Speech of General Sherman at St. Louis.

General Sherman made the following speech at St. Louis on Monday night:

"Gentlemen—Be quiet and I will speak to you a few words. I have no doubt, from the sounds I hear, that a good many of my old soldiers are down in this crowd. [Laughter.] As they are very ready to 'pitch in' when I tell them, I hope they will be also as obedient in keeping quiet, for it is a great strain to the voice to attempt to reach the far limits of this crowd up and down the street.

"I was in hopes you would let Mr. McPherson tell the whole story, for it would have saved me some trouble. I will, however, go further than he did. I claim to be an older citizen of St. Louis than he has stated, for I came here in 1843, and then made a circuit by way of New Orleans and Charleston. I now again return from the same place under slightly different circumstances. [Laughter and cheers.]

"I then travelled by steamboats to New Orleans and Mobile, up the river to Montgomery, staged across the river to Macon, and so on to Charleston. This time I had some friends along, and we had a nice time. [Shouts of laughter.] I know perfectly well that in this crowd, and throughout this city, almost in every house may be found some one who went with me, and who will tell you the tale better than I can; therefore, I do not intend to take any time or strain my voice to tell you of the march recently made from Atlanta to the sea-coast and so on to Washington. I would prefer to call attention to things which surround you here in St. Louis; to the advantages you enjoy here; to the duties that devolve on you, now that the war is over; to the great future and what you must be as that future is developed. The past is gone, and you cannot amend it. All we have now to do is to record its history; but the future is before us; and you and I and all of us must meet it manfully and meet it well.

"I hope that no war is in reserve for us; but there may be other dangers and other labors quite as important to our country as war. The daily duty of the citizen to labor—the duties of the week and of the year, are just as important to the American people as the war through which we have passed. You have cities to build, railroads to build, commerce to develop, agriculture to encourage—everything to do to build up a great nation.—[A voice, And Jeff Davis to hang.] Hang him as much as you please. [Laughter and cheers.] On that subject I tell my soldiers this: The soldier's duty is to fight an armed foe; allow the sheriff and the jailor to do their executions. It is none of our business. [Cheers.] For my part, I and all my soldiers hold ourselves in too much respect to be mere hangmen.

THE ESTATE OF THE LATE PRESIDENT.—The Boston Transcript is authorized to say that the estate of President Lincoln, with the addition of the contributions made in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and New York, will amount to one hundred thousand dollars; and that the active labors of those obtaining subscriptions to the Lincoln Fund have now ceased.

DISCONTINUED.—The Commonwealth, at Wilmington, Del., has sold its subscription list to the Republican, and discontinued its publication.

FARM FOR SALE.

ON TUESDAY,

The FIRST day of AUGUST, 1865, at 12 o'clock, M., the undersigned will offer at Public Sale, at the Voshell House, in Chestertown, his FARM,

which lies in Kent county, Maryland, near Hanesville, and Contains 185 Acres

and some Perches; about 130 Acres of which are arable; the residue is in

WOOD AND TIMBER,

and of the latter there is an abundance of CHESNUT and LOCUST. The arable land is divided into four fields, under good and substantial fences, and each field is well watered from ever flowing streams.

The soil is naturally good, and by the use of lime would be made highly productive.

It is situate in a healthy and thrifty neighborhood, and is convenient to places of public Worship, Schools, Mills, &c., and not over a mile and a half from the public Wharf and Landing at Buck Neck.

The Improvements

are a FRAME DWELLING of three stories, with a Pantry and Kitchen, and the usual OUT-BUILDINGS, all new and in good order.

The Farm will be offered on the terms following, though they may be modified:—One-fourth cash on the day of sale; the residue in three equal annual instalments from the day of sale. The future payments to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with security approved by the undersigned.

For further information consult my Attorney, RICHARD HYNSON, Esq., Chestertown, Maryland.

STEPHENSON CONSTABLE.

July 15, 1865—ts.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.

THE undersigned will sell at Private Sale his FARM, lying in Eastern Neck, Kent county, Md., situated on Chester River, at the mouth of Grey's Inn Creek, Containing about 450 ACRES, of which over three hundred acres are arable. The balance is WOODLAND, covered with young Chesnut, (a large portion of which is large enough for rails,) Oak and Pine.

The arable land has been heavily limed, and the growing crops are equal to any in the county. It requires, for its size, but little fencing, being nearly surrounded by water; the fencing required is of chesnut rails and in complete order. There is an Orchard of in full bearing, and also a good Apple Orchard.

3,000 PEACH TREES

The land is of fine quality, and very productive. The location is remarkably healthy, there having been no case of Bilious or Chill and Fever on the Farm for seventeen years. The neighborhood is also desirable; Churches, Post Office, Schools, Stores and Mechanic's Shops, are very convenient.

The situation is considered the best and most desirable on Chester River, which is on the South side of the farm, and four miles wide at this point, while Grey's Inn Creek, half a mile wide, is on the East.

Several Steamboats run daily to and from Baltimore to Grey's Inn Creek, where there is a Wharf, which is about a mile and a half from the house. The Boats pass within three hundred yards of the Dwelling.

Fish, Oysters, Terrapin and Wild Fowl are abundant in season, and can be procured from the River and Creek near the Farm.

THE DWELLING

is frame, two stories high, in thorough order, with a KITCHEN and PANTRY attached; also, a School House, Wash House, Dairy House and Quarter. There is a Barn fifty feet long, with Stabling, in good order.—Also, Corn Cribs, Sheds, Colt Stables, &c.

The proprietor will take pleasure in showing the Farm to any one who may wish to examine it. Possession will be given the first day of January next, or immediately if preferred.

THE TERMS OF SALE:

One-tenth of the purchase money on or before the first day of January next, and the balance in ten years from the 1st of January, 1866: one-tenth to be paid each year. The credit payments to bear interest, and to be secured by mortgage on judgment.

A larger cash payment may be made if preferred by the purchaser, and any reasonable change in the above terms will be made. Every facility will be given to the purchaser to sow wheat, &c.

For further information apply to the proprietor,

THOMAS W. RINGGOLD,
Rock Hall, Kent county, Maryland,
or his Attorney, J. A. WICKES, je17-tf. Chestertown, Md.
