THE Five-Power Naval Treaty, fixing the capital ship ratio of the navies of the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy, providing for the status quo on fortifications in the Pacific, was ratified by the Senate Wednesday by the overwhelming vote of 74 to 1, the only negative ballot being cast by Senator France of Maryland.

THE spirit shown at the banquet of the Busines Men's Association is a spirit which should be encouraged in our town and community. Under the leadership of Messrs. P. M. Brooks, John H. Clendaniel, Jr., and C. A. Goodwin, the organization has incerased from eleven members to forty-five members within a year. There is every reason why every business man in Chestertown should join the association. We think that great credit is due the leaders in this movement who are endeavoring to put the business interests of Chetsertown and of this community to the front.

THE question of a successor to Senator France seems to be occupying quite a lot of thought among the state politicians. The situation seems to depend upon whether former Senator Smith will be a candidate for another term. If Senator Smith decides to enter the race there is a question as to whether or not the Smith organization will bring out John M. Dennis for Governor against Governor Ritchie. According to recent events in Annapolis, there is apparent opposition to Governor Ritchie coming chiefly from the Smith people.

If Mr. Smith decides not to be a candidate, Governor Ritchie and David J. Lewis appear to be on the horizon as possible candidates for the Senate. It is said that Mr. Ritchie is anxious for another term as governor. Whether or not John M. Dennis will be in the race is a question.

E. C. Carrington appears to be out for the Republican nomination against Senator France.

This year should prove an interesting one in state politics.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES

Happenings At The Maryland Legislature Since Our Last Issue Which Will Be Of Interest To Our Readers

The following Senate bills passed the House this week:

To transcribe land records in Kent county.

$50,000 bond issue for Chestertown.

Increasing salaries of the justices of the peace.

The following House bills passed the Senate:

Regulating salary of road engineer of Kent county.

Fixing compensation of the Kent County Treasurer.

Incorporating town of Rock Hall, of Kent County.

Fixing compensation of judges of the Orphans Court for Kent County.

Authorizing $13,000 bond issue by Rock Hall.

When the Senate on Wednesday evening, after listening to the oratorical and histrionic endeavors of President Norris, adopted his amendments to the Hall betting bill, thereby nullifying that measure, the Upper House not merely beat the Hall bill but solved a perplexing and disturbing problem in the State's finances. Whether the Norris amendments are enacted into law or whether they are killed, the death of the original Hall bill seems a foregone conclusion. In this event the state will continue to receive the estimated annual amount of $712,000 from the race tracks.

The liberals won another victory on Wednesday in the House when that body passed Delegate Crockett's bill by a vote of 58 to 33. The bill is designed to give druggists in Pocomoke City the right to fill bona fide liquor prescriptions in conformity with the provisions of the Volstead Act, that right now being denied them by the Worcester county locap option law, which has been in effect for 50 years.

By a vote of 15 to 12 the Senate on Thursday adopted the Norris Bill, providing for a contination of horse racing under regulation, as an amendment to the Hall Anti-Racetrack Betting measure, previously passed by the House.

Both administration and anti-administration forces were bending every effort on Thursday to insure victory in the House on the Fewer Elections bill. The bill finally passed by a vote of 71 to 31.

Without a dissenting vote the Senate on Wednesday night passed the budget bill and immediately after passed that providing for the tax levy. Friends of the provision increasing the judges salaries feared another onslaught and they were ready for a fight, but at the last moment the opponents decided to pass them up to the House.

Senator Russell introduced a bill on Thursday providing for levying and collection of taxes in the town of Galena, Kent county. Select committee, Senators Russell, Legg and Cantwell.

Sen. Norris' racing bill, which succeeds the Hall bill, passed the Senate Thursday night by a vote of 17 to 9.

CHURCH NOTES

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, in which will be held the annual session of the Maryland Conference, is one of the most beautiful churches on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. With its beautiful, lofty ceiling, made attractive by the hanging lamps, from which is reflected glints of sparking light made by the countless glass ornaments attached; with its beautiful memorial windows and its handsome and melodious organ—this church presents an ideal edifice in which to hold a conference. And then, too, the church has ample room, with the means of enlarging the space, and will give seating capacity to a host of people. Rev. N. O. Gibson, pastor of the church, is quite busy completing the preparations for the conference and the entertainment of the people.

The Men's Bible Class had charge of the S. S. at Wesley Chapel last Sunday, with Mr. N. Moffett acting Supt. They had a special orchestra and special vocal music for the occasion, and were rewarded by having a large attendance. The missionary offering amounted to $13.00. Next Sunday Mrs. Raum's class In The Corner, "Our Young Ladies," will have charge. You are invited to attend this service. Wesley Chapel: 10 a. m., S. S.; 11 a. m., preaching service; Tuesday, April 4, 2 p. m. Ladies Aid will meet in the Church Hall. Broad Neck: Preaching service, 3 p. m. Skinner's Neck: S. S., 2 p. m.; preaching service, 7.30 p. m.

Topic for Epworth League, "Sir, We Would See Jesus." Leader, Mr. C. H. Jefferson. Every member canvass and distribution of envelopes on Sunday afternoon. During the week following Sunday the church will be at the disposal of the Methodist Protestant Conference.

Services at Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, April 2, as follows: Communion, 10.30 a. m.; S. S., 2.30 p. m.; C. E., 6.45 p. m.; preaching, 7.30 p. m.

This being the last Sunday of the conference year, I will appreciate meeting the members and friends of the charge.

Each Adult Bible Class teacher is kindly requested to report to Mrs. Laurence Brown, chairman of the Adult Department of the Kent Co. S. S. Association, the number of scholars on the roll on Nov. 1, 1921, also number on roll on March 26, 1922. The quota for the county has been set at 75 and the increase in attendance between Nov. 1, 1921, and March 26,1922, is to be reported to the State S. S. Association as soon as the reports are received. This applies only to those S. S. that are members of the County S. S. Association.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor. Services for Sunday, April 2: S. S. at 10 o'clock, L. W. Ford, Supt. The monthly missionary meeting will be conducted by Miss Catherine Pennington's class. At the 11 o'colck service there will be the monthly communion and reception of members. The Christian Endeavor meeting at 7.30 will be led by Miss Emma C. Shafer, followed by the pastor.

Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, O. H. Connelly, pastor. Tomorrow at 10 a. m. the S. S. will meet with Harry L. Higman, Supt., in charge. At 11 a. m. the pastor will preach, using as the subject, "The Program of a Progressive Life." At 7.30 p. m. the E. L. service will be in charge of William Bolin. The pastor will preach at 8 p. m. from the subject, "The Little Things of Life." This will be the first Sunday of the Conference year and it is hoped that large audiences will be present at all the services. The Junior Epworth League will meet on Friday at 3 p. m. At 7.30 p. m. on Friday, prayer meeting will be conducted. The pastor will preach at Massey on Sunday (tomorrow) afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rev. Avery Donovan, pastor of St. James and Lynch charges, will likely ask for another charge at the coming conference. Rev. Mr. Donovan is one of the most beloved pastors in the county and all who know him will be sorry to lose him from our midst.

Among those who attended Conference at Cambridge Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rote, and daughter and Miss Margaret Jefferson, Prof. Mark Creasy, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis and family, Messrs. J. T. Anthony, J. S. Kreeger, Townsend and Rumsey Anthony and J. H. Sides, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bennett, Mr. M. A. Toulson and family and Mr. J. C. Loud, Mr. Chas. H. Jefferson. John Jones was a delegate to the Boys' Conference.

The annual meeting of the W. F. M. S. of Christ M. P. Church was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. C. C. Jones.

The committee in charge of assigning the homes for the members and laymen of the Maryland Conference, which assembles here next week, has completed the work, ample homes being secured for all.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society held an open meeting on Friday, Mar. 4, 8 p. m. Miss Rebecca Brown headed the program with a declamation. Then Mr. Gilbert V.Byron gave a short talk on "Rare Books." The principal speaker of the night was Hon. Dudley G. Roe. He spoke on several things. One of the most important points in his speech was his comment on labor unions. Labor unions, according to the speaker, are a menace to civilization. He expressed his hopes for their complete disruption, which was just beginning. The day has come when labor unions are falling back and the farmer is coming to the fore. It is no mere conincidence that following Hon. Roe's address there followed a debate on an important labor question. Labor is one of the chief subjects of discussion today, and the Mt. Vernon debaters showed that they were keen enough to realize its importance. The subject of the debate was "Resolved, That the principle of the 'Open Shop' should be adopted by the industries of the United States." Messrs. Preston Heck and Owen Knight upheld the affirmative side of the discussion. Messrs. Clarence Peregoy and Hazel Rash represented the negative side. The judges, Drs. Gould, Hall and Prof. Harrington, decided the debate in favor of the affirmative. Then Mr. Howse read the "Auguan."

Mr. Benner, of Philadelphia, delivered a very interesting lecture to the students on Monday morning. His speech was concerned with art in the movies.

Gold basketballs with a maroon W, their names, positions, and year on them, were presented to Dumschott, Carroll, Lohran, Johnston and Coach Kibler. One was also sent to Capt. Gordy. The men were congratulated by Dr. Gould on the fine record they made for the season, and then Coach Kibler was called upon to tell us "how they did it." Coach replied that he did not know and that the boys were in a better position to answer such a question. One thing, though, he did know, and that was that every man that went into the game did not go in for his personal glory but for the college. He further assured us that this year's basketball team was the best we have had at the college and even the best in the state. For, had we been allowed to play Mt. St. Mary's another game, the state champs would spell their name with a capital maroon and black "W." The students did their best to make the occasion more impressive by cheering and singing.
