HERE, THIS WON'T DO.

"Girls in love are not competent to teach schools."

This was the decree proclaimed Monday by a jury in the Common Pleas Court at Masilon, Ohio, in the suit of Ethel M. Downend against the Madison Township Board of Education for $328 42.

Miss Downend was discharged as teacher of music, several months before the expiration of her contract, the Board alleging incompetency. Miss Downend then asked for the balance of her salary.

The defense proved that she was in love with a young man while she was teaching school and the jury decided that love made her incompetent.

Oh, if the school teachers of Kent County could only induce that jury to come down here and attend a Kent Institute! Wouldn't their whiskers fly—perhaps not.

To Prevent Selling Seed Oysters Out of the State.—A bill of great importance to oystermen was signed by the Governor and takes effect at once. It was introduced by Senator Kirwan. The vital section of the measure is as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to transport or to attempt to transport outside of this State for any purpose whatsoever any merchantable oysters to be taken from or caught on the natural beds or bars of this State or from private beds or lots in this State, and any violator of the provisions of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and the captain or person in charge of any boat or vessel used in the violation of the same shall, upon conviction of violating the provision of this section before any justice of the peace or court of competent jurisdiction, be sentenced to the House of Correction for a period of not less than three months nor more than six months, and the boat or vessel so used shall be forfeited, but shall be released upon the payment of a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $300, and the cargo of such vessel shall be confiscated to the State and shall be distributed under the supervision of the commander or some deputy commander or general oyster inspector of the State fishery force upon the natural rocks and bars."

This is an entirely new law, and, it is understood, will be rigidly enforced.

A step in the right Direction. Into the retailers store—where Dolly Madison Shoes are sold. You will be pleased with the styles and the price.
