THE LADIES' STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

Store Closes 8 p.m. Except Saturday

TO PROPERLY CONFORM TO THE NEW 10-HOUR LAW as affecting our salesladies, this store, beginning Monday next, will close evenings promptly at 8 o'clock (Saturdays excepted). The wisdom of this law can not be questioned, and we feel confident that our many kind patrons will find it convenient to do their shopping before that hour.

Our obliging salesladies will render you their best services, and all the energies and conveniences of this store will be used to satisfy you.

Dress Trimmings

Our line of Dress Trimmings is very complete. Silk and Cotton Fringe, Ball Trimming, Crystals, Ornaments, Braids, Etc., are here in all colors. The trimmings add greatly to the appearance of the garment. We have what is new at moderate prices.

MILLINERY

Summer Millinery, with plenty of flowers, is much in evidence at our store just now. Come early, and let your bunch of flowers be the pick of the whole lot. Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats in abundance. Mourning work a specialty.

LAWNS

Lawns, Batistes, Printed Voiles and all Sheer Wash Goods were never prettier than this season. We have our full supply in, and these fine fabrics will afford pleasure to the sightseer and joy and satisfaction to the purchaser.

Special Sale of Trunks

We purchased the entire stock of Trunks and Suit Cases at D. Hoffecker's Trustee's Sale at such a low figure that we can and will save our customers much money. Our own line was large, and with the above stock we must have a Clearance Sale at once. Remember, that while this stock lasts you can buy a Trunk or Suit Case at wholesale cost. Act quickly.

Rock Hall Items.

Grit Urie made a short business trip to Baltimore this week.

Moving pictures every Saturday and Wednesday evenings.

George Leary, the druggist, has refreshed his house with paint. Rich & Durding were the painters.

Charlie Smith has lately had built by Davis & Satterfield, Chestertown, a large new hack, with which he will convey passengers to and from the boat, and to Tolchester on Sundays.

Developing and printing for amateurs is a specialty which F. A. Greenhawk & Bro. will have in connection with a postal studio in Rock Hall this summer. See advertisement on first page.

Mrs. Mary Ashley visited Baltimore the first of this week.

Mr. Wm. Leary has returned from the hospital where he had a slight operation performed and is improving as rapidly as could be expected. The hospital doctors state that he had the largest apendix they have ever removed from any person.

Mrs. George P. Ashley and son, John, were in Baltimore two days this week.

Mrs. Bennett and little daughter, formerly Miss Edna Downy, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey this week.

Maple avenue has been extended through to German street and is a great improvement to the town.

Rock Hall is to have quite an amusement park this summer. Urie's Liberty Park is fitted with all kinds of attractions and bids fair to be a popular resort.

The summer boarders have arrived.

The first barrel of hard shell crabs was shipped from Rock Hall last Monday. Soft shell crabs are being served at the hotels.

B. F. Porter has opened a very attractive grocery store just above the post office.

Dr. Selby has a large five passenger car come this week.

S. B. Maslin and wife spent a pleasant day last Tuesday with Mr. Droll at his beautiful country home.

Mr. John Downey had some visitors from Baltimore this week looking at his property at the wharf with prospect of selling.

Mr. Crighton has remodeled his house so as to have a neat little grocery room on the wharf lane.

Millington Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Radnor are entertaining relatives from Switzerland. They came here with the intention of making this county their permanent home.

Mrs. F. C. Numbers visited her son in Baltimore the early part of the week.

Mr. Ray Stafford has moved from Clayton, Del., to Mr. Wm. H. Cacy's farm. It was tenanted last year by Mr. Meeks.

Miss Annie Gorton who is in Johns Hopkins hospital, will return to her home sometime next week. Her brother Wm. visited her last week.

Mrs. Boyles who lives near town is quite sick. Mrs. Darrell has recovered from her illness.

The bridges near town and in the country are being put in order by a force of men; the recent rains put the roads in bad condititION.

Mr. Chas. Hurt sent out an advertisement concerning his goods and prices. Farmers are now very busy, the good weather making it easier for them to till their ground.

Dr. Jacobs visited No. 10 last week.

A number of the farmers near town intend moving next year.

Mrs. James E. Higman has been confined at her home with an attack of rheumatism.

Miss Pricilla Carroll is visiting Mr. Norman Higman.

Mrs. Scott Roberts visited the Misses Power last week.

Mr. William Gillespie's funeral took place last Sunday. Interment in Sudlersville cemetery.

Mrs. John Green is still ill at her home near Sudlersville. Miss Cecilia Lynch is with her.

Quite a number from town attended the burial of Mr. Gillespie last Sabbath. He was buried at 2 P. M. Sunday.

Kennedyville Items.

Our farmers are done planting corn and are getting their tomato ground in shape. They are also beautifying their buildings and fences with white wash and paint.

Rev. Mr. Mullineaux is spending the week at conference in Baltimore.

At the grange meeting on Monday night four candidates were conferred with the 1st and 2nd degrees. They will be given the 3rd and 4th degrees on Monday night, after which refreshments will be served.

All members please take notice, that on Sunday the M. P. Church will hold Children's Day services. The pastor will have service in reference to the mission work in the morning, and the Children's Day services will be held in the evening.

We are sorry to heary of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cleaver being quite sick at the home of their daughter and son, James Webb. We hope they will soon have their health restored.

Mr. W. M. Clendaniel is still at the hospital. He corresponds with his friends here and his letters are always cheerful and bright, and he has the sympathy of the community, and we all hope he will soon be able to return home a well man. CITIZEN.

Still Pond Notes.

An entertainment was given by Mrs. Hazel Knox Bornschein Monday evening under the auspices of Still Pond Grange. Mrs. Bornschein's recitals are always thoroughly enjoyed when she is with us, and no more greatly admired impersonator and singer has ever visited Still Pond. Her voice is charmingly sweet and clear, and her impersonations show remarkable talent. Still Pond will always have a treat in her entertainments.

Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore visited Baltimore on Tuesday.

Mrs. Daisy Bacon is visiting her friend, Miss May Nickerson, Philadelphia.

The entertainment of the Still Pond Public School will not be repeated, owing to the inability to secure a piano. This is much regretted by the many friends and patons of the school as the music, under the skillful direction of Mrs. John Schofield, was one of the most pleasing parts of the program.

Our ex-pastor, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, of Perryville, spent a few days in our town.

Mr. Penn Norris, of Baltimore, visited Mrs. Georgia Norris, Wednesday.

Don't forget our Childrens Day service the first Sunday night in June. The Epworth League will be led this Sunday evening by Miss Mabel Norris. Come out and enjoy these services with us.

Last Wednesday the Public Service Commission of Maryland met the people of Queen Annes county in Centreville and examined into the necessity of joining the two roads at that point. There was opposition to the plan by the citizens in Centreville, but an overwhelming sentiment for it from the people throughout other sections of the county.
