and economy in county affairs—Kent News of April 1.

Now don't such statements as these, coming from the very source and fountain of Bossism only a few short years ago, grate on your nerves? It's nothing in the world but an April fool joke, so don't put any confidence in such high flown self laudation.

Now gentlemen, the TRANSCRIPT would respectfully suggest that if your representatives are not dealing in cattle and merchandise this year, it is because they are repenting of what they did in the last Legislature when they passed that beautiful stock dealers and fur buyers law, which makes every merchant and stock buyer in Kent county pay a license of $25 the first of every May before he can buy and sell cattle or deal in certain kinds of merchandise, and because you passed such a law as that two years ago, nobody has any assurance that you wouldn't go down to Annopolis in 1912 and pass another law prohibiting the farmer's wife from selling her poultry, butter and eggs at our stores for merchandise if you pay no more attention to the passage of laws in the Legislature than to allow laws affecting so many people's welfare to slip by you. If ever there was a more flagrant and glaring evidence of the influence of bosses in Kent county than there was in the passage of those beautiful laws in the last Legislature, we should like to see what it looks like, and we thoroughly agree with you that it requires no license to be a candidate for office on the real People's ticket.

A SHAM ISSUE.

In view of the fact that the Organization forces are endeavoring to inject the issue of Bossism into the present campaign and that they are seeking to unduly influence the minds of the people of the county against Mr. Hope H. Barroll, one of the leaders of the People's faction of the party and a staunch advocate of the people's best interests, we reproduce here verbatim and editorial from the pen of the late George E. Hadaway, editor of the Easton Ledger, which was published in that paper in 1903, during the investigation of Kent county's finances, after a strenuous campaign, urged by Mr. Barroll and the TRANSCRIP, in which the county was wrested from the control of the Republicans. This editorial speaks for itself and stamps Mr. Barroll as the advocate of the people's interests, and not as a Boss who is either seeking office all the time for himself, or insisting upon naming candidates for office without giving the people of the several districts an opportunity to have any voice in the selection of these candidates.

KENT COUNTY'S FINANCES.

The expert accountant employed several weeks past for the purpose of investigating the finances of Kent county, completed his report the first part of last week, and the grand jury met in special session and accepted the same. The report showed the grossest incompetency in the personnel of the boards for over ten years past and also exposed the enormous indebtedness of $605,58.74.

Mr. Hope H. Barroll was very instrumental in bringing the deplorable condition of affairs to light. But a series of articles, which it seems the Chestertown TRANSCRIPT alone was willing to publish, the citizens of that county would still be in ignorance of the miserable condition of Kent's finances. Every succeeding year Mr. Barroll's articles contended and the expert accountant demonstrated, the Boards of Commissioners have levied less money by several thousand dollars than was sufficient to run the county. As a result the county has been plunged into a debt from which it will take a space of ten or more years to recover and during which time the citizens of that county will be subjected to a county tax rate of about $1.10, which, with the State tax, will amount to more than $1.27 on the $100.

The present board has already fixed the tax rate for the present year at $1.35 and the expert accountant stated that it should have been $1.85. It is certainly fortunate that through Mr. Barroll's investigations the true condition of affairs was brought to light before the county was hopelessly bankrupt, and her citizens surely owe him a debt of gratitude. Future boards will doubtless be more careful in their levies and expenditures.

CAMPAIGN SONG FOR ORGANIZATION.

(With apologies to Auld Lang Syne.)

We suggest the following song for the Organization People to sing during their strenuous campaign. With a little crowding of words it may be sung very well to the tune of Auld Lang Syne, and will help to cheer them up as they mingle among the voters:

We love the good men of the long ago,
But, Oh! you Cad Hurlock and Thomas C. Roe;
How much we do hate to see you go
Where we know you have gone, but we hate it so, so!

Dear Cad and dear Tom, won't you come back
To go with us to defeat in our broken down hack?
But dear Cad and dear Tom said: "We've had one pill,
And our interests we'll keep with the Anti-People still."

But never a word would the hack drivers hear,
They claim Cad and Tom to quell their friends' fear,
Until the morning after, and the votes are all told,
They'll find Cad and Tom in the People's Faction fold.

And so the word goes to "fool all you can,"
To get for Billie Beck the vote of every man,
And thus strike a blow at the people's best good,
And the principles for which the Antis have stood.

But don't be alarmed, good people of Kent,
There are others who are going where Cad and Tom went,
And when the votes are counted, and the story is told,
They'll find the whole crowd in the People's Faction fold.

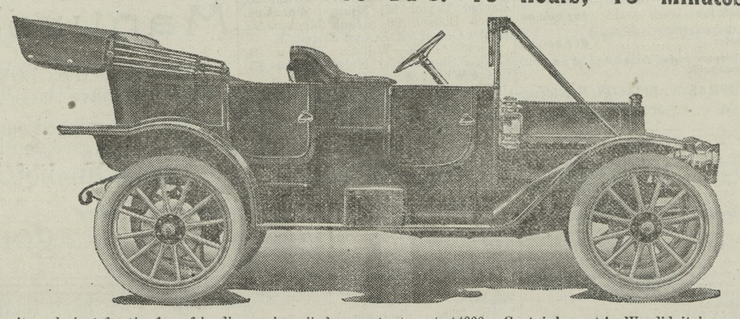
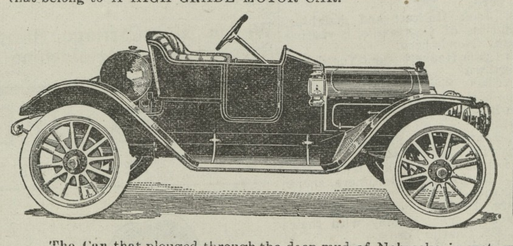
THE BET WORLD'S RECORD

New York to San Francisco--10 Days, 15 Hours, 13 Minutes.



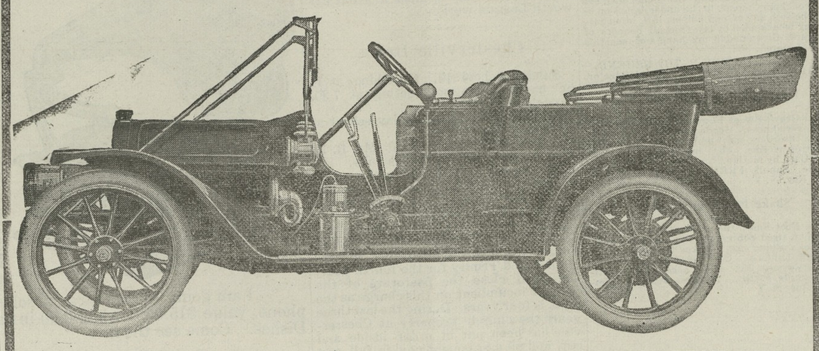
Wasn't made just for the fun of leading a six-cylinder car that cost $4000. Certainly not! We did it because it is the shortest and surest way to prove to you, stranger, that the REO will do everything you can possibly ask of a Motor Car. POWER! The Rocky and Sierra Mountains, and the World's Best Record up Mt. Hamilton, California, on high gear had a lot harder and stiffer climb than you will ever encounter. You want Proof and the REO has plenty of it. The most important feature is get there and back ability. This is absolutely proved by the REO RECORDS, including Kansas City Star Cup Contest September 12, 1910; Kansas Magazine Cup Run, October 17, 1910. It is also complete proof of ample power, speed, strength, comfort and all the other qualities that belong to A HIGH GRADE MOTOR CAR.



REO

The Car that plouged through the deep mud of Nebraska in wet weather, kept going at a steady pace through the washouts and chuck-holes of the Great American Desert, climbed the rough grades of the Desert, the Rockies, the Sierra Nevada Mountains, also World's Fastest Record up Mt. Hamilton, California, on high gear. The Car that has done all this at record speed, with not a wrench touch to the engine, will do all you will ever ask of it. You know what you can do with a REO. These records prove it. We have plenty more proof if you want it. The REO is the most economical car to buy and own.

Buy With Both Sides of Your Dollar!



Whatever car you get, insist upon proof somewhere near equal to the REO'S. Buy a certainty, not a chance!

Prices from $500 to a $2000 Limousine. Truck from 1500 lbs. to 5 tons.
