NICHOLSON PLAYING INFIELD POSITIONS FOR FEDERALSBURG

Faces Locals In Double Header Tomorrow

Bill Nicholson, Chestertown baseball star, is now playing with Federalsburg, and will appear against his former Chestertown teammates, tomorrow, July 4, in a double-header, the morning game to be played at Federalsburg and the afternoon tilt here.

The management of the local club has secured the Washington College diamond for the afternoon engagement and is looking for a fine turn out. Hickey Fountain, Washington College hurler, is due to take the mound for Federalsburg.

Since casting his lot with Federalsburg early last week Nicholson has appeared in a half dozen games, hitting safely two or more times in each fray. He also has appeared at two infield positions, second base and shortstop, and filled the assignments with credit. He was shifted to the infield when other players were injured.

Chestertown is primed for the holiday twin bill and anxious to add Federalsburg to its list of victims. Not as highly touted as some of the other Shore teams the Chestertown nine has given both Federalsburg and Centreville plenty of trouble.

LOCAL GOLFERS BOW TO TALBOT CLUB TEAM

Lose Final League Match By 28-20 Score

A determined effort on the part of the 16-man golf team of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club to earn a tie with the Talbot Country Club team in the upper division of the Eastern Shore Golf League fell short last Sunday at Easton when the locals bowed 28-20.

The matches were undoubtedly more closely contested than in the 26-22 triumph which Easton scored over Chestertown here two weeks previous to upset the dope and tumble the two year champs from their lofty perch.

Easton, by virtue of its victory, earns the right to play the lower division winner for the Shore crown.

SAILING RACES OFF WHEN NO WIND BLOWS

Third Of Series Called Off Last Sunday Afternoon

After the entries had drifted about for more than an hour, unable to round the first buoy, the third of a series of six sailing races, free-for-all handicap events sponsored by the Chester River Yacht and Country Club, was called off Sunday afternoon.

The first two races of the series had been sailed the previous Sunday with Dr. A. L. Sterling's "Rexall" being the winner in each.

COLTART WINNER OF PENNA. GOLF TITLE

Holder Of Shore Crown Wins Junior Championship

Sidney Coltart, playing from the Plymouth Country Club, was the winner of the Pennsylvania Junior championship over the Asbourne Country Club course, Philadelphia, last week.

Coltart holds the Eastern Shore Amateur crown, having won the title on the Chester River Yacht and Country Club course, here last fall. He will forfeit the right to defend the title this year having moved from this section.

The championship for the Eastern Shore will be staged this year, over Labor Day, at the Cambridge Country Club lay out.
