

Are You Ready?

HAVE you power enough, and of the right kind, to get your farm work done cheaply and on time? Now is the time to be thinking about it.

The experience of thousands of farmers demonstrates that the Titan tractor does its work well, does it on time, and saves money for its owner. If you need more power, if you want to raise farm produce at the lowest cost, if you want to be sure of success this year, place your order now for a

Titan 10-20 Kerosene Tractor

Get your order in for a Titan tractor as soon as you can and have it delivered early so that you may be ready for work when the work is ready for you. Titans are in great demand because they are proved workers and money savers both in the field and at the belt.

Jones & Satterfield
CHESTERTOWN, MD.
PHONE 51

CULP Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Phone 5. CHESTERTOWN, MD

GOOD ROADS IN STILL POND

are at last a reality.

You can now reach our store-door for the wonderful August Bargains we are now offering without any roundabout or extra driving.

Expert advice from experienced merchants are here to serve you with the best merchandise at the most reasonable prices. Goods you want now await you and priced at the low figure. We quote just a few specials for this week:

Good Loose Coffee, 2 lb. to a customer ..... 15c lb.
Good Quality, 2 lb. can Corned Beef, 35c value ..... 20c can Sifted Early June Peas, 25c value ..... 19c can Big 5 lb. box Wash Powder, 25c value ..... 18c box
Collar Pads, all sizes, 50c values ..... 35c each
Horse Collars (only a few left), your choice for ..... $1.95
(Values up to $4.00)

350 PAIRS NEW TENNIS SHOES & OXFORDS

Special for August sale, all sizes and values up to $2.50, sale price $1.00 pair for men and women.

Boys' and Girls' 79c pair Children's, 59c pair.

100 Pairs Ladies' High Grade Low Shoes and Pumps, all new stock, nearly all sizes, can be found in this assortment. Values from $3.50 to $10.00 pair. One-third off ALL SHOES for this sale.

We pay highest prices for eggs—let us have them.

P. S.—Our new fall line of CLOTHING SAMPLES are now here on display. We invite your inspection. They are priced lower than ever.

FRANK A. HURLOCK

PHONE 17

STILL POND, MD.

Our Sale Record

Thursday, Sept. 7—Lawrence Stevens' sale of personalty on the farm where he now resides near Edesville.

Tuesday, Sept. 12—Sale of personalty of Clarence P. Jones, in Swan Creek.

Wednesday, Sept. 13—Mortgagee's sale of Valuable Mill property known as "Plummer's Mill."

Wednesday, Sept. 6—Samuel G. Caldwell's sale of Horses, Mules and Cattle at Galena.

Saturday, Sept. 16—Trustee's sale of the real estate of the late Judge Jos. A. Wickes.

Tuesday, Sept. 12—Public sale of valuable real estate in the Second Election District.

Tuesday, Sept. 20—Public sale of mortgaged real estate of A. J. Bolin and wife.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—The Kent schools will reopen on Monday, Sept. 11.

—Next Monday is Labor Day and a legal holiday.

—Mr. Elmer W. Sterling has been appointed postmaster at Church Hill.

—Kent farmers have begun to cut corn, with excellent prospects for a good crop.

—Beginning Monday, Sept. 11, Lyceum Theatre will resume regular shows.

—The local gas plant and the electric light plant here are fairly well supplied with coal.

—The daylight saving ordinance, in effect in Baltimore for some time, has been discontinued.

—Hog cholera is reported on the premises of Bayard Crewe and J. L. Price, near Betterton.

—The Cambridge Baseball Team will play Chestertown here in the near future, it is reported.

—A meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the Elementary School Aug. 31.

—Massey & Kilbourne have purchased the Blackway Bottling Plant and coal yard property.

—Chautauqua will be held next week, beginning Monday. See program elsewhere in this issue.

—Mr. and Mrs. George I. Harrison have sold their farm, near Piney Neck, to Alfred W. Thompson for $6,500.

—Mrs. H. T. Williams, state grange lecturer, has been sent by the National Grange to Burlington to a conference.

—Mr. Kennard Stafford, of Chestertown, has taken the agency for S. & N. Katz. The adv. appears in this issue.

—The Democratic State Convention will be held at Ford's Opera House on Thursday, Sept. 21.

—A Chevrolet car, owned by Lloyd Dill, of Still Pond, was burned on the state road near Goose Hill on Saturday night.

—Mrs. John E. Matthews is the possessor of a lemon tree, now bearing fruit, having three perfect lemons on it.

—Chautauqua tickets are on sale at M. A. Toulson's, H. F. Jefferson's, E. F. Perkins office, the Stam Drug Co. and A. L. Sparks' store.

—Hon. W. Cabell Bruce, candidate for the democratic nomination for U. S. Senator, was in town Tuesday evening and Wednesday.

—One of the heaviest shipments of peaches ever made over the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad was handled Friday last, when 13,469 baskets were received in Wilmington.

—Eva Gilbert has been appointed supervisor of colored schools in this county, to succeed Emma L. Miller, who has accepted a similar position at Durham, N. C.

—Mary Jenkins Ringgold, for a long time employed in the family of the late M. deK. Smith, died last week. She was one of Kent's most highly respected colored people.

—Hon. David J. Lewis, one of the candidates for the United States Senate on the Democratic ticket, attended divine services at Christ M. P. Church Sunday evening.

—Dr. M. E. Parsons has purchased from Wilbur W. Hubbard a two-acre lot on Philosopher's Terrace, in the rear of the High School, and he will erect a fine home thereon.

—Rolph's Wharf, on the Chester, in Queen Anne's county, is the scene of more bathing and camping this year than ever before in its history. It is an ideal place for these pleasures.

—Washington College has its annual advertisement in this issue. This old institution is growing better every year and will likely have the largest enrollment in its history this year.

—The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Golts, Md., on Oct. 14, 1922, to fill the position of rural carrier at Golts.

—The prayers of all church-women of the Diocese of Easton are asked on September 7 at 9 a. m., the hour that the United Thank Offering service is being held at the General Convention, soon to be assembled in Portland, Ore.

—The Wicomico Countian and the Salisbury Advertiser have merged into one paper, under the name of the Salisbury Advertiser and the Wicomico Countian, and will be the official organ of the Democratic party of that county.

—Alfred M. Warrington, a Berlin butcher, jumped from an auto recently and was killed almost instantly. He was with his wife in the car and was said to be quarreling and under the influence of liquor.

—Dr. Frank Hines, Philip Wilmer and Maurice Morse attended the American Legion State Convention as delegates of the Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36.

—There will be a meeting of the Chautauqua guarantors at the Kent County Savings Bank this evening at 7.30 p. m. to meet the superintendent of the Chautauqua.

—Vansant & Newsome have a new advertisement this week announcing their thirtieth anniversary in business This is one of the leading firms in Chestertown and their dealing with the public has been most satisfactory.

—Mr. Charles Rickman has been appointed janitor at the Court House to succeed Mr. James Parrott, who has moved with his family to Centreville. Mr. Rickman will make a most acceptable man for the place.

—Morris Korenreich, a fur dealer, of Philadelphia, and B. F. Steicher, his salesman, bound south in an auto, containing $7,330 worth of furs, to be displayed as samples, were held up and robbed of their car and contents in Cecil county recently.

—A colored boy preacher has been at Bethel A. M. E. Church, colored, this town, recently and created quite a stir. The boy was said to be about seven years old and quoted scripture and preached and showed splendid training for a child.

—It was disclosed recently that the Annapolis-Claiborne Ferry Co. has practically closed a deal in New York for a larger boat to replace the General Lincoln. The new boat will have a space sufficient to hold 60 cars, and when remodeled will accommodate 75.

—In going over the old files of the postoffice recently one of the clerks found a receipted bill to the postmaster, Mrs. Lucas, from Dr. J. T. Twilley, coal dealer, dated in the year 1900 for one ton of stove coal at $4 per ton.

—Mr. Frank E. Duyer has contracted with Mr. W. B. Strong for the erection of a fine home on his lot on Riverside Terrace. The building will be two and one-half stories and will be ready for occupancy about the middle of December.

—Richard Haggerty, of Kennedyville, on Tuesday purchased at public sale in Elkton Mount Speculation, the ancient manor on the Sassafras river said to be the last of the entailed property in Cecil county. Price paid $24,000.

—Six applicants took the Civil Service examination for clerk-carrier in Chestertown postoffice in the High School building here Saturday. They were Miss Gladys Beauchamp, William Newnam, Harvey Blyman, Price Rolph and Walter Hague and Stewart Price. This examination was for clerk-carrier.

—As a result of the coal shortage, people of Easton woke up Monday and found they had no gas. Persons were soon running about town trying to borrow oil stoves, etc., to cook with. Coal was secured, howeevr, by trucks from Baltimore and the gas plant resumed operations the next day.

—Mrs. Dr. Whaland has a most beautiful "bank" of clematis at her home on Water street. This fragrant flower can be seen from Maple avenue and is the object of admiration of everyone privileged to see it. Spots made beautiful by flowers, like Mrs. Whaland does so often, constitute a source of real beauty, as well as profit, to the entire community. The beauty spot at Cannon and Front streets, made so by Mrs. Harry Catlin, is also one of the real beauty spots of the town.

—Chautauque next week beginning Monday. Chautauqua is the cheapest and best entertainment for your money that we know of..

—Owing to the pressure of other business, many persons who were appointed judges and clerks of elections by the Board of Supervisors have declined to serve, and others have been appointed in their places.

—Miss Margaret A. Bowers, of Millington, has been awarded the scholarship to Western Md. College; Miss J.V. Willis scholarship to Blue Ridge College and Howard Mason to Charlotte Hall Academy.

—Next Tuesday, Sept. 5, will be the only registration day in Kent county before the Democratic and Republican primaries on Monday, Sept. 11. All new voters, who will become 21 years of age prior to Tuesday, Nov. 7, are eligible to register. Those who fail to register, however, will not be permitted to participate in the primaries. Persons who have moved from one district or precinct to another may obtain transfers, but their failure to do this will not disfranchise them in the approaching primary.

—The white potato crop of the Maryland-Delaware Virginia Peninsula, from Cape Charles, Va., to Wilmington, Del., has this year broken all previous records for both production and shipments. To date the crop has consisted of 16,019 carloads, an increase of 10 per cent over the previous high record, made last year, of 14,506 cars.

—Last week we noted that the American Legion would occupy in a short time their new quarters over Gill Bros. Ice Cream Factory. This was a mistake. The Sanitary Division, Maryland National Guard, will occupy this fine room. The American Legion have their headquarters in the Eastern Shore Inn Bldg.

—Clarence W. Perkins, Esq., of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown, has filed a bill in the Circuit Court for Cecil County against Henry A. Warburton and wife, Mrs. Anna M. Warburton, Henry A. Warburton and J. W. McAllister, trustees, and Thos. W. Perkins and Henry L. Constable, receivers, asking the court to appoint a receiver to take over and sell the Gilpin Falls Electric Co.

DEATHS

Miss Sarah Kaplan, daughter of Mr. Harris Kaplan, of Chestertown, died in Baltimore August 23. Mr. Kaplan attended the funeral.

Charles Wilbur, brother of Mr. Jacob Wilmer, of Chestertown, died at his home in Camden, N. J., last week, aged 62 years. He was a member of the Camden police force for more than nineteen years. Mr. Wilbur was stricken with stomach trouble while on his vacation at Atlantic City last week. He was brought home, and on admission to Cooper Hospital it was found that he was suffering with a serious complication of abdominal troubles. He had been in critical condition for four days. Within a few months Mr. Wilbur would have completed the twentieth year of his service on the police force and would have been retired. He was stationed at the First District of Camden. He was a game warden for a number of years before joining the police force and was not married.

The funeral services were held Aug. 28 at three o'clock at Camden, interment private at Hareligh Cemetery, of the same city.

KENNEDYVILLE

Mr. James Van Dyke spent several days with relatives in Wilmington.

Miss Carrie and Willette Hill, of Baltimore, have been guests of Miss Mary Hill.

Service at Grace Church this Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. B. B. Staats, pastor.

Miss Florence Bolden, of Wilmington, is spending some time with Miss Helen Haggerty.

Mrs. Elisabeth Cleaver and Mrs. Maggie Webb are spending some time with Mrs. Charlie Smith near Mount Pleasant.

Miss Harriett Walls and Master Harry are visiting their grandparents at Worton.

Mrs. Marcus Hedley and Mrs. Walter Pippin have been spending some time with their mother, Mrs. J. Oliffe.

Miss Maggie Harper is the guest of Mrs. Robert Kennedy.

Mr. Leonard Kelley, of Phila., spent Tuesday with his brother, Mr. D. C. Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clendaniel have been spending some time with his uncle, Mr. Howard Clendaniel and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Holten Parr and Miss Lucille Parr were week-end guests of Dr. J. W. Urie.

Mr. G. R. Raisin has been quite sick for a few days. We are glad to say he is improving. at this writing.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor. Services for Sunday, Sept. 3. Sunday school at 10 a. m., L. W. Ford, superintendent. The Monthly Missionary Service will be in charge of the Adult Bible Class, Mrs. Moffett, teacher. Communion service at 11 o'clock. The Christian Endeavor meeting at 7.30 will be led by Mrs. J. F. Wooden.

ROCK HALL'S

Picture Parlor

ROCK HALL

Saturday, Sept. 2—Frank Mayo in a special attraction, "Dr. Jim." Also 11th chapter of Stanley in Africa.

Pictures at 8 p. m.

Buying Cheap Goods

to save money is like stopping the clock to save time.—It seldom pays.

Why Take Chances?

New Fall Suits, $20 to $50.
New Fall Top Coats, $20 to $40.
New Fall Hats, $2.50 to $6.
New Fall Shirts, $1.00 to $5.
New Fall Shoes, $5 to $10.
New Ties and Sox.
Underwear and Pajamas, and everything else for Men and Boys, all sizes and all ages to wear. Latest styles, best makes and all at Reasonable and Moderate Prices ready and waiting for you.

MULLIN'S HOME STORE
WILMINGTON

(POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT)

Vote for Sisk for Congress September 11th, and help protect your boys against the bootlegger.

30th ANNIVERSARY 30th

FOR THE

HOPKINS TAILORING CO., of Baltimore

in Chestertown, Maryland

Thirty seasons ago we started to tailor clothes in Chestertown for this well-known Baltimore firm.

Our first customers, who ordered 30 seasons ago, may have gained a few years in age BUT we have kept them young in appearance—wearing HOPKINS Tailored Clothes.

Now we are Tailoring Clothes for their boys—a reputation that we can well be proud of!

If our designer hasn't taken your measure by now—there is a reason. Come in and tell him your trouble. We can fit the tall, short, slim or stout man to PERFECTION.

He will be at our store on

Friday & Satur'dy
Sept. 8 and 9

with over 500 new fabrics of domestic and imported mills.

DON'T FORGET THE DATES

VANSANT & NEWSOME

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

Headto-Foot Outfitters for Men and Boys.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_40_1-0707.jpg