Legislative Notes

With no debate on either measure, the House on Wednesday passed the Anti-Saloon League's State Enforcement Act by a vote of 58 to 45 and Delegate Hall's anti-racetrack gambling measure by a vote of 70 to 30.

Delegate Hall, introducer and sponsor of the Anti-Race Track Gambling Bill, flayed the business in the House on Tuesday and then turned upon the Maryland Racing Commission and gave them about the same dose. By a vote of 75 to 25 the lower House began the loosening of the financial ties which bind the state and the race tracks.

Any change in the present oyster tax laws was protested against by a large delegation of Talbot county oystermen who appeared before the House Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and Tributaries, on Tuesday. The oystermen appeared against the Conservation Commission measure increasing teh bushel tax rate on oysters and proposing other changes in the existing laws.

A conference intended to solve the fewer elections tangle in which the Democrats have apparently involved themselves by not applying, in advance of making platform pledges, was held Tuesday afternoon in the office of the Governor.

That the taxpayers of Charles Co. are up in arms against the education bill now before the Education Committee of the Senate was the statement Tuesday afternoon of Senator Mitchell at a meeting of the committee. Senator Mitchell declared that "everything in the bill is a dollar mark."

On reconsideration of its ction of last week, when it voted down the Women's Rights Bill, the House on Tuesday passed the measure by a vote of 75 to 30 amid the plaudits of the women lobbyists who crowded both the galleries and aisles of the chamber. This measure now goes to the Senate for concurrence after being amended and then passed by the House. In the form in which the House approved the bill, little is given to the women save those rights which would naturally come with the right of equal suffrage.

MRS. HOOKER MAKES DENIAL

Mrs. Donald R. Hooker, who, it was stated in the Baltimore Sun last week, had advocated interracial marriages and which was referred to in this paper, has made public a statement denying that she ever said or thought of such a thing. We copy below Mrs. Hooker's statement of denial as published in the "Maryland Women's Suffrage News":

To The Editor Of The Baltimore Sun:

I wish to deny absolutely and flatly the purport of an article which appeared in the Baltimore Sun of Feb. 22, headed "Favors White Women Wedding Other Races." This is a complete untruth and represents precisely the contrary of my opinion.

What I did say was (1) that sexual selection was phrased in the human race as love; (2) that sexual selection acted to improve the race stock; (3) that throughout the animal kingdom save only in mankind the power of sexual selection was vested in the female; (4) that if women were free to choose their husbands, illicit relationships were banned and marriage was based upon love instead of ulterior considerations, there would be little if any intermingling of superior and inferior races. In support of this thesis I brought forward the acknowledged fact that in the crossing of superior and inferior races the man particularly always belongs to the superior race. In none of my statements did I in any way indicate that I favored white women wedding other races, nor do I. In addition I pointed out the obvious truth that the present tragic circumstance of a half-breed race in the South was due to the sexual proclivities of white men and not of white women.

As I regard it as the gravest of all crimes against the human race for a man or woman to accept as the coparent of a child a person whom he or she regards as an inferior, I am outraged at the imputation involved in this malicious story.

The power of procreation seems to me to involve more serious responsibilities than any other power inherent in mankind, and for the Sun to insinuate that I believe white women should lend themselves to a degradation of the racial stock is an insult so gross as to tempt me, were it possible under the law, to institute a suit for slander.

My position in the matter is made perfectly clear in a recent book of mine, "The Laws of Sex," in which I plead for a strict enforcement of the marriage laws, to the end that the present extra-marital relationships which result in a degradation of the racial stock may be consistently outlawed.

It is my sincere belief that this outrageous falsehood was printed either to defeat the women's legislation now pending in Annapolis or as a result of the instinct toward yellow journalism.

(Signed)
EDITH HOUGHTON HOOKER.

gant three-story Frame Dwelling, containing 10 rooms, recently painted, remodelled, and contains all modern fixtures; Cow Stable for 20 cows, together with tiled Silo adjacent; Grainery, Stable, Meat House, Chicken Houses and all necessary outbuildings.

This is one of the best located farms in Kent County, being about four miles from Chestertown and the same distance from Kennedyville. The soil is fertile and very productive and it has yielded on the average high returns for past owners.

There is a small Apple Orchard containing about 75 trees. The farm is nicely fenced, has a standing Meadow of 8 or 10 acres for pasture and also has a small tract of timber, affording plenty of fire wood.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third of purchase money CASH on day of sale and balance to be paid in two equal instalments in six and twelve months from day of sale or all cash at the option of the purchaser; deferred payments to bear interest from the day of sale and to be secured to the satisfaction of the undersigned, or other satisfactory arrangements can be made with the undersigned; the purchaser will be required to pay the state and county taxes to be levied for the year 1922; and also all costs of title papers, including revenue stamps. The wheat crop now growing is reserved.

S. SCOTT BECK,
Attorney Named In Mortgage.

LARGE
Cattle Sale

An Unusual Opportunity

Wednesday, March 15th, 1922

At 10.30 o'clock sharp

on "Brady Farm," where I now reside, on Levels, between Warwick, Md., and Townsend, Del.

An accredited herd, 60 head Purebred and Grade Holstein Cattle, all in the prime of life, and all raised on this farm. For the year 1920 I delivered to the Townsend Milk Station 203,398 lbs. of milk.

For the year 1921 I delivered 236,515 lbs. of milk from 25 cows or an average of better than 9000 lbs. per cow for the year.

HERD SIRES

Sr. Sir Inka Prilly Segis Burma No. 303802, a 30-lb. son of Sir Inka Prilly Segis, the noted Winterthur Farm sire.

Jr. Fishkill Colantha Sir Inka Topsy No. 334855, a 40-lb. son of Dutchland Colantha Sir Inka, that great bull that heads the noted Morganthau herd, and who has more 30-lb. daughters than any other living sire.

Come look these cattle over before the sale, see them milked, select the ones you want, and on March 15 come back and buy them; you can't go wrong.

Every animal will positively be sold for the high dollar, a health-certificate goes with every animal over 6 months of age with the usual 60-day retest privilege.

TERMS—Nine months note with approved endorser, no stock to be removed until terms are complied with.

Eggs Hatching Chix

Bar. Plymouth Rox

My Barred Plymouth Rocks are better this year than ever before. I have recently added five Cockerels from the best known Barred Rock dealers in the world—that came from 270 and 300-egg hens. My breeders are all yearlings, and are from stock that has for years, been bred to lay. As a general purpose fowl, the Barred Rock leads them all in this country.

S. C. W. Leghorns

Like my Rocks, my Single Comb White Leghorn breeders are all yearlings, to which I mated Cockerels from hens that produced tremendous egg yields. Leghorns are recognized the world over as being the best layers and can be raised with profit any time from January to July. Leghorns have made records of three hundred eggs per year and better.

Prices of Chix and Eggs

CHIX—$18 per hundred; $9 per fifty.

EGGS—$8 per hundred; $1.50 per setting.

CUSTOM HATCHING—$6 per two hundred.

No less than two hundred taken.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
