FIRE AT GALENA

Residence Of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Vansant Burns And Occupants Have A Narrow Escape

Galena had a serious fire on Sunday morning, about 3 o'clock, when the residence of Mr. L. R. Vansant caught fire below from some unknown cause, and burned to the ground. The family were not aware that the house was afire until it was too late to save anything, they having narrow escapes with their lives, by jumping from the porch roofs.

Mr. and Mrs. Vansant jumped from the front porch and their daughter, Miss Anna, who was home for the week-end, climbed out from her window to the back porch roof and in that way reached the room where her invalid grandmother slept, battered in the window and carried out her grandmother and swung her safely down to where Walter Hadley, Jr., was waiting and took her. Although near helpless, the invalid seems unharmed by the adventure that came near ending her life. She was taken to Capt. Hadley's and put to bed.

Mr. Vansant had his arm broken in two places and had to be taken to the hospital, and Mrs. Vansant hurt her back when she jumped to the ground.

With the exception of Miss Anna, the balance of the family were compelled to make their escape in their night colthes.

Practically everything was burned, the house being partially insured. The night was a calm one and the spread of the flames was prevented.

The Middletown Fire Co. had their engine on hand 45 minutes after the alarm was sent in and did some good work.

The family are living temporarily in the rooms furnished by Mrs. Katherine Hyland, as Mrs. Hyland is out of town for the winter.

DEATHS

Mrs. Purnell Jones, of Sassafras, died recently at a hospital in Wilmington, where she had gone for treatment. She leaves a husband and several children. She was laid to rest on Tuesday, January 3, in Townsend, Del., Cemetery.

The Third National Bank Elects New Officials

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Third National Bank was held at its banking house on Tuesday. Nearly the entire capital stock of the bank was voted either in person or by proxy. The following Board of Directors was elected for the ensuing year: Thomas D. Bowers, Ellsworth C. Bowers, P. Medford Brooks, Wm. B. Copper, T. Benjamin Durding, Wilbur W. Hubbard, Samuel J. Johnson, G. Ellsworth Leary, H. Stockton Startt, Andrew W. Wilson.

The Board met on Wednesday, the regular board meeting day, and elected the following officers: Wilbur W. Hubbard, Chairman of the Board; W. B. Copper, President; Thos. D. Bowers, Vice-President; Wm. Robt. Huey, Cashier; Raymond R. Wilkins, Asst. Cashier; Harry H. Morris, Teller and Book-keeper; M. Palmer Carroll, General Book-keeper; Eunice C. Morris, Book-keeper.

To Hold Sales In Chestertown

Two of Chestertown's biggest and best-known stores will hold attractive and bargain-giving sales, beginning today and next Tuesday.

On next Tuesday, January 17, Mr. H. F. Jefferson will begin his sale. It will last until January 21. The adv. of this big sale appears on page eight of this issue. He had some rare bargains advertised and many more will be found when the sale opens.

On page three of this issue will be found the full-page adv. of Messrs. H. Sachs & Son. This firm has been advertising sales in this paper several times a year for a number of years. They, too, have some exceptionally fine bargains advertised and the public will, no doubt, be quick to appreciate the fact.

Colored Man Shot Through Side

Charles Smith, a Chestertown colored man, on Tuesday night was shot through the right side of his lower abdomen by another colored man by the name of "Greasy" Johnson. Smith says he was in a crowd talking to them when suddenly Johnson appeared, evidently under the influence of liquor, waving a revolver and threatening to shoot up the crowd. It seems that during the scramble that followed to give Johnson room, Smith was unlucky enough to get in the way of a bullet.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Dr. and Mrs. H. Benge Simmons entertained the directors and officers of the Peoples Bank at a fine dinner on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. W. Vickers, who has been quite sick, is much improved.

Mrs. Charles E. Embert is quite sick at her home on Cross street.

Mr. James A. Tucker passed his 70th milestone Monday and his wife and daughter gave him a delightful surprise.

Mr. William Sappington, of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown, was here for the week-end.
