NUPTIAL EVENTS.

WHITELEY—AUSTIN.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 11, 1912, at 7.30 P. M., one of the most popular young ladies of West Philadelphia, Miss Viola Edna Austin, 30 S. Redfield St. was united in marriage with Mr. John Wesley Whiteley, formerly of Kennedyville, Md., now of Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. Manlove in the Saint Mark's Methodist Church. The bride was given away by her brother, Theodore H., of Harrisburg, formerly of Philadelphia. The bride wore a gown of white crepe meteor trimmed with shadow lace, and carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley and bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Edna M. Potts, who wore a gown of pink charmeuse, trimmed with fine lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The best man was Mr. Gordon Faulkner, of Walbrook, Baltimore, Md., a cousin of the groom. About five hundred attended the wedding ceremony. A reception was given at the bride's home. The bride received many handsome and costly gifts. On the return from their honeymoon, they will reside in one of the most fashionable sections of W. Philadelphia.

WOMAN SO TICKLISH THAT ROBBERS FLED.

When They Tried to Take Her Purse From Under Arm She Just Had to Laugh.

Kansas City, Sept. 11.—Being ticklish saved Mrs. Frances Justine from losing her purse to robbers, and a meeting that might have been terrifying turned into an amusing affair. She was on her way home when two men commanded her to walk with them to the shadow of a warehouse.

"We want money, that is all," they said. "So throw up your hands."

She obeyed, and informed them that her purse was tucked in the top of her corset, under her arm. One of the men tore open her waist and thrust in a hand. It came out in a hurry to clap over the woman's mouth as she screamed: "Don't!"

"I didn't mean to cry out that way," she laughed as the hand dropped and gave her a chance to speak, "but I am awfully ticklish and I just can't stand it."

The continued efforts of the men to find the purse, while Mrs. Justine's protecting arm wouldn't stay up, threw her into fits of laughter, which so disturbed the robbers that, as she sank to the pavement, they ran.

The policeman who came up as she rose and brushed her dress found her very gleeful over her experience.

TENNIS ASSOCIATION FORMED

On the Eastern Shore With Rev. Henry Davies as President.

A tennis association has been formed on the Eastern Shore with the following officers for the coming year: President, Dr. Henry Davies, Easton; vice-president, G. W. Phillips, Salisbury. Executive committee—H. L. Johnson, Miss Mary Henry, Cambridge; R. L. White, Mrs. Fulton, Salisbury; Prof. W. R. Howell, Chestertown; John P. Le Fevre, Dover, Del.; Howard J. Cooke, Georgetown, Del.; Royce R. Spring, Miss Kate Elliott, Easton. Under such auspices the future for tennis seems decidedly promising.
