Still Pond Notes.

Mrs. Mae Stradley and son, Allan, of Chestertown, visited friends here Saturday.

Little George and Ruth Crowding, of Philadelphia, spent sometime with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Crowding.

Mrs. Ollie Weyl, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Mrs. Sallie Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boulden, of Queen Annes, visited friends here Monday.

Mr. Mansfield Bratten, of Wilmington, is visiting his uncle, Mr. Edward Ford.

Miss Alice Reed, of Baltimore, visited her friend, Miss Florence Harper.

Mrs. Charles Walter and mother, Mrs. Wm. Bushman, visited Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Moffett Sunday near Cecilton.

Mr. Laurie Hackett, of Chestertown, spent week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Toulson are entertaining a house party at their home. Among them are Mrs. George Sutton and daughter, of Worton; Mr. and Mrs. Penn Toulson, of Vineland, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilmer, of Baltimore, they having made the trip from Baltimore Saturday by auto in seven hours without a mishap.

Miss Evelyn Ford, of Baltimore, and Mr. Norman Ford, of Black's, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weist, of Millington, visited our town Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Medders and children are visiting down in Virginia.

Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, of Perryville, visited our town this week.

Miss Anna Walters is visiting her grandmother at Brooklyn.

Mrs. Edward Ford and Mrs. Joseph Bowers spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rash.

Miss Bessie Newton and Mr. Alexander, of Worton, spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark.

Our picnic last Thursday was in full progress when the heavy rain came. Everybody had spent a delightful afternoon, and were then enjoying their fine supper. But they all had to hunt shelter on Mr. Bonwell's large front porch.

They have started work on our church, and when it is finished, it will be great. For the next two months church will be in the Sunday school room. Don't stay home.

Our Advertisers.

If you want to get in on some of the best bargains that have ever been offered to you by Mr. Abe Cohen, the hustling Sandy Bottom department store man, read his full page advertisement on page 8. Cohen has the spirit of the right kind of advertiting to attract the trade to his store, and he will sell you what he advertises as advertised. We can't give you particulars. Read his advertisement on page 8. It's worth it.

Wild West Show every day and night next week at Black's. Show starts at six A. M. and ends at 10 P. M. Entrance free. Take your eggs along on Wednesday. B. S. Sutton, the hustling merchant will tell you all about the show, and give you 25 cents per dozen for eggs on Wednesday. Look at his advertisement on page 7.

Miss Gertrude Leimbach, of The Ladies' Apparel Shop, Baltimore, is now in New York studying the fall fashions and will shortly return to Baltimore, with a very unusual and distinctive line of fine wearing apparel for women of good taste and discrimination. Address 230 N. Howard St., Baltimore.

LOCAL MATTERS

SALE RECORD.

SATURDAY, AUG. 10th.—Continued sale of the John F. Howard harness goods at the store room on Court street. Two o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14—Sale of William T. Crow's desirable personalty on the Bosee farm in Morgnec.

MONDAY AUGUST 12th.—Sale of fine personalty of Max Price on "the Gunneries farm" near Still Pond.

TUESDAY AUGUST 20th.—Sale of the fine John F. Cochran farm, near Galena, by Hope H. Barroll, assignee.

THURSDAY, AUG. 22—Public sale of desirable personalty of Mrs. Rachel E. Durham on the J. F. M. Woodall farm near Massey.

MONDAY, AUGUST 19th—Public Sale of large and valuable personalty of Mr. Eugene M. Bonwell, on his home farm near Betterton.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 20th, 1912.—Administrator's sale of stock, farm implements, etc., by Wm. H. Alderson on the "James Budd farm," between Cecilton and Fredericktown, Md. George W. Padley, auctioneer.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 21st.—Large public sale of personalty belonging to John C. Smith on the Forman Branch Farm in Queen Anne's near McGinnis Corner.

TUESDAY AUGUST 27th.—Public sale of 30 head horses and 40 cows and farming implements by William Peacock, on the William Knight farm between the Bohemia bridge and Cecilton, about 2 miles north of Cecilton. George W. Padley, auctioneer.

Read the Whole Paper.—Much interesting local news matter will be found on every page of this issue. The merchants' advertisements are also interesting, as are other advertisements. The entire paper should be read, or you will miss something you should know.

A Fine Record.—Mr. J. W. Kirby informs us that he has erected over 200 monuments and tombs in Kent and the surrounding counties, with not a single job rejected. 98 per cent. of this work was put up for less than it could be bought elsewhere.

Legless Pitcher a Wonder.—Wilmington has the champion legless pitcher. William Salter, a young man who lost both of his legs and uses artificial limbs, Saturday pitched for the Christiana Athletic Club and shut out the Central Club, 8 to 0. He held his opponents to three hits and struck out 10 batsmen. He is able to run the bases and is the best player on the Christiana team.

Good Sum Realized.—The members of the Woman's Civic Club realized $40 dollars for the shipment of old papers and magazines clear of freight. They feel encouraged to make another effort, as the experience gained in this undertaking will enable them to clear much more the next time. The money is to be used, to help pay for the cans recently placed on our streets, and the ladies wish every one to show their interest by using same and helping to keep our town neat and clean.

Secures a Position.—Mr. William H. Lambert has been appointed to a lucrative position under Gov. Goldsborough at Annapolis, and left for the Capital City on Monday morning. We are very glad indeed that Mr. Lambert has secured this good position, as his labors in behalf of the election of Goldsborough were certainly worthy of reward. Mr. Lambert has charge of the Court of Appeals building. The employees under Mr. Lambert are all Democrats, and Mr. Lambert says he is having a picnic with them.

Drowned at Plum Point.—Harry Reichert a 16 year-old lad, whose home was in Philadelphia, was drowned in the Chesapeake Bay, near Plum Point, Monday afternoon. Reichert in company with another young man, both of whom were boarding at C. B. Hazazer's summer home, were in bathing, both being good swimmers. Without warning or any cry of distress young Reichert went down to his death. The body was soon recovered and Dr. Frank W. Smith, coroner was notified. The latter decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Undertaker C. L. Dodd prepared the body for shipment to Philadelphia.

No More Colored Excursions.—The Board of Town Commissioners at its meeting on Monday night passed an ordinance prohibiting the landing of colored excursionists here. This action was the result of considerable disturbance caused by a number of drunken excursionists from Baltimore last Monday.

A Sure Thing.—Since writing the article in another column in reference to a milk station at Worton Station, etc., we have had a dispatch stating that the station will surely be established at Worton, and that the Pennsylvania capitalists who are interested in the establishment of these three stations will be at Worton on Tuesday to secure temporary quarters. A concrete building such as we discribe on another page will be erected, at a cost of $10,000, but for the present the station will be run in temporary quarters.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

¶Mr. J. B. Burchinal has been appointed a Notary Public for Kent county.

¶The grange picnic in Klinefelter's woods to-day. You are invited. Won't you be there?

¶Capt. Leonard Rawleigh has just put overboard a trim little launch with cabin, etc. She is for sale.

¶St. James Sunday School will hold its annual picnic at Worton Manor Beach next Thursday.

¶P. M. Brooks, proprietor of Radcliffe Mills, received a carload of yellow corn direct from Indiana last week. Try Rosebud flour.

Messrs. George H. and Foster Cannan are building a cozy bungalow for Mr. J. Waters Russell on his property in Queen Annes near Chester bridge.

¶The farmers around Betterton have lost six or seven horses during the week by the strange disease mentioned exclusively by the TRANSCRIPT last Saturday. There is also one new case.

¶Dr. Frank Smith has purchased through Mr. J. H. Sides, agent, a fine Maxwell Mascot Roadster. The car which Mr. Randolph Waddell recently bought is a Maxwell purchased through Mr. Sides.

¶Two shows are booked to visit Chestertown between now and September 30, the first one being Downie & Wheeler's which will show here Sept. 10th, and the Prairie Lillies Wild West Show later.

¶Next week will be "P. O. S. of A. week" in Chestertown. Don't forget to clean up, and decorate so that our town will be prepared to give the visitors a royal welcome and show them an enjoyable time.

¶Mr. Baldwin will open his Chestertown cannery early next week, and Mr. Charles W. Kibler, who has contracted for Numsen & Co., of Baltimore, will begin running his "tomate boat" out of the river next week.

¶The front of Mr. A. L. Sparks' big department store is being greatly improved by the removal of the old display windows and the substitution of fine plate glass recess display windows. Contractors Duyer Bros. are doing the work.

¶The radiators and other fixtures for the hot water system of heating to be installed in Christ Church parsonage has arrived, and the work of installing will be pushed to rapid completion by Mr. Wm. C. Sutton and a contractor from Philadelphia.

¶Chestertown harbor presented an unusual spectacle on Sunday evening. Seven sail vessels were anchored in the stream and tied up at wharves, while two fine yatches were "riding the ripples" in the harbor. The sail vessels were here to load wheat for shipment.

¶Mr. James G. Harris seems to be the wheat king of the county so far as the average yield is concerned. He got 650 bushels from a tillage of 20 acres, an average of 32½ bushels to the acre. The variety Mr. Harris used is Currell's Prolific, and it is good clean wheat.

¶The outbuildings on the farm of Mr. Zed R. Collins, near Centreville, were destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Cause of fire unknown.

¶Mr. John Kendall, brother of Mr. David B. Kendall, of the upper section of the county, has rented the Pearce-Chapman farm now tenanted by Mr. Harry Legg for next year. Mr. Legg goes to the farm in Flatlands which he recently bought, and now tenanted by Mr. Bert Sheppard.

¶The sale of the harness goods of the late John F. Howard drew a good crowd of bidders to Chestertown on Saturday and many bargains were purchased. The sale will be continued this afternoon at two o'clock and there are many useful articles, including a number of pieces of harness, blankets, single leather pieces, show cases, etc., to be sold.

¶Dr. G. Allen Jarman was called to the Heimitage, the home of Mrs. Williams, near Queenstown, last Friday to investigate a strange disease, which had killed several of her fine cows, a number of hogs, etc. Dr. Jarman was hurried there by Mr. Thomas A. Matthews in his auto. He believes the animals were poisoned, as every symptom pointed in that direction.

¶Some of our older residents remarked this week that this has been the coldest early part of August in 40 years. One of our younger lady residents remarked that she remembers one August when the Christian Endeavor Convention met at Wesley Chapel one day when it was so cold that winter wraps and thick carriage blankets were very comfortable in the drive down there.

¶Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur, of Oxford, and Miss Georgia Hughes, of Easton, were in Chestertown on Tuesday, having made the run from Oxford in Mr. Matthews' auto in 2½ hours. Mr. Matthews is thinking of investing in land here, and came to look at the Titter property near the Cliff's, which the Kent County Land Company has for sale.

¶It is reported that Mr. Kent Lambert, expert plumber, has rented the Hynson marble yard property, on Cross street, and that Mr. Lambert, who has held a position under the government in Panama for some years, will remove his family to Chestertown and engage in the plumbing business. This has been Mr. Lambert's vocation in Panama, and he is fully equipped to do all kinds of plumbing.

¶An effort has been made by interested parties to secure scholarships in the Buckingham Industrial School for Boys at Buckeystown for Masters Thomas Alfred and Charles Baker Elliott. This is a most excellent opportunity for these two very worthy little boys to secure a useful education, and it is hoped that they may be successful in securing the prizes.

¶Mr. Samuel Caldwell's sale of horses mules etc., on Wednesday was attended by a big crowd, people coming from Philadelphia, Baltimore and as far west as Pittsburg. Prices were good for everything sold. The Skirven sale on Thursday was also attended by a big crowd, and in the language of the hustling auctioneer John Jester, it was a good sale.

¶Messrs. John Schauber & Bros., manufaturers of their celebrated corn cutters, state that the prospects are very bright for a most successful season in the sale of the corn cutters. One of their agents has sent them the names of 119 prospective buyer in an adjoining State and the firm is as busy as can be making and shipping machines. They will have their annual advertisement in the TRANSCRIPT next week.

THE GRIM REAPER.

Other deaths on page 6.

MR. WILLIAM SHINN.

Mr. William Shinn, son of Mr. Wm. D. Shinn formerly of this county, but now of Wilmington, Del., died at the home of Mr. Harper Carter, near Kennedyville, on Tuesday night, after a long illness, aged 33 years. The deceased was a brother of Mr. Frank Shinn, one of our well-known young farmers residing in Quaker Neck. He leaves one little boy nine years old. Funeral services were held from the home of Mr. Carter yesterday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. W. M. McCann, of Pomona. Interment was made in Still Pond cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. George, Tilden and Barney Cooper, Marion Rash, Frank Rouse and Robert Kennedy. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

CLARENCE EDWARD NEWSOME.

Clarence Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Newsome, of near Pomona, died on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, aged six months. Funeral will be held this (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, Rev. W. M. McCann officiating. Interment in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge.
