LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Threshing has been going on between the showers in Kent county this week.

—Mr. Arthur Pinder has taken a position as truck driver for the Hearn Oil Co.

—The flower gardens of Chestertown were never more beautiful than at present.

—The residence on the Bramble Poultry Farm is being painted in attractive colors.

—Mr. Spencer Biddle, of Pomona, has taken the agency for a big fruit nursery house.

—There was 8.90 inches of rain in Kent County during the month of July, according to a report of the Weather Bureau.

—More than 1,000,000 tons of coal will be enroute to the United States from Wales and the east coast of England by Sept. 1.

—A marriage license was issued in Chestertown this week for Curtis O. McClain and Maude E. Peterson, both of Chestertown.

—Mr. Stewart R. Matthews has been appointed agent for the Grand Union Tea Company. Mr. Matthews will make the company a most efficient man.

—The Samuel G. Maslin farm of 200 acres was offered at public sale on Tuesday by Wm. M. Slay, Esq., trustee, and withdrawn at a bid of $9850.

—Miss Ruth Cann, representing the Chautauqua Association, will meet the Chautauqua guarantors in the Savings Bank rooms on August 11 at 8 p. m.

—Mosqpitoes are bad among the cattle of Kent, also among those who reside close to marshes. The heavy rains have made them exceptionally numerous this year.

—Jesse H. Bratten, U. S. Federal Agent, aided by Deputy Sheriff Dennis, hauled Worcester county for moonshiners and bootleggers recently and many were caught in the net.

—The Oxford Press reports that Mr. Clarence D. Cullem had a yield of 47 bushels of Leap's Prolific variety of wheat per acre on his farm near Rising Sun, from fifteen acres.

—Radcliffe Mill is working overtime these days, catching up with their big business, while our grain dealers in the county are also quite busy receiving the wheat crop and loading it for the markets.

—Messrs. Wm. F. Malin, Virgil Kendall, Joseph Duyer, John C. Davis and Charles F. Wheatley, delegates from Washington Camp No. 34, P. O. S. of A., are attending the State session being held at Westminster.

—Chestertown may have another fair association next year. Mr. Walter Wright has the same under consideration and may organize a company and have the fair grounds in the same place as they were a few years ago.

—Mr. John Anderson, of Cecilton, district deputy game warden for the upper section of the Eastern Shore, has received a large number or young pheasants from the Maryland State Game Farm, which are being liberated.

—Capt. Spencer Urie, of Rock Hall, took a party of Baltimore guest to the Pool's Island fishing grounds and in three hours they caught by means of trolling with artificial bait 13 rock weighing from 7 to 17 pounds each.

—Miss M. C. Burchinal, A. M., Ph. D., of Ardmore, Pa., has been appointed by Gov. Ritchie a member of the new Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College, in place of Mrs. Cullem, who was compelled to decline on account of her health.

—While driving down Washington avenue Sunday morning a car driven by Mr. Lois Rust became unamanageable and ran into the fence of Mr. T. W. Eliason. On the same day a horse kicked itself loose from a carriage and collided with the auto of Mr. Thomas Hogans, damaging the car somewhat.

—George O. Calloway, who was sentenced at the November term of the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's to one year in the Maryland Penitentiary for misappropriation of the funds of the Stevensville Bank, has been paroled by Governor Ritchie.

—The price of German marks has dropped to 14½ cents a hundred, a new low record. Those Kent people who invested in this means of speculation some time ago now find they have a poor-paying proposition on their hands.

—While searching the premises of George York, colored, below Cecilton, on Saturday for stolen hams and the like, which he failed to find, Sheriff Gifford came upon a still and a large quantity of mash and other things. He captured the outfit and York and put him in charge of a federal marshal.

—Some poor canteloupes have been arriving in the Chestertown market from Virginia and North Carolina, and while they have been cheap, in most cases they have been worthless. On the other hand our local canteloupes are a little higher in price, but are worth more than the difference.

—Judge Lewin W. Wickes, who sat in the suit of John W. Montgomery, for an annulment of his marriage to Miss Peggy U'Nertle, at Elkton recently, has signed an order that the plaintiff should pay his wife $50 per month alimony during the continuation of suit. The decision will probably be rendered early next month.

—The patrons of the public schools that are to suffer the loss of one teacher by reason of the state law governing the number of teachers met this week with members of the Board of Education and the new superintendent, Prof. Louis Robinson, for the purpose of having the teachers retained where the necessity is apparent.

—Galena Grange will hold a meeting in the Grange room on Tuesday evening, August 8, for the purpose of completing plans for the grange picnic. All members are urged to be present. The picnic will be held on Aug. 15 at Tolchster and everybody is invited to go and take a basket. We want to make this a good time, as we always do, when we meet together.

—As evidence of returning prosperity and the accumulation of savings and the willingness and desire of the public to invest surplus funds in a safe and sane manner, H. T. Cree, director of the Government Savings Organization of the Fifth Federal Reserve District, has informed the local postmaster, Mr. Bowers, that the people of this district have purchased in the first six months of this year Treasury Savings Certificates to the amount of $4,414,086.

SPORTS

Chestertown won from Centreville on Thursday afternoon, 9-0, in a game which was forfeited by Centreville in the ninth inning, when the score was 5 to 4 in favor of Chestertown. When Centreville went to bat in that inning the score was 5-3 against them, but they found Robinson for several safeties and forced a run across the plate. Then a ball was batted over toward first, which would have scored the tying run had it been fair. Umpire Wm. Goss, who officiated in a first-class manner, called the ball foul. Then Centreville refused to play unless Mr. Goss changed his decision, which he, rightly, refused to do and gave the game to Chestertown. Regardless of whether the ball was foul or fair, Centreville showed the wrong spirit. The umpires are placed in their positions to officiate and not to be changed about at every child-like whim of an excited player. If this spirit is allowed to continue in the Tri-county League, and we understand a like occurence happened between Oxford and Easton on the same day, interest will soon wane in the sport on the Shore. In direct contrast to the spirit shown by Centreville was that shown by Chestertown in the preceding inning, when Walls deliberately collided with Nickerson, of the Chestertown team, knocking him down and resulting in a run tallying for Centreville. According to baseball rules, Walls was out and the runner should have stayed at third. The umpire said safe, however, and although anyone who knows baseball realized at once he was wrong, yet Chestertown made only a mild protest. Centreville was absolutely wrong and we believe the real sports of that town will not stand for such exhibitions as they displayed at Chestertown Thursday. Had they continued to play, they would probably have won the game—at least they had a chance. As it stands, they are one game to the bad for what they did. The game, from start to finish, was one of the best of the season. Centreville was the first to score in the opening inning. Then Chestertown scored four runs, maintaining a lead until the end. Robinson was on the mound for Chestertown, while Carter did the honors for Centreville. Both received fair support.

Interest in the Barnyard Horseshoe League is on the increase as the race for top honors becomes keener and as new faces appear in the line-ups of the various teams. The standing of the league is as follows:

	W.	L.	P.C.
Wing Bats	13	11	.542
Sliders	13	11	.542
Ringers	12	12	.500
Leaners	10	14	.417

The teams are made up as follows:
Wing Bats—Falls, Thibodeau.
Sliders—Bramble, Wheatley, Senator Russell.
Ringers—Jarman, Peterson.
Leaners—F. Russell, Strong.

Mr. Joseph Wheately, Plumed Knight of the Board, and Wm. Frazier Russell, Esq., Debonair of the Board, met in a most exciting checker contest Thursday night, in which the former, semi-champion of Kent, was temporarily dethroned.

Kent County Club Members To Attend Club Week

Of the many Boys' and Girls' Club features the annual outing at the University of Maryland and sightseeing trip to Washington is perhaps the greatest. Club Week will be held this coming week, Aug. 7 to 11, this year.

Teh program includes demonstrations and lectures by the University specialists, addressed by prominent men interested in Club Work, games, motion pictures and a trip to Washington, where the club members will be received by the Secretary of Agriculture and President of the United States. A visit to the big Washington Zoo will also be made.

It is the opinion of County Agent Derrick that Club Week offers one of the greatest opportunities to farm boys and girls. The following expect to go from Kent: Richard Comegys, Norman Pennington, Stanley Sutton, Martin Sutton, Albert Sutton, Edward Caldwell, Simms Jacquette, Bernard Cochran, Holt Woodall, Jr., David Nickerson, William Bolin, Howard B.
