H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

THE LADIES' STORE,

CHURCH WORK.

At an election held in the M. E. Church last Wednesday evening, Mr. C. H. Jefferson was elected as delegate to the lay electoral conference, which meets in Wilmington, Del., March 15th. Mr. H. H. Klinefelter was elected reserve delegate.

The beautiful Christmas anthems sung by the choir of the M. E. Church will, by special request, be repeated to-morrow morning.

The watch night service at the M. E. Church to-morrow night, beginning at 10.30, promises to be solemn, interesting and instructive. Miss Fannie Stuart will deliver an address showing the possibilities of the Sabbath school for 1912. Prof. Norman Jefferson will set forth the opportunities of the Epworth League for the coming year. The pastor will deliver a short address and lead the midnight consecration service. Choruses, quartetts and solos will be sung.

Rock Hall M. E. Sunday school celebrated their annual Christmas service last Sunday night. The following interesting program was rendered: Singing by school; prayer by pastor; Recitation, Which Was Lost, Cecil Cully; recitation, What He Has Given, class of children; singing by school; recitation, Hard to Understand, Medford Taylor; singing by school; recitation, Christmas Eve. Natheson Hubbard, recitation, While the Stars of Christmas Shine, Cecil Cully; recitation, His Escape, John Hickey; singing by school; recitation, Christmas Wishes, class little girls; sing ing by school; recitation, The Song of Christmas, Mary Hickey; recitation-Santa and the Mouse, Marvil Ashley; singing by school; recitation, What Christmas Means, Francis Davis; singing by class little children, recitation, Do We Forget, Ella Moffett; recitation, Evening Star, Lillian Orr; recitation, Christ Child, Thelma Ashley, singing by school. After the exercises the annual Christmas treat was held.

Rev. Mr. Corkran, of the Rock Hall M. E. Church, and wife, left last Tuesday to spend the holidays with friends and relatives in Wilmington, Del. On next Sunday morning the pastor of Piney Neck M. E. Church will fill the pulpit in Rock Hall M. E. Church, and at night Rev. Dupuy, pastor of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, will preach from the same pulpit.

The services last Sunday in the M. E. Church were very interesting. Notwithstanding the storm the auditorium was well filled in the morning The singing of the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Merrick Clements, was perhaps never excelled in Chestertown. The Christmas anthems were inspiring, and at the close of a fervent Christmas sermon by the pastor, he requested the entire congregation to rise and sing the old and inspiring hymn: "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," which was done with vim and heart. A desire has been expresssd that the music be repeated next Sunday. At 7.30 P. M., the Sunday school and congregation filled the auditorium, and the beautiful program was delightfully rendered by the school under the direction of Miss Fannie Stuart; Mr. H. H. Klinefelter, superintendent.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Next Sunday, Dec. 31st, at 10.30 A. M., Sacramental service; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and Pastor's Bible Class; 10.30 P. M., Watch Night service. The Epworth League under the direction of Bro. Smyth will have a program of songs, solos, quartets: brief sermon by the pastor, followed by a solemn consecration service, tolling of the bell at midnight then ringing in the New Year. All invited. Service every evening next week except Saturday.

The "Pie Social" of Mrs. Wm. T. Baxter's Sunday school class and other ladies of the M. P. Church, held in Weer's Hall, Kennedyville, last Tuesday night, was a great success from every standpoint; so much so that in the near future another good time of the same nature will be given by the Junior C. E. Society, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, superintendent.

The Sunday school of Christ M. P. Church will sing beautiful Christmas carols and render a fine program of recitations tomorrow (Sunday) evening at 7.30 o'clock. All the other services of the day as usual, except Juniors and Christian Workers service.

Christ M. P. Church Sunday school enjoyed its annual Christmas treat in Firemen's Hall on Wednesday evening. Emmanuel P. E. Sunday school enjoyed a good time and received gifts, etc., in the parish house the same evening, and the Chestertown M. E. Sunday school had a jolly good time receiving Old Kris in the lecture room of the Church on Thursday evening.

Still Pond M. E. Church, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, D. D., pastor. Sunday school 9.30, preaching by the pastor 10.45, Epworth League 7.30.

The Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. B. Harper Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 Jan. 3rd. A full attendance is desired.

Rev. S. S. Hepbron will preach at Col. Suplee's house, Betterton, next Sunday, Dec. 31st, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, weather permitting. All are welcome.

Card of Thanks.

We, the undersigned staff of the Chestertown TRANSCRIPT, after having enjoyed to the fullest extent the splendid boxes of oranges, nuts, raisins candies, etc., sent us by William Medders & Co., of Still Pond, and Mr. Abe Cohen, of Sandy Bottom, hereby express to these gentlemen our thanks, and hope they will continue to have prosperity in their business, and keep us busy with a liberal use of the TRANSCRIPT'S advertising space and job work.

Respectfully,
JOHN W. BARNES,
WILLIAM F. BLYMAN,
JAMES COLEMAN,
ARTHUR COOPER.

And as the editors were also very generously remembered by the above merchants, we join our force in thanks and best wishes for a prosperous and happy New Year, and a bigger trade than in 1911.

R. H. COLLINS,
T. D. BOWERS,
Editors.

Dr. Schwatka's Auto Hit by Bullet.

A bullet, probably fired by one of a crowd of boys playing on a lot near North avenue, crashed through the windshield of an automobile driven by Dr. John B. Schwatka, 822 West North avenue, Baltimore, at about 10.30 o'clock Saturday morning and narrowly missed striking his daughter, who sat next to him in the machine.

Dr. Schwatka immediately stopped the machine. After ascertaining that his daughter had not been injured he
