AN AMUSING COMPLICATION.

A really amusing situation exists over in Worcester county. There were 23 applicants for a job as rural mail carrier, most of them ring Democrats. They all believed implicitly in the ability of John Walter to give out the job regardless of the results of the examination.

They really thought the examination was a farce. Why shouldn't they in a county where one illiterate man can be on the school board and two men can be county commissioners who can neither read nor write?

Well, a man from Cecil county got the job as mail carrier. All the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't make those ring Democrats believe that it was not a deal of the all-powerful John Walter. Anger and chagrin are mingled with curosity in the minds of the "faithful" who want to know what is the nature of the deal. It's a new wrinkle.

The deal is probably a sop to Cecil county to pull the county vote to Harrington. But while Smith is pulling Cecil, he is likely to lose Worcester by such tactics. And judging from all reports Harrington will never carry Cecil.

Murder in Queen Anne's.

Charged with stabbing and instantly killing Norman Conyer, a 25-year-old negro, John Washington, another negro, is in Centreville jail awaiting a preliminary hearing which will be held before Justice John F. Quaii, early this week. The trouble occurred one evening last week at 8 o'clock while a forth of July celebration was at its height at a negro church, less than two miles from Winchester. Half an hour after he had driven a knife through the heart of Conyer, Washington gave himself up to Constable Wrightson Beecher, of the Fifth District.

Washington's defense is that Conyer had been paying undue attention to his wife and that he had repeatedly warned him to desist. The murder occurred in plain view of several hundred negroes.

Fairlee Notes.

The ladies of Fairlee M. E. Church held a very enjoyable reception on Saturday evening at the parsonage, in honor of Miss Annie Bramble, of Virginia. A musical and literary program was rendered and a social hour was spent.

Rev. Leonard White and family who have been visiting his father, Rev. John White, have returned home.

Mr. J. Edwin Strong and wife and daughter, Miss Edna, of Wilmington, Del., spent the week-end at the parsonage. Mrs. John C. Strong and her two sons, of Wilmington, are visiting the parsonage.

Mrs. Louisa Legg has gone to the Blue Ridge Mountains for the summer.

Mrs. Morris Bramble and son are spending the week at Blue Ridge Summit.

Mr. Clough Buys Farm.

On Tuesday last Mr. Thomas T. Keating, Executor of John W. Clough, deceased, sold at public auction in Centreville the "Westcott Farm," owned by said deceased. This farm contains 273 acres of land and was sold in three parcels. Parcels number one, containing 173 acres, on which is located the dwelling house and outbuildings, was struck off to Mr. William R. Clough at $80 an acre. Parcel number two, containing 87 acres of unimproved land, was purchased by Mr. E. G. Coppage at $25 an acre, and parcel number three, eontaining 23 acres of land, was purchased by Mrs. Mary Appleford at $50.50 an acre. The whole tract brought a fraction over $61.00 an acre.

Prize Hens, These.—Joseph H. Cox, of Seaford, Del., refused an offer of $50 this week for two hens which he has had in his possession for more than 13 years. They were purchased by Cox when they were 2 years old, making them mow more than 15 years old, and one of the hens has been laying a double-yolk egg every other day. The hens weigh more then seven pounds each and hundreds of people come to see them.
