CHURCH WORK.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, April 19, as follows: 10.30 A. M. preaching by the pastor, subject "The World's Glad Easter." An offering will be made for the benefit of the "Highlanders of the South;" 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school Easter services; 7 P.M. in the auditorium, Epworth League; 7.30 P. M. preaching by the pastor, subject, "The Early Morning Seeker and What She Found." Beautiful decorations and splendid singing. Come and spend the day with us—you will be welcome.

Christ M. P. Church—Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor. All the services of the church during the day. The new pastor will preach morning and evening at the usual hour, and will be in his place at the other services.

The members and delegates to the M. P. Conference were charmed with the splendid entertainment which the people of Federalsburg gave them, and they all agree that Federalsburg is one of the most progressive and wide-awake towns on the Shore.

Mr. William Vansant made a splendid delagate to the Conference. He represented the church's interests faithfully and as a member of the Board of Finance, his judgment was accepted on all questions.

The following have been elected members of the Board of Stewards of the Kennedyville M. P. Church—Messrs. Isaac Cleaver, Wm. M. Clendaniel, Geo. W. Jones, G. R. Rasin, Thomas Van Dyke and Wm. T. Hague.

All the Methodist Protestant ministers who had been attending conference at Federalsburg, have been returned to their respective charges for another year, and the usual services will be held tomorrow, Easter Sunday.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the New Castle Presbytery held interesting sessions in the Elkton Presbyterian Church on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Bishop Adams preached a strong sermon in Emmanuel P. E. Church on Tuesday evening and confirmed a class of twelve persons.

Rev. Joel S. Gilfillan, D. D., will preach at Westminster (Georgetown) Presbyterian Church at 10.30 A. M. Grace (Kennedyville) Presbyterian Church at 3 P. M., and at Worton Presbyterian Church at 7.30 P. M., Sunday, April 16th.

Shrewsbury Parish.—The services on Easter day will be as follows: Holy Communion at 8 A. M. at St. Andrew's Chapel, Galena: Matins and Holy Communion at 11 A. M. at Shrewsbury Church. Last Sunday the singing of "The Palms" was a feature at the morning service at Shrewsbury.

After the regular Communion service last Sunday morning Wm. T. Hepburn and John N. Bennett joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Still Pond.

Sunday, April 16th, the Sunday-school will have a roll call at its regular meeting. All teachers are requested to insist on all scholars being present and invite new scholars to join. At 10.45 the pastor will preach an Easter sermon—the subject—"Man Immortal." There will be special music for the occasion. The morning service will be in charge of the Epworth League. A short sermon by pastor on subject of League.

Christ Church, I. U., 10.30 A. M. St. Paul's 3 P. M. Regular annual parish meeting immediately following the afternoon meeting. There will be no parish meeting at I. U.

The committee appointed by the members of Asbury M. E. Church at Smyrna, for the purpose of securing a minister to fill the pulpit for the remainder of the conference year because of the vacancy created by Rev. A. S. Mowbray leaving for other fields, has secured Pastor Barry of the M. E. Church at Piedmont, Md., and it is believed the people of the congregation and the town will be pleased.

The new pastor is highly recommended and the people of his church were averse to losing him.

Mr. Barry will move there shortly with his wife and 10-year old son. Mr. Barry comes from the Baltimore M. E. Conference and his transfer has been secured.

Rev. John M. Arters, who until recently was Superintendant of the Anti-Saloon League of Delaware, with headquarters in Wilmington, but who was appointed pastor of Newark circuit, Md., at the last session of the Wilmington Conference has been offered the State Superintendency of the Anti-Saloon League of Mississippi, with headquaters at Jackson, the capital city of the State. The offer carries with it a flattering salary proposition, and is now under consideration by Mr. Arters, who is spending a few days in Wilmington. Gov. Noel and other prominent political and religious leaders of Mississippi are identified with the league in that State and their effort is to keep their State under prohibition, as now. It is expected that Mr. Arters will reach a decision upon the offer promptly.

Large congregations attended all the churches last Sunday, which was celebrated as Palm Sunday. Fine music and excellent sermons marked the day. Tomorrow will be the glorous Eastertide, and there will be special sermons and music in all the churches.
