MECHANICS' HALL

Picture Parlor

ROCK HALL

Saturday, March 18—Edith Roberts in "Luring Lips." The stirring story of how a beautiful woman wins back the man she loved and solved a great intrigue. Also fifth episode of "Winners of the West."

Wednesday, March 22—Vivian Martin in "Pardon My French." The rollicking romance of A Maid for Millions; also comedy, "Two Knights."

Saturday, March 25—Gladys Walton in "Short Skirts." The peppery picture of a lovable little spitfire with grown-up ideas; also sixth episode of "Winners of the West"—fight with Mexicans.

Dance in upper hall after pictures. Pictures start at 7.30 p. m.

WE HAVE

Excelsior & Chester Flour,

TABLE MEAL,
LARRO FEED,
BRAN, MIDDLINGS,
CR. CORN,
C. S. MEAL,
CROUND OATS,
GROUND BARLEY,
CHICK and
SCRATCH FEED,
& SEED OATS.

—OF—

Get our prices. Phone Millington No. 39F-13.

Yours very truly,

J. E. HIGMAN & SONS.

Millington, Md.

COB CORN GROUND

EVERY

TUESDAY MORNING ONLY

OIL MEAL—used in your cow feed from now until grass comes will help your cattle to shed off and go out in good condition.

DAIRY FEEDS—We have it, what is your order?

FUL-O-PEP and Purina Feeds

for

Baby Chicks and Laying Hens.

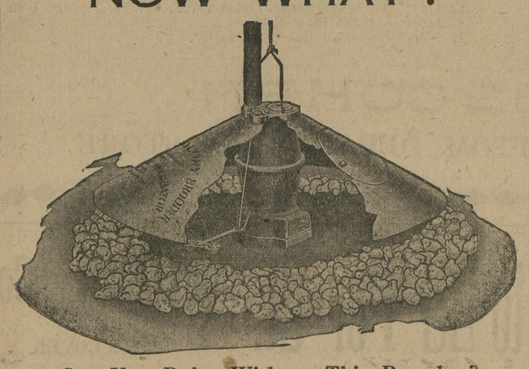
SEED OATS recleaned ready to sow.

BROOKS' MILL

Phone 81-J. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Rose Bud Flour Best for Family Use.

NOW WHAT?



Can You Raise Without This Brooder?

Chicks just hatched represent a considerable investment of time, care and money. The return always depends on the number you raise. To secure that return, and make your investment pay, you need a Standard Colony Brooder.

You may see this brooder demonstrated by calling upon us, and we will give you proof of every assertion that no brooder on the market is as good as the Standard Colony Brooder.

Capacity 1 to 1200 chicks.

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PH ONE 51

CULP Lumber

A Good Stock of Building Material

We meet all competition.
We have the stock.
We have our own mill.
We have experience by years of building.

When YouNeed Advice About Building See Us.

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Phone 5. CHESTERTOWN, MD

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Senatorial primaries will be held days in Chester river.

—Many ducks are to be seen these day in Chester river.

—The United States has had 73 disturbances from earthquakes during the year 1921.

—Sachs Shoe Store is showing an unusually attractive line of footwear for Easter. See adv.

—Game Warden Watson received 75 young rabbits last week for distribution in this county.

—Tuesday was the first day of the spring season, the sun having crossed the line on that day.

—The suicide of Mrs. Emma H. Dennis, by hanging, occurred in Cecil on Monday of last week.

—W. J. Brewington, of Salisbury, has purchased the Marylander and Herald of Princess Anne.

—Attention of the public is called to Mr. John H. Clendaniel's Jr.'s, big adv. on page 8 of this issue.

—Mr. John H. Clendaniel, of Chestertown, has sold to Mr. J. P. Ahern, of Millington, a fine Paige auto.

—A meeting of the Kent Co. Poultry Association was held on Thursday evening in the Court House at 8 p. m.

—The League of Women Voters of Chestertown will meet March 30 at the room of the Business Men's Association.

—Mr. H. N. Baldwin, proprietor of the Chestertown cannery, says he will open the cannery this season and pack tomatoes.

—We were compelled to omit our story from this issue, because of the coming in of a number of large advertisements.

—There are many cases of grip and bad colds in Chestertown and the surrounding county. In some cases entire families are sick with it.

—James E. Morris has purchased from Samuel M. Jefferson the farm in Flatlands now tilled by Mr. Jefferson for a price said to be $18,000.

—State Comptroller W. S. Gordy, Jr., made public last week amounts of the public school tax to be distributed. Kents allotment is $11,285.05.

—Residents of Rising Sun and vicinity have thus far contributed $1805.50 toward the cost of the town's new fire engine. It cost $10,000.

—Not in many years have so many eggs been shipped from Kent County as are going now. Local stores are paying 20 cents per dozen for them.

—Dr. H. G. M. Kollock, of Newark, Del., well known to many Kent people, observed his 50th anniversary as a practitioner the past week.

—Mr. J. Mark Ashley, son of Benj. I. Ashley, a retiring merchant of Rock Hall, has been appointed manager of one of the A. and P. Co. Stores in Baltimore.

—Owners of the piston ring factory, which contemplated establishing a plant here, have disposed of their holdings to another syndicate and will not locate here.

—Prof. and Mrs. Gabriel Hines have located in Cambridge. The latter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sachs, of Chestertown, and will conduct a ladies' furnishing store.

—Rural Carrier C. E. Woods was painfully injured about one of his hands recently while attending to his horses needs. Mr. Ralph Shinn has been substituting for him.

—Mr. Thos. A. Davis, recently appointed superviosr of assessments, has entered upon his duties and is preparing to adjust a number of assessments on town and county property.

—Mr. Stewart R. Matthews and family have moved in one of J.W.Rusesll's houses on Cannon street, formerly occupied by Mr. Mason Baxter and family, the latter moving on Mill street.

—Prof. Robert Burns, of Wilmington, an expert musician, has been engaged as pianist at the Lyceum Theatre and will render special and appropriate music at every performance.

—Messrs. Duyer Brothers have the contract to enlarge the store of Mr. George Noland and are making good progress with the work. When completed this firm will have a fine room.

—Thieves have been stealing fish from the nets of Mr. George T. White, of Queen Anne's. A reward of $25 is being offered in this issue for information leading to the arrest of the parties.

—Mr. Frank Hurlock has a big adv. in this issue of The Transcript, regarding his closing out sale. Mr. Hurlock is offering to the public some rare bargains and it will pay you to visit his store.

—Bishop Davenport has issued his spring number of "The Bishop's Bulletin." It contains news of the diocesan activity, coming events in the church work and plans for the coming annual convention.

—The Milton Crew farm, near Kennedyville, offered for sale by Mr. S. P. Townshend, Tuesday, was withdrawn upon a bid of $10,000. This fine farm can be purchased from Mr. Townshend at private sale.

—Mr. S. R. Collins has sold for the E. A. Strout Farm Agency the John Walls farm, of 119 acres, located on the road from Crumpton to Millington, to Mr. Fred W. Stevens, of Crumpton. Price private.

—The House Naval Committee has agreed to report a bill fixing the maximum enlisted strength of the navy at 80,000, plus 6000 apprentices or 10,000 less than the number Secretary Denby declared was needed to operate the treaty fleet.

—H. Sachs & Son are advertising their spring opening in this issue.

—By card in this issue Mr. W. L. Fowler announces his candidacy for reelection to the office of Town Commissioner of Chestertown.

—The Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. has a big adv. in this issue of the Transcript. This is one of the biggest and best life insurance companies doing business.

—The "Shiek," a moving picture of considerable renown, from the book of the same name, was shown at the Lyceum Theatre last eevning, Friday, and will be repeated tonight, Saturday.

—The progressive and efficient firm of Vansant & Newsome are advertising spring clothing for men and boys in this issue. This firm always carries a good line of clothing and this year is no exception.

—John Schelberg, former Washington College pitcher, who has a contract with the Pittsburg baseball team, has been farmed out to the Flint, Mich., team and will leave Queenstown in the near future for training.

—Today, Saturday, March 25, will be generally observed throughout this state as Maryland Day. It will mark the passing of another anniversary of the founding of the Old Line State, and will be a legal holiday.

—The happiest man in the world has been found by the Lincoln Journal. He lives in North Carolina and he has six fiddles, ten children, thirteen hounds, a deaf and dumb wife, and a moonshine still that has never been spotted by the law enforcement officers.

—The ladies of the Town Improvement Association are considering the planting of shade trees on our streets this spring. All interested and wishing trees planted in front of their places will please notify Mrs. William F. Russell by postal card.

—Mr. R. D. Moore, of Still Pond, has become manager of the A. and P. store at Centreville to succeed Mr. John R. Hadaway, resigned, who goes back to Radcliffe Mill, where he has been a most efficient employee for many years.

—Some Baltimore automobilists were run down in Chestertown Tuesday for speeding and taken before Justice Moffett and fined. Quite a sensation was created when it was understood that they had been arrested for selling liquor, which was not the case. It seems that the men, being pursued by the officers, threw away two bottles of liquor while crossing the Bohemia bridge, one of which fell into the hands of the officers.

—The Business Men's Association of Chestertown will hold a banquet in the dining hall, Washington College, on Thursday evning, Mar. 30, at 8 o'clock. Speakers of prominence from the Baltimore Board of Trade, Wilmington, Salisbury and probably other cities on the Shore will be represented. It is the object of the local board to make this a community affair and hope for a large representation. Tickets for the banquet will cost $1.50 and can be secured up to the 25th from Mr. M. W. Thomas.

—Mrs. Lee Robinson was the winner of a bean guessing contest held at Newnam's Music Store, coming within one of the correct number of beans in a jar. She guessed 2485, the exact number being 2486. Miss Daisy Hadaway was a close second, with the guess of 2500.

—Mr. Herbert T. Hartman, who resides across from Chestertown, has purchased a fine sail boat with auxiliary power, which will soon be added to our small but fast-growing fleet of sail boats on the upper Chester. Mr. Hartman's boat is now in Boston and he will leave next month to sail her down to Chestertown. We understand this will be one of the finest sail boats in Chester River and are glad to see this famous sport reviving here. Who will be the next?

—Mr. John H. Clendaniel, Jr., local motor car and motor truck distributor, has recently installed an electrical reboring machine. He has also contracted for Wainright Pistons & Rings and American Hammered Rings. His contract enables him to give to the public high-class service. On a recent trip through his service station the writer's attention was called to the fact that first-class work was the reason his service station was running full blast. Mr. Clendaniel keeps in personal contact with all service work and takes pride in having satisfactory customers leave his shop.

Public Health Meeting

The Sun, of Baltimore, Maryland, says: "Physicians from many parts of the state attended the annual meeting of the Maryalnd Tuberculosis Society. The Kent Co. Branch was represented by the county nurse and the secretary-treasurer, but no physician was present from Kent. Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, managing director of the National Association, spoke on the "Solidarity of the Tuberculosis Movement." Dr. Alex. Miller, the president of the National Association, spoke on "Progress and Possibilities of the Fight Again Tuberculosis." Miss Martin, of the State Department of Health, spoke on "The Physician and Public Health Nursing," which was very interesting to the nurses. Dr. A. W. Freeman, on "The Physician and the Public Health Movement." At a round table conference the counties compared their activities in the seal sale and the best ways of publicity and education. On April 21 the staff of the State Association will hold a meeting in Chestertown looking to the forward movement in the health work of the county.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

The condition of Dr. L. E. Barrett is critical at this time.

Miss Margaret Adkinson is spending two weeks with friends in Maine.

Herbert Skipper, Esq., of Baltimore was in town this week.

DR. M. E. PARSONS

Dentist

Will be at Mrs. Droll's, Rock Hall, Tuesday, March 28.

—A group conference of the High School principals of Kent, Caroline, Talbot and Queen Anne's counties will be held at High School Bldg., Centreville, Thursday, March 23. A practical and interesting program has been prepared.

—Dr. Alonza L. Sterling observed the eighth anniversary of his pharmacy here on Friday evening. Messrs. Joseph Wheatley, Price Rolph and Norman Graves rendered some fine music at the store in honor of the event from 7 to 8 on that evening.

OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT.

To thePublic of Chestertown & Vicinity

I expect to open on or about March 25th, 1922, in the store room formerly occupied by A. S. Turner & Sons, next door to the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, with a complete line of Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes, Clothing, Hats, Caps and Working Clothes. Also Men's, Women's and Children's Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery and Notions. Also a good line of the latest shades and patterns of Yard Goods. In fact, a complete line of good clean dependable merchandise at Pre-War Prices.

BEN HELLER, Prop.

For Your Convenience and Need

we vary extensively our designs of jewelry.

We never vary from first-class quality of goods. It's not likely but you may want some extreme design that we do not have in stock.

We will get it for you quicker, better and cheaper than you can get it elsewhere.

"You must be pleased" at our store.

DIAMONDS KODAKS SUPPLIES SILVERWARE CUT GLASS CHINA

J. S. Kreeger

JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST

WATCHES PHONE 53-J CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Wonderful Values in Men's and Young Men's, Boys' and Juvenile Ready-to-Wear Suits

Boys' Suits Made With Two Pair Pants

Prices $8.50 to $10.00

We say "Wonderful," because that is the only adjective to describe the values we are offering this season in our

Department of Men's & Young Men's Clothing

Smart three-piece "Sport Model" Suits, all wool, single breasted, cut to form-fitting lines, becoming to the young fellow. Coat has two bottom patch pockets with flaps to button, two breast patch pockets to button, ¼ lined. Back is made with three inverted pleates, two pinches and sewed on belt.

Sport Models Colors Sand-tan and Grey | Price $18.00

We have a glorious showing of pure wool suits, such as "Blue Serge," Washington Clay and Mixed Colored Cassimeres made Form-fitting, "Conservative" as well as "Stout" models.

Prices $15 to $32.50

Come in and see for yourself and you'll know we're not exagerating.

VANSANT & NEWSOME

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_35_1-0086.jpg