BASE BALL NOTES.

CHARITABLE BASE BALL.

For the first time in the history of the Chestertown Public Library, but one, it has received recognition from the public in a "benefit" performance, and the ladies of the reading club have to thank Messrs. David B. Ford and Emerson Sparks for the happy thought of donating the proceods of what proved to be a most interesting and exciting game of base ball on Tuesday afternoon on Ford's diamond between teams composed of the married men and single men. The only other way in which the reading club has been publicly recognized is by the donation of their room rent by the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and the ladies wish to express through the TRANSCRIPT, their great appreciation of all such public spirited recognition. The game of ball was a cracker-jack. It was a slugging match from start to finish, and the strangest part about the whole matter is that every young lady who was present "rooted" for the married men, and the poor old single fellows were compelled to struggle along in the face of such opposition, and then finally lost out by the score of 17 to 12. Two hundred and more men, women and children saw the struggle, and the manner in which Capts. Ford and Sparks coached their teams would have made Hughey Jennings turn green with envy. Well, this is not the end of this matter. The single men have "blood in their eyes" for the benedicts, and they have challenged them to another contest for next Thursday afternoon. The proceeds will be donated to the same worthy cause, and it is hoped that there will be a big crowd, and that all who go will not refuse to pay their 15 cents. The proceeds from the game were $7.50, and the line-up of the teams was as follows:

Married Men—Nesbit Trenchard, p. and cf.; Prof. J. L. Smyth, 1 b.; Isaac Gibbs, c.; D. B. Ford, ss.; Fred S. Russell, 2 b.; Roland Matthews, 3 b.; Scott Beck, lf.; Norman Jefferson, rf.; Dr. Herbert Sanborn, p. and cf.

Single Men—Chas. Kibler, c.; Eddie Blackway, 2b.; Harrison Finley, p.; Webster Hague, cf.; John E. Barnes, 3b.; Doc. Sterling, 1b.; Raymond Wilkins, rf.; Emerson Sparks, lf.; Houston Toulson, ss.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

Married Men—	1	0	4	2	0	1	5	0	4	—T'l 17
Single Men—	3	1	1	0	2	0	4	0	1	—T'l 12

Umpires—Dr. E. J. Clarke and Prof. Owen C. Blades. Time of game—Two hours and 20 minutes.

Batteries—Married men, Sanborn, Trenchard and Gibbs; Single men, Finley and Kibler.

Millington defeated Barclay at Millington Saturday 12 to 6, and Church Hill defeated Centreville at Centreville 14 to 5.

Chestertown High School will play Barclay at Barclay to-day.

Up to the seventh inning of the game between Washington College and Rock Hill College played here Saturday last, the former team had all the better of the contest. In that inning the umpire called a Rock Hill batter out on a third strike, which the catcher failed to hold. The batter started to the bench, changed his mind and then ran for the bag.

In the effort to catch him a general mixup took place and before the locals could settle down the visitors had put the game on ice. In the ninth, Rock Hill piled up five more runs, hitting being aided by errors of the home team. Both Hinchman and Jarman did good work in the box, and up to the fatal seventh the game was a most interesting one.

Galena Notes.

Rev. R. H. Lewis, pastor of the M. E. Church expects to return home this week, after eight weeks at a hospital in Philadelphia. We are all glad to welcome him again.

Our base ball team is doing well, they have played 4 games and won 3 of them. They crossed bats with Crumpton Saturday, score 8 to 12 favor of Galena. Also on Tuesday with Kennedyville, score 6 to 8 favor of Galena.

R. C. Whiteford has about completed his cannery building at Fredericktown.

Mr. James Davis, Jr., has commenced building. Mr. B. W. Dulling, of Millington, does the work for him.

Mr. J. T. Quinn spent part of the week in Baltimore.

Mr. Foxwell was up to see us Saturday and he seems to be well pleased as to things here, as he remarked, "I am going somewhere else as everything seems to be all right here for me."

The ushers union of the M. E. Church held a strawberry festival. Proceeds about $30. Our base ball boys are arranging for a festival now soon.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman seems to be getting a good many boarders at this time.

We had a heavy rain here and lightening Tuesday night but no damage. Corn is looking good around here. Mr. Andrew Woodall on Rev. A. P. Prettyman's farm here has about the best.

Mr. A. Clementson has [illegible]
