SPORTING NOTES

BASKETBALL SEASON RESUMED AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE—AMERICAN LEGION TEAM SCORES VICTORY OVER CAMBRIDGE—OTHER SPORTING NOTES

The basketball season at Washington College was resumed last evening, when the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy played on the local floor with the local Collegians. The game was probably a good one.

The St. John's College quint will be here next Friday evening to try conclusions with the local College team. This will be one of the biggest games of the year, because of the intense rivalry that exists between the two college teams.

The new player, Dumbolt, has proved to be quite a sensation at Washington College. He hails from Waterbury, Conn., and is said to be nearly as good as Carroll. If he is he is a good one.

The local American Legion team defeated the Cambridge quintet last Friday evening at that town before a big crowd of about a thousand by the score of 30 to 24. Cambridge was in the lead at the close of the first half, but as the second progressed the local team drew away from them and defeated them. The game was one of the best ever played at Cambridge.

Someone has called Killinger, of the Penn State team, a great football and baseball player. There is no doubt regarding the former and there a number of elevens who will agree with him.

Washington and Jefferson is about $70,000 better off through the western trip of their football team, besides, look at the advertising feature of being able to win practicaly a victory over the California team.

The new year has brought conditions in baseball which have never been seen before. Before a game is played in 1922 there may be more upsets which will cause the fans to wonder where the lightning will strike next, but today the men who make a business of betting are making the Giants a top-heavy favorite in the National League and aer niyalodgdstaoin tional League and are laying odds of 5 to 3 against the Yankees if Ruth stays out of the game until May 20. If the home-run king's banishment is remitted even money is the best they will offer against the American League pennant winners.

In traveling the long, long trail,
That dips through some defile,
Or braves the force of mountain gale,
Two things make life worth while;
And one is laid in lavender,
And one soars high and free—
The memory of things which were;
The hope of things to be.

Jeffries was 24 years old when he won from Fitz; Dempsey was the same age when he toppled Willard. With that starting point, no two champions in ring history have followed paths that were so nearly parallel. Between 1900 and 1904 Jeffries loomed as high above the field as Dempsey does at this time. He wasn't as quick a finisher, but was almost sure to win against any contender. Both of them in their prime loomed above their challengers like Pike's Peak above an ant hill.

—Justice Coburn, of Perryville, Cecil County, fined Charles Beck, of that section, heavily for killing muskrats before the opening of the regular season.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The Washington College Cotillion Club held its New Year dance in the college gymnasium on Friday evening, Jan. 6. The dance was well attended by both students and town people. The hall was beautifully decorated with red and green streamers and cuttings from fir trees. The color combination had a very pleasing effect and the air was perfumed with the sweet smell of evrgreens. The music was furnished by Bill Smith's orchestra, from Baltimore. The decoration committee consisted of D'Arcy R. Flowers, Chairman; Percy Donaghay and C. E. Waller.

The co-eds of Washington College have a new course added into their curriculum. Twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, they must take physical culture lessons. Their introduction to the course took place on Tuesday, Jan. 10. In conjunction with them the High School girls were also given the same course. We judge it proved successful by the enthusiasm that the young ladies showed. But that is the only sign for we were not permitted to witness the fair sight for ourselves.

—A trio of prohibition sleuths, who were mistaken for would-be-whiskey bandits, when they held up and searched a Philadelphia truck at Bel Air, were ordered arrested in Cecil after crossing the river recently.

Galena Grange Notes

Galena Grange held quite an interesting meeting Monday evening, Jan. 9. The regular business program was followed by an open meeting, which was attended by many guests as well as Grange members. Our lecturer, Mrs. E. K. McCauley, had prepared an excellent program, as follows: Instrumental music, Miss Helen Gale; song, by Grange, page 90; reading, "Some Simple Saings," Daniel Mullen; definition of "Man," Miss G. A. Culley; solo Miss Margaret Burns; question, "Which is the greater factor toward success, energy or education," Miss G. A. Culley and Mrs. James Donahoe; quartette, "Kentucky Babe", Miss M. Burns, Mrs. E. K. McCauley, Mr. N. V. Walters, Mr. R. A. Fogwell; recitation, Miss G. A. Culley; reading, "Mirandy on Ortymobiles," Mrs. E.K. McCauley; roll call of members responded to with "My New Year's Resolution."

Afte rthe program, Rev. G. E. Sterling taught us some new games that were enjoyed by all. Refreshments consisting of lemonade and cake were served.

On Monday, Jan. 16, our newly elected officers will be installed. All Grange members please be present.

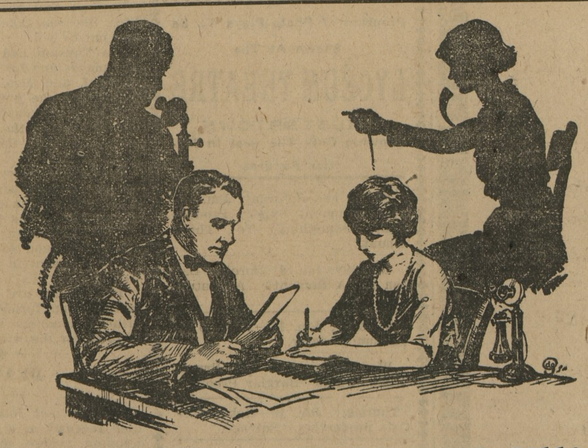
ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame, stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Chestertown people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbors. You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. J. E. Allen, 511 W. High St., Chestertown, says: Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I have ever found for kidney complaint. My kidneys were weak and in a disordered condition. I became run down and had no energy. My back often ached and pained me so it was all I could do to keep gofng. Headaches were frequent and kept me feeling miserable. The action of my kidneys was never regular. I used Doan's Kidney Pills as directed, from Toulson's Drug Store. They just suited my case. I have never had anything to act so quickly and relieve the aches and pains as Doan's. My energy was restored and my kidneys didn't trouble me, either."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Allen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.



Taking Down Four Million Words A Day

WHEN you dictate, you are careful to speak distinctly so that your stenographer will get her notes right.

When you telephone are you just as careful to speak distinctly so that the operator will understand correctly?

Four million times every day telephone numbers are dictated back and forth over the telephone in the territory served by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company. It's like taking down so many words of dictation.

Think how much depends upon careful enunciation. Care in giving telephone numbers means better service, just the same as care in giving dictation to your stenographer.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN
Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.
Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me.
"I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.
"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."
Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.
