ROCK HALL REPORTER

Cannery At Rock Hall To Open Today

The canning house expects to open today with a small pack of tomatoes as a season's start. A large percentage of the early plants from the South died. Those left have been greatly damaged by large green worms until men and boys go over them with scissors to kill the pests. The early beginning of the season is the pleasing point to the farmers.

The eclipse of the moon arrived Monday night in a sky that had just cleared itself of clouds as though to do honor to the occasion. If professional astronomers were as fortunate they no doubt enjoyed and benefitted from the beautiful spectacle. It certainly is much easier on the eyes than our eclipse of the sun.

Young girls and some older ones of Wesley Chapel met at the home of Miss Katherine Shriley and organized a club, calling themselves the 4-Square Club. They will hold their first meeting in the church hall next Friday night and complete arrangements to carry out their aims. On Tuesday of last week a general gathering of the church people went to the hall and held a supper as a welcoming gesture for the return of their pastor, Rev. Walter A. Donoway. This is an annual custom of this hospitable church. Monday night they held their first quarterly conference at Marion Miller's store.

Mrs. Lee Hynson entertained her Sunday School class from Raum Chapel at a Cobweb Social at her home in Skinner's Neck. The entertainment took place on Tuesday night of last week. Those who traced the gossamer threads to the ends found not spiders but pretty presents. Music was enjoyed and also ice cream and cake. Today the same party of ladies will spend the day together at Tolchester.

The M. E. Sunday School raised its attendance from 157 to 167 last Sunday. When the time came for birthday contributions two came forward, one a toddler to deposit his one penny. There will be a Sunday School Board meeting tomorrow night at 8 o'clock and the picnic date has been set for some time in the second week of August depending on what arrangements can be made for a reservation. The exact day wanted was, so it was understood, already booked for nine picnics at Tolchester. The sermon by the pastor, Rev. Conrad Hamer, was from a text found in Phil. 3:10. Mrs. Irving Crouch sang "Take Up Thy Cross" by J. Haydn Wand. Epworth League was led by Stanley Grant who gave a fine address on "The Widening Influence of Jesus." A scripture reading was given by Carl Orr. Mrs. Robert Shallcross at the organ. Then Rev. Hamer addressed the congregation on the paragle of the lost sheep, beginning Luke 15:4. Epworth League will hold a crab cake supper on the church lawn the evening of the 24th and the Ladies' Aid will hold their annual picnic the 25th, afternoon, on Charles Thomas' shore. Cofe to both and have a good time. Prayer meeting will be tonight and choir practice Friday night. Tomorrow night there will be a Sunday School Board meeting.

At Wesley Chapel, with a hundred and fifty-five present there was a fine session of school but the absence of a number from extreme heat of the weather and idleness in families was regretted. Mrs. Ursula Thumblet and Jesse Downey sang "One Hour With Jesus." The sermon was given by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Donoway. At night Mrs. Donoway lead the young peoples service with the topic, "The Widening Influence of Jesus," on which several short readings were given. Mrs. Charles Miller read a passage of scripture. Prayer was made by Mrs. Loura Wilson and an address by Rev. Donoway. A duet was sung by the Misses Louise and Imogene Thompson and a solo by Miss Bertha Dowling. "Some One Needs You." Thomas Warner gave a trombone solo and Miss Katherine Shriley contributed an uplifting talk. There was a ladies' chorus, "Win Them One by One" and several congregational choruses.

A party of several fishermen, mostly amateurs, went out last Thursday and S. Elwood Burgess, about the most amateurish one among them, caught the largest fish, a thirteen and a half pound striped bass—rock, to you. Two others of the party bragged of eight and ten pound rock. Marion T. Miller said that he would have been willing to pay a goodly sum to have pulled in such a fish as one of them. He, a participant in a Fourth of July family dinner on Louis Smith's shore, went out in the afternoon with the other men of the party and all had some luck except himself. Well, there is another day coming and he can't say that he doesn't get some ducks in the winter.

Mrs. Spencer Greenwood and children are spending some time from Vutley, N. J., with Mrs. Samuel Burgess and other relatives. Mr. Greenwood will return shortly to accompany them home.

Mrs. Perry Price has been a guest of her son, Postmaster Harry Price, and wife, and Mrs. Minnie Durding.

Miss Bessie Willson was in the town Saturday night and shows no sign of the recent automobile accident in which she shared and was bruised about the face. Despite the pronouncement of the doctor that her nose was broken she says it was not and it certainly doesn't look to have been. Carroll Willson, Jr., and Franklin Wood are getting along very well, the former with a broken arm and the latter with a fractured leg. Mrs. Wood, whose chest was mashed, is now able to come down stairs and be with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Urie have had several guests from Baltimore. Miss Mary White and friend, William Turner, were house guests for a week and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Moffett spent Sundoy with them.

Miss Susie Leary, Baltimore, wos a week end guest of her brother, William E. Leary and wife.

Mrs. William I. Ashley entertained the latter part of last week her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Prince who had spent the greater part of a two weeks vacation at Atlantic Citp and Ocean City. Their daughter, Betty, and friend, Charlotte Moulton, are making a longer visit.

Mrs. Norbourne Berger is a guest from Baltimore with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hadaway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott. Wilmington. Del., arrived Saturday to make a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Donnelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colison spent from Friday until Monday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Herman Hill, Sr., who, with Mrs. John Grulkey and little Arthur Dierker were their guests in Baltimore and also visited Mr. and Mrs. William Frey and Mr. and Mrs. William Stitz, making a stay of a week.

John Coleman is spending part of the summer from Baltimore with his son, George N. Coleman and wife.

Mrs. Lavinia Medcalf, Baltimore, is visiting her niece, Mrs. John Lewis, Sr., and other friends here.

A son of Louis Buckler, who is in State Sanatorium at Sabillasville, while playing ran the tines of a table fork that happened to be in the ward through his foot. Will Scott, a colored man living just outside the town, stepped on a nail and ran it through his shoe and into his foot. Both of these are serious.

Two infants have arrivtd in Skinner's Neck, a daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grant and a son at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heinefield's.

During the electrical storm on Tuesday night of last week lightning did some damage to a barn on Crosby Brothers farm but did not burn it.

Miss Grace Davis, who was staying in Baltimore with an aunt, is a present guest of her sister, Mrs. Bradley Kerr, and may spend some time in and near Chestertown pending the homecoming of the aunt who is now in a hospital for several weeks.

Ralph Blackiston, chief engineer of the U. S. S. Siwash, home for a visit, was taken ill but is now much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. William Muth and small sons, Walter, are guests from Baltimore with Mrs. Muth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Briers.

Capt. Maurice Kerr of the U. S. Army, is a fortnight's guest of his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Charles R. Kerr at their pretty town home. He is scheduled to remain at State College, Pa., for the next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruthwin Strong are entertaining as house guests the latter's brother, Capt. Frank Kerr, who is having a two weeks vacation from his duties as master of Baltimore harbor fire boat "Cataract." Mrs. Kerr is with him and they have now been joined by their recently married son, Garland Kerr, and his bride, who are finishing their honeymoon trip that took them into the Niagara region. All will return to Baltimore tomorrow.

Mrs. Jefferson Ayres entertained the ladies of the M. E. Aid Society Wednesday where they held the business session on a pleasant porch and then enjoyed watermelon in the delightful shade of beautiful old trees.

Arthur Urie had his tonsils removed at Chestertown hospital Monday and got along very nicely.

Charles Middleton and wife were guests Sunday of his mother, Mrs. Ella Middleton and family, returning to Baltimore in the evening.

Mrs. Maurice Willson, Jr., and baby girl are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Usilton, in Eastern Neck.

Mrs. Weldon Blackiston and children, of Baltimore, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Blackiston and family at Gratitude.

Mrs. Frank McCloskey, a frequent visitor among friends here, has been ill of diabetes in a Baltimore hospital. Now at her home somewhat improved.

Mrs. Agnes Ashley, Baltimore, is visiting among friends in the town. Her small granddaughter, Betty Happersett, will conclude her Baltimore visit tomorrow when she comes to Tolchester with a party of picnicking friends and on home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coleman and children, Bertie Coleman and son, Donald, visited Washington Saturday as Mr. James Coleman has to see his dentist and physicians about every ten days. His facial bones still need much attention after the terrible accident at a saw mill a couple of months ago. When the party returned they brought home the Misses Ella Coleman and Thelma Mench who had made a ten-day visit with relatives. Marion Pettibone came too, to spend part of his summer vacation and is a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Coleman. Like home, he finds it, to be with old playmates.

Mrs. Ray Wallace and children came yesterday from Edgewood to make a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Blackiston. Ray, Elizabeth and Douglas are renewing acquaintances here.

Mrs. Ruth Baker, who has been employed at the Rock Hall Beauty Shoppe has returned to her home in Hampstead. Miss Ruth Brown, of Westminster has taken her place.

Mrs. May Stinchcomb has built a home in Denbeigh and with her family and mother, Mrs. Ada Harrison has moved over from Baltimore.

Mrs. Hannah Viskovich is making a visit with her brother in Brooklyn, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Sniderman are entertaining a sister of the latter, Mrs. Samuel Rosenberg, and grandson, Alan Diener, from Washington, D. C., at their pretty bungalow east of the town. Mrs. Sniderman spent a couple of days last week with another sister, Mrs. Tillye Sachs, in Baltimore after having been hostess recently to her.

Deputy Sheriff James A. Cannan is acting sheriff in Chestertown while Sheriff Bennett has gone to Seattle, Washington, for John Ellis, who is wanted for the killing of Terry Kelly.

Clifton Baker, whose home is in Plainfield, N. J., is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Baker, with a severe case of inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kendall, Baltimore, are spending a vacation with their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison.

Rock Hall is very sorry that one of our young men, Bartus Carter, Jr., met with such a painful and serious accident Monday night near Chestertown, and we think the proximity of the hospital probably was a very great help to him.

Dr. Norbert Nitch's family is enjoying the summer at their country home south of the town.

Wilbur Gale begins today the shipment of tomatoes to Roberts, a canning firm in Baltimore. Mr. Gale has three hundred acres early tomatoes under contract with farmers in this section. Truck loads are beginning to be seen along the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Alexander have as house guests the latter's mother, Mrs. Solomon Loewner, and niece and nephew, Selma and Stanley Loewner, all of Baltimore.

The new Hoover dam will store enough water to cover an area equal to the state of New York to the depth of a foot.

There are 247 gasoline pumps at filling stations in Superior, Wis., an average of one for every twenty cars in Superior.

The Eskimo dog, like its master, is generally believed to have had its origin in Asia, coming to North America with the ancestors of the modern Eskimos.

Telephone systems of the world have in use more than 100,000,000 miles of copper wire. Telegraph companies have about 5,000,000 miles.

A radio entertainer can now hear himself as others hear him, by means of a film sound recorder which preserves for reproduction the exact radio tones of the voice.

A crackleproof paper, a cotton-processed fabric, has been developed at the department of commerce since the assistant secretary of commerce found it hard to handle his notes noiselessly when talking before the radio.
