ROCK HALL REPORTER

There will be a wheat and corn-hog meeting for farmers at Firemen's Hall Thursday evening, 7 o'clock.

The firemen began their active campaign for funds on Monday and nearly covered the town that day meeting with gratifying success. They are now canvassing the outlying regions.

The supper and festival at Wesley Chapel last Thursday night was attended by a large crowd who partook of the wonderful supper provided, purchased things at the festival department and enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Hallowe'en affairs are the next general interest and at least three have set dates: The choir of the M. E. Church which has been under the supervision of Mrs. John Sweetman will hold one Monday night, 28th, instant; the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fire Company selected the 31st; the Primary Department of Wesley Chapel Sunday School will gather in the church hall in November 1st. All of these will have prizes, games and refreshments. Always enjoyable affairs, the number of masked attendants increases the fun.

The lovely Indian Summer weather continuing Wesley Chapel had a larger attendance, 210, at the church school. S. Elwood Burgess is the superintendent. Rev. Walter Donoway, pastor, preached the sermon and also gave a talk at night in the young people's service which was lead by Mrs. Burgess, whose nice program included a cornet solo by Emory Hogans, Junior, and sohrt addresses by Charles E. Russell nd Maarion T. Miller.

Handsome chrysanthemums augmented the dahlia offerings at the M. E. Church Sunday. Superintendent Stanley Grant conducted a fine school session. The selection by the choir in the later service was "Carry Your Cross With a Smith." Sermon by Rev. Conrad Hamer, pastor. His selection of a text was "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you." At night Miss Margaret Myers was leader of the Epworth League meeting which consisted of songs, prayer, a solo, "That's Why I Love Him So," by Rec. Hamer and responsive readings by Miss Lillian Donnelly and Mrs. Emily Bryden. Rev. Hamer preached from "For what is your life," from James 4:14. Prayer meeting was announced for this evening. On November 2nd at the Epworth League Convention Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes will be present in the afternoon and address the audience. Bishop Hughes is the presiding bishop of this district and all are invited to be present to hear his sermon.

William L. Wilkins had a sale of farm implements recently as he has decided not to continue the work of the farm himself.

A party from here visited Worton Sunday evening and attended services at the M. E. Church there to hear a sermon by Charles Schaffer, the boy evangelist who recently conducted services for several weeks at Grace M. E. Church in Piney Neck. They were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price, Mrs. Alfred Walbert, Mrs. Raymond Hersch and Mrs. Herman Hill, Sr.

Clinton Williams, the colored man who shot Roy Rochester through a leg ten days ago, was sentenced to a year in the House of Correction by Police Justice Joseph Davis last Friday night.

Mrs. Reuben Rodney, who entered Kent and Queen Anne General Hospital last Wednesday, had a goiter successfully removed from her throat Thursday morning and got along so nicely she expects to be released at the expiration of the tenth day.

Mrs. Mary Hudson was not operated upon at a Dover hospital as was expected, the doctors agreeing that her nerves were too disturbed and she must rest. Mrs. Hudson was later a guest of her sister here, Mrs. Roland Warner and returned to her home near Clayton.

Lloyd Rodney has returned from his summer employment at Hamilton.

Thomas Parsons was overnight guest Saturday from Baltimore with his father, Charles Parsons, at Grey's Inn.

Mrs. Minnie Durding spent a pleasant week in Washington, D. C., where she was visiting her daughter, Miss Etta Durding.

Miss Erma Jacob arrived from Baltimore Sunday to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jacob, Jr.

Best wishes for our newest bride, the former Miss Mae White, now Mrs. William Fleishman, of Baltimore. May she and her husband be frequent visitors here, her old home.

Miss Sarah Straus and Leo Freudenthal, Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Alexander over Sunday.

Martin Wagner and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagner, visited Eudowood Sunday to see the former's wife who is a patient at a sanatorium.

Mrs. James Walbert spent a pleasant week with relatives in Baltimore and later entertained a party of friends from there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rodney and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Trew Durding, son and daughter, Ben and Miss Helen, Mrs. Clarence Hersch, Mrs. Robert Lewis and daughter, Miss Helen, and Miss Evelyn Harman motored to Chesapeake City Sunday and were calelrs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Rodney, finding the family all in their usual health. Mrs. Nelson Rodney's father, Michael Schwartz, returned with them for a visit.

Mrs. Joseph Davis is recovering from an attack of gastritis. She was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Hanna.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hersch returned from Honga on Hooper's Island Thursday, Mr. Hersch for the day only.

It was a delightful reunion of friends Sunday when Mrs. Lake Travers and aunt, also son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richardson, of Madison, Dorchester County, made a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Stevens at their home in Hawthorne road. It had been more than ten years since these friends had met.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Welkner and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Hutchins and son, Larry, all of Baltimore, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Francis.

Vernon Joiner and wife were week end guests from Baltimore with his aunt, Mrs. Walter Wirts.

Miss Marian Rodney returned from a pleasant visit of several weeks with an aunt and family at Islip, Long Island.

George N. Coleman, Jr., has employment at Frankford, Pa., and expects to be there for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Kendall had as Sunday afternoon guests their grandson, Charles Pippin and little daughter, Mary Lou, and Mrs. Pippin's mother, Mrs. Workman, of Betterton. They found Mr. Kendall very much improved from illness. Tuesday guests were Mrs. Millard Gibson and Mr. Redding and daughter from Queen Anne county. John Pinder was a visitor from Centreville Sunday night and brought word that Mrs. Kendall's mother, Mrs. William Dadds, is still confined to bed from old age infirmities. Also word was received from Washington that Mr. Kendall's sister, Mrs. Etta Manoes, is quite sick at her home there.

Mrs. Lloyd Griffin received notice from a man in Idaho that her husband had been mortally wounded in an accident. Before death he was able to give his wife's address and send a message. Inquiries are being made from his relatives in North Carolina, hoping to get fuller information.

Mrs. John Casey has been in Baltimore since last Tuesday and had her eyes successfully operated upon for cataract. She is very happy to know that she will be able to see again. Her daughter, Mrs. Wetmore, will go to the city today to accompany her mother home.

Mrs. John Crouch will return to the hospital shortly for further attention. The family has engaged a dwelling in Chesapeake City but will not release their home here until Mrs. Crouch's health is more nearly restored.

Mrs. Maxwell Jacob visited in Baltimore recently and witnessed the marriage of her niece, Miss Mae White, to William Fleishman there.

Miss Marie Coleman, Baltimore, visited last Sunday Mrs. Frank Poole, who returned to Baltimore with her and is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Frank Guth.

The Adventist school was closed last week as the teacher, Miss Jones, was afflicted with a case of mumps. Another patient with the disease the past two weeks is Mrs. Howard Donnelly.

Edgar Culley has a lot of colored employees now at his oyster packing plant. Oysters themselves are a problem—covered with mussels that must be removed and then bringing only thirty cents a bushel it hardly seems worth while to tong for them. Fishing parties still find sport in the fine weather.

Mrs. William Shriver, Piney Neck, was a guest last Sunday of Mrs. Eldridge Glenn in the town.

Lewin McGinnis, an aviator employed by the J. R. Reynolds Tobacco Co., of Winston, Salem, N. C., spent from Friday until Monday with his father, Thomas McGinnis and his brothers and sisters here. Mr. McGinnis came down from Williamsport where his plane was being repaired.
