EVERHART—WINK.

Miss Jessie Edith Wink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Wink, of Chestertown, Maryland, and Mr. Herbert L. Everhart, of Baltimore, were married last Saturday morning, in Baltimore, by Rev. Wm. D. Gould, Jr., the rector of Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church in the presence of the immediate family. The bride was tastily attired in a handsome blue tailored suit with a large black picture hat and wore a corsage bouquet of violets and lilly-of-the-valley. The groom wore the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom took the boat to Rock Hall where they were met by an automobile and conveyed to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was held from 5.30 until 11 o'clock.

The house was elaborately decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. The dining room was beautifully decorated with asparagus and chrysanthemums. The bride's reception gown was of white hand embroideried voile over white satin with white satin slippers. Many handsome and useful presents were received consisting of a bountiful check from the brides parents, silver, cut glass, china, pictures, linens, etc. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wink, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Maslin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trew, Mr. and Mrs. Simon De. Shong, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leaverton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Maslin, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. De. Shong, Mr. Reiche and niece, Mr. E. W. Emory and sister, Mrs. S. E. Cooper and daughter, Mr. Thos. Meeks and daughters, Miss Nellie Walters, Miss Annie Copper, Miss Lida Edwards, Miss Nettie Maslin, Miss Jennie Wink, Miss Margaret Atkinson, Miss Helen Shinn, Miss Esta Wink, Mr. A. Loud, Mr. James E. Cooper, Mr. Harold Wink, Mr. George Stant and Mr. Ralph Shinn.

The groom is a member of the wholesale manufacturing firm of the Everhart Candy Co., of Baltimore.

The bride and groom will return to their home at 1622 N. Monroe St., Baltimore, where a wedding reception will be awaiting them in honor of their home coming.

CHAMBERS—SISSON.

Miss Martha Virginia Sisson, daughter of Mrs. John B. Sisson, and Dr. Thomas R. Chambers, son of Dr. John W. Chambers, of Baltimore, were married at the home of the bride's mother, 2224 North Charles street, Baltimore, at seven o'clock on Wednesday evening by Rev. Dr. Lynn H. Hough, pastor of Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Why Can't Chestertown Have Hospital?

MESSRS. EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT—DEAR SIRS: As I know the columns of your paper are open to letters there is a subject that I have been feeling anxious about for sometime, and I would like to see brought before the worthy citizens of our Kent county and especially Chestertown's immediate neighborhood. That is a hospital. Why can't Chestertown have a hospital? Nearly every other county on the Eastern Shore has one. One town I know of possibly better than some others, one man gave the building, and another furnished it.

Now I don't expect anything like that but Kent county certainly has wealth enough if it could be combined to have a real up-to-date little hospital.

Doubtless many lives have been lost while waiting for a conveyance to take patients to the city hospitals.

Now we have enough worthy doctors in Chestertown and vicinity that could save no doubt many of their patients if they had a convenient hospital where they could rush their patients immediately when they found medicine could not relieve them.

Now we have a fine engine house. One we are proud of, and a very necessary thing. But is it any more necessary than a hospital?

Now we call this little Kent county "the garden spot of the world." And so it is. But wouldn't a nice little convenient hospital make her still more so?

Worthy citizens, weigh this matter and see if we can't do something.

A FARMER'S WIFE.

THE GRIM REAPER.

CARROLL WOODROW EVERETT.

Carroll Woodrow Everett infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everett died Saturday morning, November 2, age 6 months, at his home near Galena, after a short illness of about 14 hours. Our little darling gone in the grave; softly sleeping, resting from all sorrow and pain, lies the one we love so dearly in his cold and silent grave.

BY HIS AUNT.

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

BY HIS PARENTS.
