230 N. HOWARD STREET,
BALTIMORE,
EISENBRANDT BUILDING,
TAKE ELEVATOR.

WHAT A YOUNG WOMAN LIKES

—Something just a little bit different from what everyone is wearing, and the smartly dressed young Maryland girl will delight in the new Johnny Coats just designed by The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach. They are typically "Johnny" coats—swagger, smart and graceful—but the distinctiveness is in the linings: the navy is lined with red BROADCLOTH, the brown is lined with tan BROADCLOTH and the black and white is lined with blue BROADCLOTH. All have the graceful scarf at neck.

Not having heavy rents or enormous operating expenses to add to initial costs, the price is instead of Twenty-Five Dollars.

$18.95

When in Baltimore, make The Ladies' Apparel Shop of Gertrude Leimbach your headquarters—if you are not coming to Baltimore, write for Catalogue of Fall and Winter Styles. All mail orders given personal attention.

ROLLERS!

WE HAVE to offer you this season OUR OWN MAKE of WOOD ROLLER. It is the only make of Roller on the market that has a positive oiling device, and at the same time is as easy to get to as to lift your hand to your mouth. No dirt can get in the boxes and the wear is reduced to a minimum. Well-built from good oak, and we know of cases where this make of Roller has been in use for 30 years.

Our quantity will be limited this season, and we advise you to buy now.

Fodder Yarn!

FINE LONG FIBRE SISAL YARN, full 21 oz. Don't buy the heavy trashy Yarn when you can buy the best at almost as low a price.

Everybody's Doing It,

DOING WHAT?

Why the best and only thing they can do—to save the "pennies," which, owing to the stringency of the times, are so hard to get.

Thompson knows how hard it is to make both ends meet, and now that his annual reductio sale is over, we propose to continue to give the very best bargains for the smallest amount of money obtainable. The proof of the pudding is chewing the string, and if you will give our stock an inspection and allow us to quote our prices we will cheerfully accept the result.

At last we have found the "one thing needful," and that is a guaranteed rubber boot, the ARROW BRAND, used by lumbermen and miners all over the United States to the exclusion of other brands. One merchant's sales increased from one season to the next over 500 per cent., showing the absolute reliability of the article.

Thompson is not in business for glory, but to make an honest, square livelihood, and it is his endeavor to give you your money's worth every time. Recollect, if a shoe does not wear as it ought, it is not his fault, and he will do everything to right the matter if possible. Any complaint, come right back and see if you cannot be satisfied. All dealers have complaints, and he is not an exception, but all he asks is to let him help satisfy you.

We know you cannot do better than with us. We will guarantee your money's worth, good treatment and satisfaction every time.

So do what others are doing, try us and be convinced.

MRS. NELLIE LOLLER.

Mrs. Nellie Loller, widow of the late Daniel S. Loller, died at the Skin and Cancer Hospital, Monday, Nov. 11, at 10 o'clock A. M. of cancer, aged 44 years. The deceased had been in the hospital for the last five months. Although she has known for the past eight months that she could never get well, yet she was always cheerful and patiently and persistently fought against the inevitable. She was devoted to her children and every thought was to hide her sorrow, and that she might add to their comfort and happiness. Almost her last words were "Tell them not to worry." In the hospital she was like a sunbeam, always brightening the lives around her.

The nurses and doctors called her the bright samaritan and all who came in contact with her will miss her smiling face, and will mourn her loss. It was said of her "she is always cheerful," yet she suffered intensely. Her remains were brought to Sudlersville by train and interred in Sudlersville cemetery after services conducted by Rev. L. Corkran, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mattie Jones. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Marion Parsons, of Rock Hall, Miss Myrtle Loller, of Philadelphia, also four sons: Messrs. Roy Loller, Sudler Loller, Willie Loller and Irving Loller. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Spencer Walls, Aldridge Walls, Robert Clendenny, Charles Chance and Samuel Loller. Undertaker Stafford had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. JAMES D. LUCAS.

Mr. James D. Lucas, a former well-known and popular clothing merchant of this town, died at the State Sanitarium, Sabillasville, on Thursday of tuberculosis, aged obout 41 years. The deceased conducted a prosperous clothing business in this town for fifteen years, but retired several years ago and removed to the farm of his father-in-law, County Treasurer Clarence S. Hurlock, near Massey. Mr. Lucas was a young man of fine disposition, affable to every one, and popular to a great degree. He had a host of friends in the town and county, who deplore his early demise. He leaves a widow who was before marriage a Miss Hurlock, daughter of County Treasurer and Mrs. Clarence S. Hurlock, and one little daughter. The remains will be brought to Chestertown on the noon train Monday, and conveyed to Chester cemetery, where interment will be made. The services at the grave will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Martin.

The pall-bearers will be Messrs. S. Scott Beck, Wm. W. Beck, Clifton L. Jarrell, David B. Ford, Dr. Frank B. Hines and Prof. Owen C. Blades. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. WILLIAM DUDLEY ROE.

Mr. William Dudley Roe, one of Queen Anne's popular business men, died at his home near Sudlersville, Friday morning at 1 o'clock of Bright's disease, after an illness of several months. Mr. Roe was born April 14th, 1855, at Charleroi, near Barclay. He was a son of the late William James Baynard Roe and Eliza Ann Roe. On April 14, 1880, he was joined in marriage to Miss Mattie Neal George, daughter of the late Jos. E. George and Martha Neal George. He was a member of the P. E. Church; was senior member of the firm of W. D. Roe & Son, a member of the Philadelphia Commercial Exchange and Director of the Sudlersville Bank of Maryland. He was a man popular with all classes. He was absolutely fair and honest in all his business dealings, and in his breast there beat a heart that was easily touched by the cares or woes of another and he made many friends because of his generous and sympathetic nature. Funeral services were held Sunday at St Andrew's Chapel, Sudlersville, at 3 P. M. Interment in Sudlersville cemetery.

MRS. MARY R. WALKER.

Mrs. Mary R. Walker, widow of the late lamented William S. Walker, died from apoplexy at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Beck, in St. Louis, on Monday, Nov. 11th, after an illness of several days, aged 78 years. The deceased was the daughter of the late Judge Ricaud, of this county. She is survived by one son, Mr. Wm. S. Walker, and two daughters, Mrs. Walter Beck and Miss Cornelia R. Walker, all of St. Louis. Her remains were brought to Baltimore Thursday and entered in Greenmount cemetery beside those of her husband. Mrs. Walker was of a most lovable nature, warm-hearted, generous, gentle and kind, and enjoyed the love and admiration of a host of friends. While a resident of this county her home was noted for its hospitality and her sweet gentle nature was an inspiration to all who knew her. Many friends from Chestertown and the county attended the funeral.

TYLESS PRATT ROBINSON.

Mr. Tyless Pratt Robinson died at his home near Barcley on Nov. 3d, aged 59 years. The deceased was the eldest son of Edward and Emma Robinson. Mr. Edward Robinson, of Chestertown, and Mr. Wright Robinson, of Templeville, are brothers of the deceased. Funeral services were held on the following Sunday, conducted by Rev. Mr. Stump, of Ingleside. The choir of the M. E. Church sang several appropriate hymns. Interment was made in Sudlersville cemetery. Undertaker Wilson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Prof. Neilson Dead.—Prof. Allan S. Neilson died at his home in Milwaukee on Saturday evening last of heart failure. He had only been sick a short time. Prof. Neilson was for several years a member of Washington College faculty, and is very kindly remembered here by a host of friends who regret his sudden and early demise.

Died in Jail.—"Dune" Butcher, of Middletown, Del., a colored prisioner, died in the county jail here yesterday morning of tuberculosis. Butcher was arrested last June and brought to jail by deputy sheriff, Adam Startt, on the charge of carrying concealed weapons and disorderly conduct. He was to have been tried at the October term of court, but his condition was such that he could not stand trial.

SUPPER AND FESTIVAL.
