DEMOCRATIC JUDICIAL TICKET

For Chief Judge of the Circuit Court
WM. H. ADKINS

For Associate Judge of the Circuit Court
LEWIN W. WICKES

THE Republican primaries on Monday resulted in a victory for the Raisin-Bennett-Hill faction. The primary was fought with considerable bitterness and naturally has left much soreness in that party, as all primaries do.

THE result of the Democratic primaries in Kent Monday is very gratifying to Democrats. It shows party harmony and forecasts Democratic success in the fall. Judge Adkins' friends are much pleased to know he has been nominated for Chief Judge. With Judge Adkins and Judge Wickes on the ticket this fall the Democrats should sweep the county. We will have more to say on this subject later. We are going fishing and will pay our respects to the fish this week and to our friends on the Democratic ticket next week.

JUDGE ADKINS THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

Gets Good Majority In Three-Cornered Primary Contest Monday

Judge W. H. Adkins is the nominee of the Democratic party for chief judge of this District. On last Monday the Democrats of the district, composed of Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline, Cecil and Talbot went to the polls and voted for Messrs. Adkins, Goldsborough and Crothers as follows:

	Adkins	Goldsb'h	Crothers
Kent	647	488	223
Queen Annes	767	897	366
Caroline	314	1350	38
Cecil	300	100	1750
Talbot	1512	179	57
Totals	3540	3014	2434

Below we publish a table showing the official count for Kent, both of the Judicial contest and the Republican county contest; also of the contest for sheriff in the Democratic party.
