For the Kent News.

Organization of the Kent County Teachers Association.

In accordance with notice given a meeting was held in the Court House at Chestertown on Saturday, January 6th.

The meeting proceeded to organize by calling Mr. Thos. H. Harris to the Chair, and appointing Mr. John O. Pace Secretary pro tem.

Messrs. Russell, Bryan and Hepbron were then appointed a committee on permanent organization, who after consultation reported—for President, Thomas H. Harris; Vice President, Wm. Galligher; Recording Secretary, E. D. Bates; Corresponding Secretary, Miss E. J. Hahn; Treasurer, S. S. Hepbron. A vote of the members being taken, the report of the committee was adopted.

The subject of a constitution and by-laws for the Association next coming under discussion, the preparation of the same was referred to a committee.

On motion of Mr. Meeks that a committee be appointed to prepare business for the next meeting and a report on the best mode of alphabetical instruction, it was resolved that a committee on business be constituted.

A resolution by Mr. Meeks that a report be prepared on the relations between, and influence on, the advancement of pupils and unsuitable school houses, furniture, and surroundings, was adopted and, on motion, referred to the committee on business.

On motion, it was resolved that a special committee of three members be constituted, whose duty it should be to provide that an address on the subject of Education should be delivered before the Association at each meeting, and Messrs. Meeks, Russell and Galligher appointed such committee.

On motion of Mr. Newman, a committee, composed of Messrs. Meeks and Newman and Miss E M. Hudson, was appointed to prepare an address on the claims of this society to the attention of teachers.

On motion of Mr. Bryan, it was resolved that a copy of these proceedings be furnished the county papers.

The following members were appointed on committees to report at the next meeting: Messrs. Russell, Pace and Galligher on Constitution and By-Laws. Messrs. Pace, Crittenden and Bryan on Business. Mr. Miller on committee of State Teachers' Association on Constitution and By-Laws.

The Association adjourned to meet at Chestertown on Saturday, the 7th day of April next.

JNO. O. PACE,
Sec'y pro tem.

WENDELL PHILLIPS ON THE RAMPAGE.—Wendell Phillips still continues, and probably will forever continue, in ill humor with the President, and with everything done by the "powers that be." In his speech in Boston on New Year's Day, he exclaimed that "President Johnson, in attempting to lecture colored citizens, had reached the height of impudence." If the President had not discoursed to the negroes who addressed him, we suppose he would have reached a still higher height of impudence. He gave the poor negroes the most admirable advice—urged them to industry and temperance, entreated them to acquire intelligence and virtue, and showed them that thus they might gain all the good things of this world. They were filled with gratitude as he spoke to them, and left his presence with profound regard. But now Phillips tries to incite in them the malignant feelings toward their benefactor. Could anything be more wicked? We are glad to see that the meeting at which Phillips declaimed was closed by the singing of the "Doxology," for it shows that if he must curse everything upon earth, he can at least join the rest of mankind in "praising" Heaven.—Pittsbury Dispatch, Rep.

TALL EATING.—Some tall eating was done in Elkton on Saturday night, by Mr. Benjamin B. Wolf, residing but a short distance from town. He ate a hog's liver, weighing over four pounds, and several stews of oysters. This was all eaten before stopping—constituting one meal only. This feat was performed on a wager of $10. He received no injury whatever from this excessive gormandizing, and, we are told, offered to lay a wager of $20 that he could eat three geese, weighing respectively thirteen pounds each, within twelve hours. Whether he found any one to take the wager or not, we could not positively ascertain.—Cecil Whig.

SHEEP QUARANTINED.—About forty English blooded sheep, worth $200 or $300 each, arrived at New York a day or two ago, and under the cattle-plague law they will not be allowed to land. They are detained on board the steamer, but application for a landing permit has been made to Washington, which has not yet been heard from. The customs authorities informed the consignees that there was probably no power under the law of admitting the animals on shore unless in the form of butcher's meat.

A STEPMOTHER in Marengo, New York, lately crowned a long series of shocking abuses perpetrated upon a boy six years old, by locking him in the house and absenting herself for three days. When she returned, with her husband, the boy was dead. The neighbors went in and found the little creature lying on his heap of rags, nearly naked, and frozen stiff.

THE PROPOSED AIR LINE TO NEW YORK.—One of the best answers to complaints of men who are clamoring for a charter for an air line road to New York, is the fact that Speaker Colfax left Washington late on Friday night, went to Poughkeepsie, and lectured on Saturday night, and was back at the national capital on Monday morning to call the House to order at twelve o'clock, without having traveled any on the Sabbath.

"TO SOLDIERS!"

SOLDIERS who enlisted in 1861, 1862, and between the 1st day of April and the 14th day of December, 1864, will hear of something to their interest, by addressing the undersigned, enclosing stamp. W. P. EATON & CO.

OH YES! OH YES!

By the Bard of the "New" Dispensation.

Oh yes, this is for notice to give,
That by your patronage we expect to live;
And on our goods we shall not boast,
For if we can't survive we'll give up the ghost.

Our stock on its own merit shall stand,
For we offer it with our honor in hand;
We do not say we have the best country store,
As has been said by many before.

We shall try to please both country and town,
And invite the people from far and around,
To call upon us once if no more,
And see if ours is not the popular store.

Dry Goods in variety, a stock we shall keep,
Groceries also, of which you can judge if cheap;
The assortment would take us too long to name,
But like all first-class stores, ours is the same.

For our goods in exchange we propose to take
Any produce or merchandise you raise or make,
Neither will we refuse the ready cash in hand,
For on this broad platform we propose to stand.

☞ Call then and see us at VANNORT'S Store on Main street, (opposite Church alley,) where we invite you to examine our Stock of Goods, the quality and prices of which shall stand or fall on their own merits.
