LOCAL MATTERS

Found Dead Body.—Mr. Percy Rawleigh, formerly of this town, but now of Florida, found the body of a man supposed to have been drowned in St. John's river, Florida, last Friday. It is thought to be the body of a rich New Yorker, for the recovery of which a reward of $100 was offered.

A Public Spirited Act.—Mr. Robt. J. McWhorter, one of our popular liverymen, has given to the Ladies' Town Improvement Association the dirt from his lot on Philosopher's Terrace to be used in filling in the playgrounds. The hill is being cut and the dirt carried to the ravine to be used in covering the soft spots. Mr. McWhorter's lot will be leveled nicely, and the whole thing will be a splendid improvement for that part of the town, and Mr. McWhorter is to be congratulated upon his public spiritedness. Teams belonging to Mr. McWhorter, Mr. Wm. H. McKee and Mr. Edw. Robinson are hauling the dirt in scoops.

JUDAS ISCARIOT—BENEDICT ARNOLD.

The inquiry made by "Inquirer" in your issue of May 6th, it does seem can be easily answered. Have we not all learned that 1900 years ago there lived a man Judas, and does not every school boy know the story of his life? Benedict Arnold, the traitor, who sold his country for a price and office and filled—a traitor's grave. Is this not an answer to "Inquirer?" The man he means must be a Judas and a Benedict Arnold.
