Horse Notes.

Bert Shank says that he is through driving races.

Greatest Heart, 2.12¼, is to be raced at the Canadian race meetings.

Miss Archdale, 2.09½, is one of the mares that W. J. Rosemire takes to Russia.

Evelyn W., 2.00½, figures six times in the revised list of world's pacing records.

Grand Opera, 2.12¼, is now owned by S. A. Proctor and J. H. Smith, of Toronto.

The pacing mare, Cleo B., 2.15¼, is to be raced the coming season by Charley Valentine.

Joe Patchen 2d, likes the track at Pleasanton. Recently he paced a half there in 58 seconds.

Senator Hale, 2.10¼, son of Bingen, 2.06¼, and Dolly Bidwell, 2.08½, goes to Kentucky.

R. J. Mackenzie has placed the fast but erratic trotting mare, May Mack, in Charles De Ryder's care.

Norma G., the dam of the pacers Brownie Herr, 2.12¼, and J. S. G., 2.13¼, died recently at London, O.

Dick McMahon has a green 4-year-old trotter by Solon Grattan, 2.09¼, that worked a mile in 2.13½ last summer.

Half-mile track racing in the vicinity of New York City promises to be even better in 1913 than it was the past season.

Goshen announces $2000 purses for its meetieg next August. This is setting a fast clip for the "Big Line" associations.

The old pacer Schermerhorn, 2.07¼, has made his thirteenth campaign this year and looks good enough for another one.

It appears that the report that Grand Rapids would not be found in the Grand Circuit line-up for 1913 was premature.

Garnett, the sire of Myrtle Garnett, 2.08¾, is to be trained for a fast record the coming year. He has shown a mile in 2.14.

Trainer Frank Lindsay, Falmouth, Ind., now owns the trotting stallion Fred Kohl, 2.07¾, sire of Annie Kohl, 2 07¼, &c.

Charles Durfee won two races with the pacing mare Zulu Belle, 2.11, by Petigru, 2.10½, at the recent Hemet, Cal., meeting.

The Russian government has bought Kilpatrick, 2.15¾, the four-year-old brother to Grace, 2.04¾, and Charevna, 2.07¼.

In and Around Georgetown.

Betterton Notes.

The Betterton Musical and Literary club held its 7th weekly meeting at the home of Mr. Wm. Owens, the vice-president of the club. The program prepared by it musical committee, viz: Mrs. Owens, Mrs. B. Lewis and Mrs. Geo. Jones provided ample means for an enjoyable evening. From this movement president John H. Goodin, called the meeting to order and secretary Louis C. Syreas, called the roll; the meeting knew not a dull moment. The enrolling of Miss Ada Hurlock greatly strengthened the literary ranks of the club for the recitations of Miss Hurlock do not fail to please. Miss Hazel Crew was also enrolled as a new member. The program for the evening was as follows: Piano selections, Mrs. F. Brice; violin solo, Mrs. Geo. Jones; recitation by Miss Hurlock; song by Mr. R. Hubert; dialogue, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley; vocal trio, Dr. Atwell, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Goodin. With another recitation by Miss Hurlock the members were cordially invited to partake of refreshments, after which they adjourned until Friday, Dec. 27th, to meet at the home of Mr. Wm. Kelley.

HIGH CLASS ALMANAC FOR EVERY FAMILY.

Valuable Compendium of Information Given Away by Peerless Fertilizer Company.

An almanac covers the widest range of subjects and gives the most accurate information contained in any small handy volume that is published. It is an encyclopedia for the busy man and a good text book for the fireside.

It tells the things that one should know and it is concise as well as definite. It has a place all its own in the literary field. There were more almanacs published in the year 1912 than ever before in the history of civilization and the prospect is that in the year 1913 all previous records will be surpassed.

Of course, there are many kinds of almanacs and the present popularity of this class of publication is not due to the Medical Almanac containing beside the astronomical observations only the advertising matter of some proprietary medicine. This almanac does not have to contain one thousand pages to contain a thousand facts and a thousand items of information.
