Teachers' Institute.

The Kent County Teachers' Institute was held this week in the Ceestertown High School building, Chestertown. The institute opened Monday afternoon and continued until Friday noon.

Prof. Norman Jefferson in a very pleasing manner welcomed the teachers to our town. The response was made by Prof. Maddox, of Galena.

There were quite a number of prominent educators present during the session Dr. Brumbaugh, Supt. of Philadelphia schools with Mr. Pennypacker, brother of Ex-Gov. Pennypacker attended both sessions on Tuesday. Dr. Brumbaugh delivered two forceful lectures on education. Those who did not hear him, indeed missed a rare treat. Other prominent educators, who were present, were Dr. Henry Houck, secretary of the interlor of Pennsylvania, Prof. Willison, of Western Maryland and Dr. M. Bates Stephens, State Superintendent of Education.

The instructors chosen by Supt. Smyth were both instructive and highly entertaining. The teachers in general, have gained much valuable imformation, practical in its application, to carry back to their respective schools.

The music under the direction of Miss Stuart was of the highest order, talented and entertaining, and always looked forward to with pleasure.

The following were the instructors:

Willis Hamilton Wilcox, Ph. M., Maryland State Normal School.

Ella Virginia Ricker, Maryland State Normal School.

Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Superintendent of Schools of Philadelphia.

Henry Houck, Assistant State Superintendent of Pennsylvania Schools.

Dr. Prince, of New York.

Miss Lillian Johnson, Kutztown Normal School.

Prof. Mark Creasy, Principal Chestertown High School.

Prof. F. A. Greenhawk, Manual Training Instructor of Rock Hall School, Md.

The teachers voted unanimously for the holding of the institute next year in conjunction with the Chautauqua.

Farm Notes.

Mr. James W. Chapman has on display in the show window of Lofland & Culp, a basket of the finest apples we have seen for sometime. They are of the Paragon variety and have not a blemish on them. Mr. Chapman has been making a specialty of apples this season, has sprayed his trees, and he is now enjoying the reward of his labor.

One of our prominent farmers remarked the other day, "whenever the farmers have nothing to sell prices are high, but just as soon as he has a crop ready for market, down go the prices. He was referring to the price of corn. Before the crop was gathered corn was quoted at 78 cents per bushel. The best that has been offered for it to our knowledge is 47 cents on the cob and 55 cents shelled.

Now is the time for the farmers to begin to get together and agree upon the price at which they will grow tomatoes next season. You may think this is foolish talk, but we know it to be a fact that the packers are already planning and agreeing upon what they will offer you next season. Conditions next year in the wholesale market will be such as to warrant the packers given the growers the same as they did this season $9.60 per ton, and it has been stated by some in a position to know that they can easily afford to give $10. Let the farmers keep together on this matter and demand such prices that will give them a fair profit on this product.

Large quantities of keiffer pears have been packed in barrels on t he Stewart farm the past week and shipped to the city. The price is 10 cents per basket, or from 50 to 75 cents per barrel.

One of the heaviest rains of the year fell on Tuesday night. The downpour was accompanied by heavy thunder and lightning. Most of the farmers in this section had finished sowing wheat, and the rain will give it a good start.

Mr. Cornelius G. Hadaway, who has disposed of his farm in Quaker Neck, will retire from farming. He will have a sale of valuable personalty shortly.

Betterton Notes.

Mr. Floyd Crownhart is building a concrete wall along tne shore front of his property to prevent the high tides from washing the bank.

Mr. Archie Crew has a lot of men packing pears for Stewart & Co. on Harris' wharf and Ecrisson pier, Betterton.

Mrs. G. Herbert Moore and family left on Wednesday for Atlanta, Georgia, where Mr. Moore is general manager of a phosphate company.

Whacker Davis & Co. are still running their cannery; they are putting up quite a quantity of sweet potatoes.

Mr. C. E. Wright, supt. of the Ericsson Line is having repairs done to the waiting room and shore end of pier.

Mrs. Bayard Crew spent part of the week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crew are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mattie Tull and daughter, Myrtle, spent several days in the city the past week.

Mrs. Lynch and Miss Rice, of Walbrook, were the guests of Mrs. John Brice over Sunday.

Misses Marie and Elizabeth Brice are on an extended visit to friends in Wilmington, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Baltimore.

Mr. Chas. Brice spent Sunday at his home.

Quite a number of our men are attending court this week on various cases.

The recent rains have done considerable damage to our roads in town and if the roads in the county get any worse, they will be almost impassable.

☞The chestnut crop in Kent county is said to be the shortest for years. The trees have been affected somewhat by the blight.
