WILSON MARCHING SONG.

Tune, "Everybody's Doing It."

All of us are Wilson men, Wilson men, to the end
All of us are Wilson men, to the end, to the end;
We all want a Progressive Democrat;
"Win with Wilson" written on our hat;
Woodrow Wilson is the man to win,
Vote for him! Vote for him! Vote for him!
All of us are Wilson men, Wilson men, to the end,
All of us are Wilson men, to the end, to the end;
He's the man to lead the slate,
He's the one we'll nominate,
"Win with Wilson,,' shout for him,
Everybody's doing it now.

Killed By Trolley Car.—Col. Samuel L. Wright, Justice of the Peace, received a telegram yesterday morning about half past nine, stating that his little grandchild, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, reside in Philadelphia, had been killed by a trolley car. The accident occurred in front of the home, and the little girl who was only seven years old and she was killed instantly.

School Principal Appointed.—We understand that the school board has appointed Mr. M.Creecy, of Pennsylvania, principal of the high school to succeed Prof. L. J. Smyth. We understand that Prof. Creecy is a man of family, has had years of experience and has several degrees from well-known universities attesting his fitness as a teacher. We had the pleasure of meeting Prof. Creecy this week, and for the benefit of the boys of the school, we state that he is a gentleman who looks like he has a will of his own and who knows how to handle the rattan.

Airship at Tolchester.—After six months of hard labor three young Baltimoreans have completed the erection of a flying machine, and they were engaged in assembling the machine at Tolchester on Tuesday, where they made several flights Wednesday afternoon and Thursday. The amuteur aviators are Henry Eliason, son of Captain Eliason, president of the Tolchester Steamboat Company; Robert Stewart and Olern Snyder. The machine measures 18 feet from tip to tip and is on the Wright model. It cost a considerrble sum to build, as all the timber used is spliced oak.

Big Real Estate Sale.—The sale of the real estate of the late Dan M. Cochran, at Middletown, Del., last Friday, drew a big crowd. The home farm, 120 acres, with a large dwelling and other buildings, was sold to Joseph L. Rhodes for $92 an acre, or $10,920. Mr. Rhodes is a brother of William M. Rhodes and lives in Springfield, O. Joseph M. Armstrong bought the second farm, 142 acres, for $82 an acre or $14,268. The third farm 14 acres, was sold to Mr. Armstrong for $76 an acre or $1,078. After offering all three tracts to any single purchaser bidding over the total sum of $26,266, the three single bids were confirmed.

A representative of the Anti-Saloon League will speak at Wesley Chapel tomorrow (Sunday) at 10.30 A. M. On Sunday the 14th the Maryland S. S. Association will hold an all day convention at Wesley Chapel. Other schools of the district are invited to bring their baskets and spend the day.

HENCEFORTH the two factions of the Democratic party in Kent will be known as Progressives and Reactionaries. The Antis, who are the real organization in the county, are the Progressives, and the "old guard," or old Organization, as it has been styled, have proven by their course at the National Convention in Baltimore last week that they belong to the Reactionaries. No use to cry "'Wilson,' we have been for Wilson all the time." The stamp is on them and they are Kent county REACTIONARIES—that is they are opposed to progressive Democracy and to the adminsistration of the government in the interest of the people.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

Thursday was July 4th. Hurrah for Wilson and Marshall.

Mr. E. Nickerson has purchased the Gamble farm, near Reese's Corner, in the Fifth District, and will remove there next year.

Mr. George Hatcherson, on the Thomas farm, near Fancy school, has one of the finest looking corn fields in this section.

Our summer resorts are in full swing, and the bayside hotels and summer boarding houses along the water fronts are rapidly filling up.

The Denny Hoffecker farm was sold Monday to Mr. Jos. Meginness for his son for $6500. Messrs. Beck and Earle, trustees, made the sale.

Mr. Frank Lockerman was appointed constable for the Second District by the Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday.

A Greek has leased the Candy Kitchen store for three years from the owner, Mr. Arlington L. Sparks, the former tenants having removed to Baltimore.

Mr. James T. Turner, Jr., who has held the position of coach at Washington College for the past year, has resigned. Mr. Turner will engage in another business next year.

Messrs. Kilburn & Bramble, of Fairlee, have purchased from the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Co. the grange hall building which they occupy for mercantile purposes. The price is said to have been $1800.

Mr. Arlington W. Carmine has rented Mrs. M. E. Stuart's residence on High street for next year. Mr. Samuel Sparks has rented the house now occupied by Mr. Carmine belonging to Mrs. Milton Baker.

Mr. A. S. Turner, the Worton grain buyer, bought 15,000 bushels of wheat from Messrs. Eugene M. Bonwell, Wm. H. Bonwell, Walter T. Morris and others on the Fourth paying $1 per bushel. The foreign market was off 2 cents a bushel yesterday morning, and local prices were a little "shy".

The Board of Supervisors of Elections met on Tuesday and confirmed thirteen of the list of registrars of voters. The next meeting of the board will be held on August 21st, when the judges and clerks will be appointed and the places for holding registration sittings determined upon.

The large lot in front of Mrs. Carolene L. Hynson's stables on Front street has been transformed into a flower garden of rare beauty by her faithful manservant, Eligah Stickline. The hollyhocks and climbing nastertiums as well as other flowers surrounding a velvety green sward give a most pleasing and attractive appearance to the place.

Messrs. Kilbourn & Bramble have purchased the tables, show cases, fixtures, etc., in the Denny Hoffecker store in Chestertown for use in their big store at Fairlee.

The Board of Almshouse Trustees at their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday rented the Almshouse farm to Mr. Bayard Sutton, of the Fifth District.

The Fourth was quietly observed in Chestertown by the closing of banks, public offices and stores. Many of our town folks spent the day quietly at home, while hundreds of others found pleasure on the river and bay. The display of fireworks at night was very much better than usual, and was enjoyed by hundreds who watched them from points of vatange. The bayside resorts were crowded with excursionists.

The Centreville Observer has become incorporated under the name of The Centreville Observer Publishing Co., and has for its charter members William J. Price, Jr., S. Charles Walls and James T. Earle. It is capitalized at twenty thousand dollars, issuing four hundred shares of stock at fifty dollars per share. The directors are the incorporators named above as charter members.

Register of Wills Jesse R. Copper will remove to the Raymond farm where Mr. William H. Bonwell now resides next year. Mr. Bonwell will take the home farm near Still Pond where his father, Mr. Eugene M. Bonwell, now resides. The latter will retire from farming at the end of the year. Mr. Copper has lived where he is for 25 years and 6 months. Mr. Wm. H. Bonwell has lived on the Raymond farm for 17 years and Mr. Bonwell is one of the best known and most progressive farmers in this county.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

DEAR SIRS—When one of the speakers in reply to Mr. Bryan's statement that, "This country would never elect a candidate for President with the stamp of Tammany on it," threw in the face of Bryan the statement that he was the only man in the whole convention who desired to wreck the Democratic party, Senator John Walter Smith arose in his seat, waved his hat and cheered the speaker. How does Senator John Walter Smith feel to-day? DEMOCRAT.
