THE GRIM REAPER.

PEARL KENNARD.

Pearl, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kennard, died Monday morning at 9.30 o'clock at the home of her parents in Philadelphia, of tuberculosis in her 18th year. She had been a victim of the dread disease for about two years and everything was done for her that loving parents and medical skill could do. Mr. and Mrs. Kennard moved from Chestertown about a year ago so that they might take her to the mountains, where it was hoped by her family and large circle of friends she would be benefitted; but "He who doeth all things well," had planned otherwise. She returned to her home in Philadelphia and for the last four months had been confined to her room and bed. She was well-known in Chestertown and had many friends who extend their sympathy to her parents in this sad hour of bereavement. Funeral services were held at her late home Tuesday evening, and the body brought to Kennedyville Wednesday morning and buried in the family lot.

Mr. Earle Joiner, son of the late Thomas J. Joiner, died at his home in Philadelphia Tuesday. The remains were brought to Chestertown by train yesterday morning and interment was made in Chester Cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. The pall-bearers: Messrs. Foster Cannon, C. L. Dood, Edgar Pennington, Thomas Dixon, Bernard Boyd and William Vansant. The deceased leaves a widow, a sister, Miss Margaret Joiner, and a brother, Mr. Frank Joiner.

Mrs. Mary E. Wilson, aged 71 years, widow of the late John T. Wilson, of Cecil County, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Wilson, in Baltimore, Aug.21. Interment at Shrewsbury last Wednesday, services conducted by Rev. Mr. Robinson. Wm. T. Hicks had charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. E. J. Drinkhouse, widow of Rev. Dr. E. J. Drinkhouse, former editor of the Methodist Protestant, and a prominent Methodist divine, died at her home in Washington, D. C., this week. The deceased was well-known throughout the Maryland Conference.

Mrs. Anna Auld Thompson, widow of Rev. Charles McFeely Thompson, for many years a member of the Maryland annual Conference, died at her home in St. Michaels on Tuesday, aged 61 years. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Robert H. Carey, formerly of this town.

Joseph, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Holt Woodall, of near Galena, died on Sunday morning. Funeral services were held on Monday morning with interment in Galena cemetery.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

Miss Lillie M. Crow, sister of Mr. Owen B. Crow, of this town, was married on Wednesday to Mr. Harry Lackie, a prominent business man of Brooklyn, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Winans, an M. E. minister, at his parsonage. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lackie left New York for Niagara Falls, Toronto, Canada, and other points of interest. They will reside at Rutherford, N. J.
