Mr. and Mrs. I. I. Robinson have returned from their wedding tour of New York, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other places north. They reside in Mrs. Lucy Dodd's apartment house.

Dr. Johnson, formerly clerk in Mr. M. A. Toulson's pharmacy, was a guest of friends here Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Clarence Newcomo cut the end off his right thumb while operating a bread-cutter in the Royal Lunch Room Saturday night.

Fraud Paint.

The worst mistake one is likely to make in painting is wrong paint; it is easy to make.

We all say "Ours is the best"; and there are 1000 of us. One is best; but a dozen are so near on a leval that no-one knows, for sure, that his is the one.

The worst paints are worst liars; they know what they are, put-on a bold face, and brazen it out.

Their one true argument is low price; but low-price paint is always, must be, a fraud; it is made to cheat cheatable people.

DEVOE

OUR DEATH RECORD.

JOHN M. RODNEY.

Mr. John M. Rodney died at his home near Smithville, Worton, last Saturday night, aged 78 years. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Agnes Mulford, Mr. Wm. Rodney, Mrs. Carrie Fogwell and Mrs. Emily Davis. Funeral was held on Monday, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Jester, assisted at the grave by the Rev. J. W. Prettyman; interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Romain Fogwell, James Davis, Ferman Mulford, Walter Rodney, M. Fogwell and Wilmer Dill. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangements.

SAMUEL COMEGYS, JR.

Mr. Samuel Comegys, Jr., died early Tuesday morning at the home of his father, near Kibler's corner, Queen Anne's county. Funeral was held on Thursday, interment at Shrewsbury, this county, at noon. The Rev. Dr. Sharpe had charge of services. The pall-bearers were: Paul Comegys, J. Wilmer Hall, Rigby Valliant, John Comegys, S. Harrison Newnam and Spencer Comegys. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge. The death of this young man is a severe blow to his esteemed parents, and they have the sympathy of a host of friends here in their bereavement.

Injured in Runaway.

Mrs. Lewis, housekeeper for Mr. Herbert Strong, living near Kennedyville, and her son narrowly escaped serious injury last Saturday night when their spirited horse ran away. While enroute to town two teams racing on the State road overtook her, and hearing the clatter of the horses' feet, Mrs. Lewis' animal started off. She was driving without breechings and in her efforts to hold the animal, the carriage was pulled on his hind legs, cutting them quite badly. The horse dashed down Maple avenue, turned the corner at Mr. D. B. Ford's residence, on around Miss Elizabeth Wickes' corner into Front street up Maple avenue into Queen colliding with a buggy at Mr. D. A. Bacchus' corner and breaking the shafts, ran up High street to Mr. Robert J. McWhorters's stables and was stopped. Mrs. Lewis and her son were thrown out at Mrs. Wickes' corner. She was not seriously hurt, but her son was quite badly bruised about the body, arms and hands. The carriage was wrecked and the horse badly cut about the legs.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Attorney.

AT LAST

Here is a powerful little machine which does the work of five horses—never gets tired—costs less for fuel than horse feed AND STOPS EATING WHEN IT STOPS WORKING.

Because it travels continuously and faster than horses, ONE MAN with the BULL TRACTOR can plow more than TWO MEN with two three-horse teams. Pulls your Plows, Seeders, Harvesters, Mowers, Drills, Disks and then does any belt work requiring up to twelve-horse power. Guaranteed as long as you own it. Saves you money every day you use it.

Write at once for Descriptive Illustrated Booklet and special offer to farmers.

A Public Demonstration will be given upon the arrival of a carload lot now in transit. Full particulars as to time and place announced later.
