Mrs. Ollie Weyl, of Wilmington, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earle A. Barnes last week.

Miss Rebecca Davis is spending the week the guest of relatives in Philadelphia.

Bridgekeeper Lewin Wheat is quite sick at this time, we regret to report.

BASEBALL LEAGUE ORGANIZED

Kennedyville, Millington, Centreville and Queenstown To Compose The Same—Games To Be Played Twice A Week

At last Kent County is to have a baseball league, which was organized on Thursday and composed of the following towns: Kennedyville and Millington, Kent County; Centreville and Queenstown, Queen Annes county.

Mr. Madison Brown, of Centreville, was made president and secretary of the elague, which has been named the Northern Peninsula Baseball League. Two games will be played by each club each week and 30c admission will be charged to each game.

Competent umpires will be secured, who will have complete control of the game, which will eliminate all disputes and outside interference.

The following are the managers of the different teams: Kennedyville, Mr. William C. Dempsey; Millington, Mr. Norman Walls; Centreville, Mr. Hanson Horsey; Queenstown, Mr. Reynolds.

The following is the schedule for today, Saturday: Kennedyville at Millington; Centreville at Queenstown.

Next week's schedule is as follows: Tuesday—Millington at Centreville; Queenstown at Kennedyville. Saturday—Kennedyville at Queenstown; Centreville at Millington.

This league should be a big success and should be patronized by all lovers of the sport in the two counties.

An effort should be made to get Chestertown and another Queen Anne town in the league, thereby making it a six-club league.

CHURCH NOTES

The storm of Thursday greatly handicapped the P. E. picnic at Betterton. A large number had not started for the resort when the storm came, but a great many were there or on the way.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church will hold an ice cream and cake festival on the front lawn of the Elementary school next Tuesday.

The Methodist Protestant Church of Chestertown held its picnic on last Wednesday at Tolchester. It was largely attended. The P. E. Church of Chestertown held its picnic at Betterton on Thursday. People from all parts of the county were present. The M. E. Church picnic goes to Tolchester next Thursday.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward pastor. Sunday services: S. S., F. G. Usilton, Supt., 10.00 a. m.; morning worship, "To Whom Shall We Go"? 11 a. m.; evening worship, Christian Endeavor and short sermon 7.00 p. m. Praise and prayer service Thursday 8 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Services in the M. E. Church tomorrow will be as follows: S. S. session at 10 o'clock. The public preaching service at 11 o'clock, Dr. Alderosn preaching the sermon. In the evening rom 7 to 8 o'clock there will be an hour's service, the first part being occupied by the Epworth League, followed by a brief sermon by the pastor. On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the mid-week prayer meeting will be held.

DEATHS

It is with heartfelt sympathy that we chronicle the death of Mrs. Kathryn E. Anderson, beloved wife of Mr. W. O. Anderson, of Flatland, which occurred last Wednesday. We knew Mrs. Anderson to be a lady of charming disposition, a good wife and a kind and loving mother. Her home and husband and children were her chief pleasures and her death leaves them all grief-stricken. She was the daughter of Mrs. Emma Fowler and was 35 years of age. Besides her husband and mother, she leaves five children, one sister and six brothers, all of whom are grief-stricken because of her sudden demise. The funeral will be held this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Donovan, interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The pall bearers will be her six brothers.

The grim reaper visited the home of another Chestertown family last Friday and left its blackened mark, when the life of Mr. Samuel Sparks went out at Easton hospital. Mr. Sparks was a gentleman who was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was one of our best citizens and had many friends all over the county. He resided in Chestertown for a number of years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie A. Sparks, and four sons, Arlington L., of Chestertown, S. Walter, of Baltimore, W. Clifford, of Philadelphia, and G. Ray, of Florida. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. L. Ward interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were his sons, A. L., Clifford and Walter, and three nephews, Oscar Sparks, B. M. Sparks and Hackett Emerson. Undertaker Dodd in charge.

Mr. Raphael Bergen, formerly of Chestertown, where he conducted a large store in the old Sparks Building on High street for many years, died in Baltimore Tuesday morning from a complication of diseases at his home in the Cordova Apartments, Lake Drive. He was born in Baltimore City and was a son of the late Michael Bergen. He leaves a widow and four brothers and a sister. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. Morris Lazaron, Rabbi of Madison Avenue Temple. Interment in Baltimore Hebrew Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary A. Goodman died at the home of her daughter, Miss Mattie Jewell, on High street extended on last Thursday after a long illness of heart trouble, aged 78 years. Funeral was held at Wesley Chapel on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock with interment in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Steven Hickman, of Massey, Mrs. Curtis McClain, and Miss Mattie Jewell, of Chestertown, also a son, William R. Goodman, of Fairlee. Also a brother, Mr. Wesley Pierce, of Eastern Neck Island. The pall bearers were her six grandsons, Thomas, Walter, Charles and William Hickman, Edward and Orval Goodman. Undertaker William T. Hicks in charge of funeral arrangements.

Joseph M. Dillhofer, a former resident of Chestertown, died at 2.30 o'clock of a complication of diseases at the Hebrew Hospital in Baltimore on July 3rd, aged 33 years. Funeral was held from his late home on Monday with interment in Baltimore. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dillhofer, a widow and one daughter, also a sister.

Adam A. Klingenberg, of Baltimore, aged 59 years, employed as a special policeman by the Tolchester Co., died on the Louise Tuesday night while on the way from Tolchester to Baltimore.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

Sergeant Herbert Skipper arrived in Chestertown on Thursday. He has received his honorable discharge from the army. Sergeant Skipper saw considerable active service in France and Belgium.

Mr. Norman C. Hirons, who has been overseas for about two years, arrived home last week, and is looking well.

Mr. Albert Wheat arrived in New York from overseas on Monday and is expected home most any day.

Mr. W. T. Miller walked in on his mother, Mrs. F. M. Miller, the other day. He has been overseas for several years.

Mr. Walter Pippin has been honorably discharged from the navy.

Lieut. Charles Hines has been honorably discharged from the army and is here for several weeks. He was in the aviation branch of the sevrice.

were two abnormal conditions appertaining to Life Insurance that came to the surface during the year just passed, concerning which we simply state and we have pride in the manner the conditions were met.

The death claims among those of our policy holders who were in the SERVICE, and the death claims caused by the epidemic of FLUE and PNEUMONIA, approximating a QUARTER OF A MILLION DOLLARS (from those two causes alone) were paid immediately on receipt of proof of death, and not one claim was held in our office seven hours.
