Mr. John H. Hessey, who is taking a course in law at the University of Maryland, Baltimore, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Emma Hessey, at Hanesville. Mr. Hessey will be associated with assistant State's Attorney Stinchcomb, of Baltimore, during the summer. His sister Miss Morgan Hessey, who is attending the State Normal School, is at home for the summer.

Messrs. Lewin Howard and Massey Hines, students at Charlotte Hall School, will please accept our thanks for an invitation to the annual commencement exercises.

We regret to state that Judge George M. Sharp, of Baltimore, is quite ill, having been suffering with a complication of diseases for sometime. Judge Sharp is well-known in Kent, and his many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. George and Miss German, of Baltimore have been guests of Mrs A. M. Culp on Washington avenue during the past week.

Miss Richardson, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Lambert at Hotel Imperial.

Mr. John Cannan, of Wilmington, Del., spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother on High street.

Prof. T. Blackiston Wroth, vice-principal of the Belair High School, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wroth, on Front street.

Mrs. Corkran and daughter, Miss Mary, of Wallingford, Pa., and Miss Margaret Talbot, of New York, are guests at the home of Mr. John Bell, on College Hill for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort of town, Mrs. W. G. Skirven, of near Fairlee, and Mr. William Archibald, of Kennedyville attended the Western Maryland College Commencement this week.

Miss Edith Maslin, of Massey, was the guest over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Milby.

Miss Louise Cohill, of Hancock, and Mrs. Edwin Hanna and son, Henry, of Baltimore, were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving Walker at "Royston" farm, in Queen Annes.

Miss Ruby Ahern and Miss Lucy Branham spent the week-end with Miss Ahern's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ahern, in Millington.

We are indebted to the authorities of Washington College for an invitation to the annual commencement exercises.

Miss Bryan, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Miss Mollie Watts on Queen street during the week.

Mr. Hartley C. Weer, of Sparrows Point, is spending the week with his parents in Kennedyville.

Mr. James Brice, of Baltimore, spent Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, on the avenue. He picked about a peck of fine white grafton cherries from the trees in his fathers yard and took them home for future use.

Mr. Comegys B. Peacock and his son and his wife, of Philadelphia, have been sightseeing and visiting friends in the town and county during the week. Twenty-three years ago, the younger Mr. Peacock was a clerk in the Stam Drug store. He now owns a prosperous drug business in the city of Brotherly Love. The elder Mr. Peacock is a constant reader of the TRANSCRIPT, and says he finds much pleasure and profit in reading its columns.

Mr. Charles McWhorter, of the Maryland House of Correction staff, has been spending a few days' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. McWhorter, on Washington avenue.

Miss Mary Cacy Burchinal, formerly of this town, and a graduate of Washington College, was among those who were awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy at the Commencement exercises of the Johns Hopkins University on Tuesday. This is a great honor for Miss Burchinal, and her many friends here extend congratulations.

Dr. Horace W. Nicholson has been elected demonstator in Laryngology and Diseases of the Chest in the Baltimore Medical College. This is a very responsible position, but Dr. Nicholson will fill the bill in every respect. We are glad to state that he is very much improved and is able to be down stairs.

Mrs. Robert Vance, of Hillcrest, Del., who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. McCann at Pomona parsonage for the past ten days, has returned to her home.

Miss Julia Nicholson closed her school year on Thursday afternoon with a lawn party on Fancy school lawn. The pupils and a number of invited friends enjoyed a delightful afternoon. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. H. Simpers and Mrs. Mollie Farringer have been visiting friends in Washington D. C. during the past week.

Miss Marghueita Howard, who spent the winter and spring in Panama with her sister, Mrs. Kent Lambert, has returned home. Mr. Lewin Howard, of Charlotte Hall School, is also at home for the summer.

Maryland Farmer Thrashed.

Beating his horse and driving at a mad pace, endangering the lives of persons on High street Seaford, Del., Saturday evening while the streets were thronged, James Harper, a Maryland farmer, was taken from his carriage and whipped unmercifully by three young women, who told him to cease beating his horse.

Just as he was replying to their protests in vile language Harper's horse balked, and seeing his predicament, the three women made a rush for the carriage, took the whip from him and pulled him from the vehicle and lashed Harper until he begged for mercy.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE LADIES!

Our large purchases of LADIES' SUITS for this season are now completed and the final lots have arrived, and are ready for selling. These SUITS are just what you are looking for. Our strong argument is that you get them just a "little cheaper" than elsewhere. These specials should sell at sight.

Prettiest Wash Fabrics Here.

We say prettiest, for surely there never were any prettier Wash Fabrics than these we are showing. Organdies, Dimities, Batistes, Lawns, French Ginghams, Voiles crowd each other for room, and when you consider that the prices are so very low the goods become very tempting.

EMBROIDERIES.

There are All-Overs, Edgings and Insertings—baby widths, medium widths and flounce widths. Patterns from a fraction of an inch to a half a yard, with unusually liberal margins. The designs are beautiful, artistic and diversified. Neat exquisite effects for baby cloths and women's lingerie, dainty styles for trimming waists and showy elaborate combinations for flounces and ruffles.
