Kennedyville Items.

Weer's Hall was well filled Monday evening the 29th, with ladies and gentlemen of the Kennedyville Grange. Several candidates for membership were voted upon favorably, and will in the near future receive the first and second degrees of the order. Four or five new names were proposed, and committees appointed to act upon their several cases. The literary programme, in charge of Worthy Lecturer, Medders, was a Spelling Bee. The captains of the Bee were Mrs. Tilghman Shafer and Mr. L. J. Usilton. Eleven or twelve on each side composed the two armies on the field of battle. Among the fatal shells before which some of the brave patriots fell were the following: rhinoceros, mausoleum, serial, pomgranate and others.

Among the last to hold their places until near the last, were the two captains, Mrs. M. E. Clendaniel, Miss Anna Wicks Melvin, Mrs. Mullineax, Mrs. Othoson and others. Miss Melvin proved to be the champion, holding her place to the last. Good order and great interest held out until the last gun was fired. Miss Ethel Solloway was the Teacher of the occasion, selecting and pronouncing the words, and filled the place in a most admirable manner.

The last thing on the program, with open doors from the time the Bee began, was the serving of a bountiful supply of cream and cake, with a most joyful social time which all seemed most heartily to enjoy. The Grange, beginning with June, will hold one business meeting per month in the hall, the first Monday night, with occasional gatherings of a social kind on lawns or green yards as the invitations may come. Committees were appointed Monday evening to have in readiness all things on the large and beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Elias T. Othoson, for the Pomona Grange meeting in July.

Committees and rehearsals are preparing for the Children's Day service for the M. P. Church for the near future. Mr. John Medders, Supt.

The time for the re-opening service for the above named church, is postponed on account of not being able to get the new carpet from the Wanamaker firm when expected. Work on the M. P. Parsonage fence is progressing.

Keep in mind the Strawberry and Cream Festival to be held on the M. P. Church green on the evenings of Friday and Saturday of next week, June 9th., and 10th. Come and spend a most social and enjoyable time.

Galena Notes.

Children's Day was held Sunday in the M. E. Church under the direction of Misses Cora and Gertie Dempsey and Rev. A. P. Prettyman.

Mrs. John Briscoe and daughter-in-law, of Ohio, wife of Wm. Briscoe, formerly of Galena, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor in Quaker Neck on Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman and wife spent Friday in Wilmington.

Mr. John McIntire, of Wilmington, Del., was the guest of his father over Sunday.

Mr. James E. Woodall is about completing his new home at Georgetown.

Mr. James Davis, Jr., has bought a building lot of Mr. Henry Parr and is getting ready to build himself a fine home with up-to-date improvements.

Mr. Harrison Vickers was up to see us one day last week. But we fail to see him where he belongs, as he is still on the fence. Mr. Beck was also up this way.

We are glad to know that Mr. Thos. J. Dunn has consented to be a delegate, for Tom is the boy in the right place.

Go on, Kent News, we are going to win.

Mr. James Merrick, Jr., and Mr. S. S. Goodhand, of Sudlersville, have contracted with Wm. Steele, of Galena, for windmills and bath.

Rumor says we are to have several weddings sometime soon. Guess who.

Mr. S. G. Cadwell loaded several cars with sheep and cattle Monday.

Raymond Anderson, colored, shot Ed. Johnson, colored, in the knee Saturday night at Dane's Hill, and was brought to Galena to Dr. Jones, but he failed to find the ball.

Mrs. John Smith is improving her home with new kitchen and other improvements.

Mr. James Cochran is shipping big lots of geese at this time, but prices are very low.
