CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

Never attempt to relieve your baby with a remedy that you would use for yourself.

What is CASTORIA

GETS GOOD POSITION

Mr. A. Parks Rasin, Former Clerk of Court Here, Made Acting Chief Field Officer In The Internal Revenue Department

Collector of Internal Revenue Galen L. Tait made the first important change in his department Friday when he displaced T. Huber Koontz, Chief Field Deputy in the district, and made Mr. A. Parks Rasin, recently appointed Deputy Collector, Acting Chief Field Officer. Mr. Rasin will doubtless be made permanent head when the change is ratified at Washington. The position is said to pay $3600 a year. Mr. Rasin is well known as former clerk of the Circuit Court here, and is a man of exceptional ability.

Next to the special Deputy Collector, the head of the field force is the most important official in this branch of the service. He exercises supervision over the income tax and also the miscellaneous tax divisions, his jurisdiction extending to the subdivisions at Hagerstown, Salisbury and the District of Columbia.

Mr. Rasin is the Republican leader in Kent County and is regarded by Mr. Tait as an efficient administrative officer.

Mr. Koontz, who he succeeds, is a resident of Hagerstown and was appointed by former Collector Miles about five years ago. The position is outside the classified service, as are those of all of the field officers.

Mr. Rasin entered upon his new duties on Friday.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

The many fiends of Mr. Stewart Matthews and family, formerly of this town, who moved to Ohio over a year ago, will be pleased to learn that they will return to Chestertown about the first of March.

Mr. Fred G. Usilton, senior editor of the Kent News, who was on the sick list last week, is now convalescent.

Mr. Spencer Peterson, who was quite sick several days last week, has resumed his work.

Contractor Walter T. Pippin has been confined to his bed this week by sickness.

Mr. W. B. Copper, president of the Third National Bank, was in Baltimore on business last week.

Mr. Walter LeCompte, of Philadelphia, has been visiting relatives here.

Mr. Harry Nicholson has been housed with fractured rib, sustained while lifting.

Mr. Claude E. Truslow has been indisposed the past week.

We are glad to state that Mr. Wilbur Eliason, who has been quite sick here, is able to be out.

Miss Lydia Newnam, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Miss Elizabeth Reed.

STILL POND

Miss Louise Pennington is visiting at Summit, N. J.

The regular monthly business and social meeting of the Epworth League will meet in the Sunday School room on next Friday evening, Feb. 10.

Miss Florence Harper left Tuesday for Wilmington, where she has accepted a position as teacher.

Mr. Thomas Bonwill is spending some time at his home near town.

The postponed meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Sallie Norris on next Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 8.

Both young and old have enjoyed the sleighing and coasting this week.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Price, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norris, Mrs. R. D. Moore and little son, Misses Mabel Norris, Anna Bowers, Dora Bramble, Sarah Haddaway and Messrs Thomas Mann were taken to Still Pond station by a farm wagon, driven by Mr. Ernest Robinson, on Monday morning to see the snow plow break the track.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Raymond Price, with his four-horse wagon, assisted by Messrs. Wm. Haddaway and Harper Brice, and accompanied by a number of young folks, broke the road through Still Pond and on to Still Pond Station. The ride through the snow banks was enjoyed by the happy bunch, who took the ride again Sunday evening in hopes the snow plow would get through.

Quite a large number attended the pie social at the parsonage on Wednesday evening.

ROCK HALL

This town has been literally snowed under for the past week, but travel has now been resumed.

Mr. Rueben Rodney will raise and rebuild the place he purchased after which he will conduct a store for the A. & P. Co.

At the town meeting Tuesday evening of last week a bond issue of $13,000 was voetd to put in a large, up-to-date elec[illegible] plant.

The [illegible] Pythias will have an [illegible] supper on the 23rd.

SPORTS

ITEMS OF INTEREST THAT MAY BE WORTH READING BY THE LOVERS OF THE VARIOUS SPORTS

The much-heralded American Legion-Washington College basketball game was not played on Saturday night last, on account of the storm. The two teams will battle tonight, Saturday, and the game should be an interesting one.

Tree-climbing after raccoons is one, and perhaps the most, dangerous element of sport in Kent county. When the animal leaves the earth and is located by the dogs, it becomes the duty of the climber to go up and shake him down. It takes nerve to mount the big monarchs of the woods, at midnight, when the tree is oftimes slipper and uncertain. There are few good night tree climbers, as the sport is gradually dying out in this section.

Don't forget to hand the old hound chained to box a bone now and then, and, besides, some good cornbread. He can't keep fat and nice looking on snow no more than you can. And do not forget, too, to throw him in an armful of straw now and then. The most pleased animal on earth is the fox hound, after a big armful of straw has been tossed into his box. He can't speak, but the look of gratitude he gives one is reward enough for the straw.

During these days of mid-winter, when the storm-king has covered the woods and fields with a white mantle, throw the birds some wheat or grain in the bare spots. It will help to get the to survive the hard winter. Our birds and wild animals are one of our biggest assets. Let's keep them from starving.

Bill Roper, of Princeton, is authority for the statement that things can look entirely too well in advance. Last winter, at this time, Roper seemed to have enough star material to build up two winning teams, only to find the mental attitude of his squad badly adjusted in the early fall, with this followed by a series of unkempt blows from fate. Now Roper says his squad will understand in advance that only hard work and hard training will get you anywhere, and there will be a better chance to get somewhere. The hardest thing in the world is to keep the right sort of mental attitude, meaning grim determination, with too many things looking all your way.

Hunting brought into the State Treasury nearly $100,000 during the fiscal year 1921, ended Sept. 30 last, it is shown in a report prepared by the State Game Warden LeCompte. Fees for licenses amounted to $96,330.15, from 51,625 $1 licenses, 7100 $5 licenses and 1338 $10 licenses. The net receipt from fines, in 189 cases of game law violations, were $3,244.79.

The ducking season closed on last Tuesday, January 31.

In the news from the New York Yankees recently appears the statement that Frank Baker will take a two weeks' boiling out course at Hot Springs before going to New Orleans to train for the coming season. Baker will not forsake baseball this year, unless he has to, it is stated. Baker will have a hot fight on his hands for the third base positoin this season. It will be recailed that he hurt one of his legs before the season closed last year and Baker played on the bench the balance of the season.

The Washington College quintet and the quintet from the Blue Ridge College are scheduled to play here on Saturday, Feb. 11.

MILLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. George Bartlett and little son, Roland, of Wilmington, are spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burris.

Miss Etta Jones, who has been quite sick at her home on north Sassafras street, for the past ten days, is much improved at this writing.

Misses Louise King, Helen Stevens and Emma Jones are also on the sick list.

The ice and snow of the last two weeks have afforded the young folks of our community much pleasure.

Miss Edna Strong, of near Rock Hall, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Merritt Brice.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. H. M. S. of Asbury M. E. Church was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Anna Barnhart.

Miss Addie Vansant returned last Tuesday to Wilmington, after spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Vansant, who is much improved, we are glad to state.

Miss Esther Sparks, of Crumpton, spent the week-end with Miss Helen Stevens.

Miss Lydia N. Jones returned last Tuesday to New Jersey, after spending ten days with her brother, Mr. Jonathan Jones.

Mrs. Herman Wallace and two little children spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Wallace, near Crumpton.
