Verdict for Dr. Pierce

AGAINST THE

Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read the unwarranted and malicious attack upon Dr. R. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May (1904) number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, who never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the slanderous and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $200,000.00 damages.

Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such false and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business; furthermore, that no alcohol, or other injurious, or habit-forming, drugs are, or ever were, contained in his "Favorite Prescription"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatever, and that Mr. Bok's malicious statements were wholly and absolutely false.

In the retraction printed by said Journal they were forced to acknowledge that they had obtained analyses of "Favorite Prescription," from eminent chemists, all of whom certified that it did not contain alcohol or any of the alleged harmful drugs!

These facts were also proven in the trial of the action in the Supreme Court. But the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article with its great display headings, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickedly defamatory article never saw the humble groveling retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however brought before a jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdict in the Doctor's favor. Thus his traducers came to grief and their base slanders were refuted.

Public Sprayers.—We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of the State Horticultural Department, College Park, which appears in this issue A notice accompanying the "ad" reads in part as follows: "We have recognized for some time the need of public sprayers in many parts of the State in order that the fruit and shade trees in our cities, towns and villages, as well as small orchards surrounding same may be treated for the San Jose scale, as well as diseases. The owners of these trees are usually not in a position to secure the necessary apparatus to enable them to conduct the work, but the vast majority would order such treatment done by a responsible man, at reasonable cost. It is the aim of the department to establish several public sprayers in localities where there is the greatest demand for them. The sprayers will be conducted on a self-supporting basis, charging for the work sufficiently to cover cost of materials and operation. So far as we know this department was the first to undertake this phase of the work in the country. Three outfits were operated successfully last spring, at a charge of 10 cents to 20 cents per tree, depending upon the size and number of trees sprayed. While the number that we shall be able to establish this year will be limited, we wish all persons desiring to have a sprayer located in their vicinity to answsr our advertisement by writing to us at once.

FISH PROTECTORS MEET

Unity Of Action By Two Big Bodies Assured.

A special meeting of parties interested in the protection and propagation of fish was held at the Eutaw House. The object of the meeting was to promote a unity of action between the Tidewater Fishermen's Protective Associatioe and the Maryland Game and Fish Association, both of which for some time past have been active in proposing legislation relative to fish culture.

The Tidewater Association was represented by Capt. Joseph P. Sollers, of Calvert county, president; Mr. John Frank, Jr., of Anne Arundel county; Mr. Joseph B. Casey, of Baltimore city, secretary; Mr. W. O. Litchfield, of Harford county, and Mr. Oviller Stevens, of Kent county.

The meeting developed into a veritable love feast, and a satisfactory understanding was reached by both parties as to future action and proposed legislation.

The joint committees have agreed as follows:

First—That practical fishermen are the proper persons to intelligently legislate for the protection of fish, and that all fish game wardens should be taken from their ranks.

Second—That the size of mesh in nets should not be restricted, but left to the judgment of the fishermen.

Third—That a stringent law must be enacted to protect small fish, and it was agreed that the limit should be: For white perch, 6½ inches; for yellow perch, 7 inches; for tailor, 8 inches; for rock, 10 inches; for pike, 14 inches, and for sturgeon, 20 pounds.

Fourth—That the 800 yard law is to be amended so that a net 800 yards long can be fished, but not necessarily from shore; provided a net of that length does not cover more than one-third the width of the stream.

Fifth—That the proposed law respecting the landing of seines in water five feet deep shall be withdrawn.

Sixth—That the lifting of pound nets over Sunday is admitted to be impracticable, and that no legislation will be offerin that direction.

Seventh—That equal laws shall apply to all the waters of Talbot county.

As regards catching small fish, the decision finally reached was to recommend a law prohibiting catching small fish or offering them for sale. The fishermen is to be allowed to have 10 per cent. undersized fish in his possession because of inability at certain times to properly cull them on account of wind, etc. It is understood, however, that this 10 per cent., if shipped to commission merchants, is to be set aside by him and that the fisherman will not get paid anything for it. The commission man is not to be fined for possession of these fish, but he is not to be allowed to offer them for sale. It was the concensus of opinions that this will discourage the fishermen from catching or shipping small fish, and will prevent the commission man from being fined for having small fish in his possession when it is not his fault. It will also prevent the market from being flooded with unmarketable fish.

The meeting was undoubtedly the most interesting and instructive ever held in Baltimore on the fish question. President Sollers presented an exhibit of nets, fish, spawn and other practical illustrations of fish and fish-catching which carried a convincing argument on every point presented.

Insurance.—A decision which may be of considerable importance to a number of property owners in Kent county, was rendered the other day by Judge Stockbridge, as it effects fire insurance generally. Suit was brought against the Atlas Mutual Insurance Company, of Boston, and it was held that as the company had not complied with the Maryland Insurance Laws so as to enable it to do business in this State, its policy contracts effecting property in Maryland were void. B. F. Crouse, State Insurance Commissioner, advises policy-holders to examine their fire policies and see that they are issued by companies authorized to do business in Maryland.

McGINNIS ITEMS.

The Aid Society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robinson Friday. The evening was propitious, the attendance good, and all pronounced the event a success. The host and hostess were ably assisted in the entertainment by Mr. John Bowers, one of the members, who gave numerous selections on the graphophone. These selections were very much enjoyed as the records were new and well rendered by the instrument. The next meeting will be held February 14th, at Mr. and Mrs. William Cosden's.

Mrs. C. J. Burdette returned last week from a trip to the monumental city and other places on the Western Shore. Her daughter, Miss Bessie Robinson, accompanied her home for a visit.

Rev. Janey is confined to his home by sickness.

Mrs. Herbert Everett, of Baltimore, is a guest of her father-in-law, Mr. John Everett, Deep Landing.

Mr. James Smith, a former resident of this community in his boyhood days, is visiting his numerous friends and relatives here, who are delighted to hear of his varied experiences in the Western States and Mexico. Mr. Smith is superintendent of a copper mine in Mexico and relates that the financial panic is felt there as well as in the United States.

Mrs. William Sparks has returned from a recently made trip to Philadelphia.

Miss Bertha Barton, of I. B., spent the week-end holidays at the home of her uncle, Mr. L. C. McGinnes.

Rumor has it that conferences are being held concerning the practicability of connecting a projected telephone line from this place with the line from Chestertown and other points.

Mr. William Miller, Jr., was a guest last week of relatives in Smyrna.

The stork has again visited our neighborhood and left a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Evert. Many congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Nickerson, of Sudlersville, were guests last Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robinson.

Mrs. Maud Pinder and son, Edward, of Wilmington, Delaware, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William C. Stevens.

HOME COMMANDMENTS.

The KENT NEWS would appreciate it if its readers and friends generally would observe the following:

1. Thou shalt not go away from home to do thy shopping, nor thy wife, nor thy sons, nor thy daughters.

1. Thou shalt promise thine own merchants; that they shall not be driven from their homes to find food for their children.

3. Thou shalt patronize thine own merchant and also the printer, and they shall patronize thee.

4. Thou shalt pay thy bill promptly, that thy credit be good in the land where thou dwellest, and thy neighbors greet thee gladly, then deposit thy surplus in home banks.

5. Thou shalt not knock the props from under thine own town in order to be revenged on thine enemy lest thou perish with him.

6. Thou shalt not incline thine ear to the voice of pride, not permit vanity to overcome thy heart.

7. Thou shalt spend thine earnings at home, that they may return whence they came and give nourishment to such as come after thee.

8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against the town wherein thy dwellest, but speak well of it in the ears of all men.

9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's seed wheat, nor his meat hog, nor the cow, nor the corn which is in his crib; but whatsoever thou desirest thou shalt ask of him and thou shalt pay the price thereof in the coin of the realm.

10. Thou shalt keep these commandments and teach them to thy children unto to the third and fourth generation, that they may be made to flourish and wax rich while thou art laid to rest with thy fathers.
