GENERAL SHERMAN AT CINCINNATI--A SPEECH.

General Sherman was enthusiastically received by the citizens of Cincinnati on Friday evening of last week. There was an address of welcome, a reply, a reception and a serenade. The following are the General's remarks:

Gentlemen, Citizens of Cincinnati—As I am not so accustomed to public speaking as my old friend, Mr. Stanberry, who has just addressed me in your behalf, you must bear with me patiently. Mr. Stanberry knew me, and he knew my father before me. He knew me well when I was a little red-headed boy running about in Lancaster, stealing his cherries. [Laughter.] He knows my heart, and can tell its feelings better then I can express them. But I will tell you, my friends, that it was here in this city, in this very hotel, through which I passed to reach this spot, that General Grant and myself met over a year since; and in that very room we laid down the maps and studied out the campaigns which ended this war. [Immense cheering.]

I have been away down in Mississippi attending to a little matter there, [laughter and cheers] and when General Grant and myself ended our conference here, we separated, he to go to Richmond and I to Atlanta, and the result has been just as we planned it here in 1864. We had but one object to fulfil, to end the war in such a manner as would forever crush out rebellion, and fully establish our nation's glory and integrity, so that no future generation should say we were craven of heart.—Grant and Sherman, and all patriotic Generals have had but one idea—the supremacy of our country and our Government [Enthusiastic cheers for Grant and Sherman.] We may differ as to some little things, but in the one great thing we do not differ—that this country shall survive in all its greatness. We should not bother ourselves about small matters, but attend to the great interests of the country. Our country now has a good start in life, and its welfare is in our keeping. It is a country wonderful in yet undeveloped resources. In your own beautiful State of Ohio—the finest in this whole country—scarcely one acre of ten is under cultivation. Let us then go on in peace and harmony with the peaceful pursuits of life. When all is under cultivation and we have a population as dense as that of Europe, it will be soon enough for us to trample on each other's heels. We have a future of peace now before us—an honorable peace; and, so help me God, I do not want to hear of war again for fifty years to come at least. When other nations attempt to trample on our national rights, we shall have an opportunity of resuming the business of war. But now that the war is over, I am a peace man; all of my army are peace men; "Sherman's bummers" [laughter] are all peace men. I thank you, gentlemen, for the kindness of your welcome to-night.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN WILLING THAT JEFF. DAVIS SHOULD ESCAPE.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, who is writing up some of the reminiscences of Sherman's campaign in North Carolina, relates the following:

General Sherman complained, and doubtless with some truth, if not justice, that the Government had never distinctly explained to him what policy it desired to have pursued. "I asked Mr. Lincoln explicitly, when I went to City Point, whether he wanted me to capture Jeff. Davis or let him escape, and in reply he told me a story."

That "story" may now have a historical value, and I give it, therefore, as General Sherman said Mr. Lincoln told it—only premising that it was a favorite story with Mr. Lincoln, which he told many times, and in illustration of many points of public policy:

"I'll tell you, General," Mr. Lincoln was said to have begun, "I'll tell you what I think about taking Jeff. Davis.—Out in Sangamon county there was an old temperance lecturer, who was very strict in the doctrine and practice of total abstinence. One day, after a long ride in the hot sun, he stopped at the house of a friend, who proposed making him a lemonade.—As the mild beverage was being mixed, the friend insinuatingly asked, if he wouldn't like the least drop of something stronger, to brace up his nerves after the exhausting heat and exercise. 'No,' replied the lecturer, 'I couldn't think of it; I'm opposed to it on principle; but,' he added, with a longing glance at the black bottle that stood conveniently at hand, 'if you could manage to put in a drop unbeknownst to me, I guess it wouldn't hurt me much!'

"Now General," Mr. Lincoln is said to have concluded, "I'm bound to oppose the escape of Jeff. Davis; but if you could manage to let him slip out unbeknownst like, I guess it wouldn't hurt me much!"

"And that," exclaimed Gen. Sherman, "is all I could get out of the Government as to what its policy was concerning the rebel leaders till Staunton assailed me for Davis' escape!"

A BLACK EDITOR'S OPINION.—The Black Republican is a newspaper in New Orleans, edited by a colored man (a clergyman,) who, it would seem from the following does not think that the regeneration of his brethren is to be accomplished by voting and tax-paying:

"The colored man and the white man cannot live together in this country; they must, and will have to separate, unless the Congress of the nation will give them a place for themselves, for as it was with Abraham and Lot, so it is with us, and the sooner we seek a home for our rising generation, the better it will be for us.—Our final destiny, so far as I can dimly see, is that in three hundred years it will be a rare thing to see a colored man in this country. Like the Indian, our race is destined to become extinct in this country, unless we move ourselves."

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE undersigned will sell at Private Sale his FARM, lying in Eastern Neck, Kent county, Md., situated on Chester River, at the mouth of Grey's Inn Creek, Containing about 450 ACRES, of which over three hundred acres are arable. The balance is WOODLAND, covered with young Chesnut, (a large portion of which is large enough for rails,) Oak and Pine.

The arable land has been heavily limed, and the growing crops are equal to any in the county. It requires, for its size, but little fencing, being nearly surrounded by water; the fencing required is of chesnut rails and in complete order. There is an Orchard of in full bearing, and also a good Apple Orchard.

The land is of fine quality, and very productive. The location is remarkably healthy, there having been no case of Bilious or Chill and Fever on the Farm for seventeen years. The neighborhood is also desirable; Churches, Post Office, Schools, Stores and Mechanic's Shops, are very convenient.

The situation is considered the best and most desirable on Chester River, which is on the South side of the farm, and four miles wide at this point, while Grey's Inn Creek, half a mile wide, is on the East.

Several Steamboats run daily to and from Baltimore to Grey's Inn Creek, where there is a Wharf, which is about a mile and a half from the house. The Boats pass within three hundred yards of the Dwelling.

Fish, Oysters, Terrapin and Wild Fowl are abundant in season, and can be procured from the River and Creek near the Farm.

THE DWELLING

is frame, two stories high, in thorough order, with a KITCHEN and PANTRY attached; also, a School House, Wash House, Dairy House and Quarter. There is a Barn fifty feet long, with Stabling, in good order.—Also, Corn Cribs, Sheds, Colt Stables, &c.

The proprietor will take pleasure in showing the Farm to any one who may wish to examine it. Possession will be given the first day of January next, or immediately if preferred.

THE TERMS OF SALE:

One-tenth of the purchase money on or before the first day of January next, and the balance in ten years from the 1st of January, 1866: one-tenth to be paid each year. The credit payments to bear interest, and to be secured by mortgage on judgment.

A larger cash payment may be made if preferred by the purchaser, and any reasonable change in the above terms will be made. Every facility will be given to the purchaser to sow wheat, &c.

For further information apply to the proprietor, THOMAS W. RINGGOLD,

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES,

$230,000,000.

BY authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per Cent. GOLD BEARING BONDS,

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7-30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents	"	"	$100 "
Ten	"	"	$500 "
20	"	"	$1000 "
$1	"	"	$5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The notes of the Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent. instead of 7 3-10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $300,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within two months when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders. JAY COOKE,
