CLOTHES?

The clothes question is very easily solved at this establishment.

In the first place you will find an assortment. Next in order—variety of shapes for big men and little men. Then comes the price and this important feature is lower than you have been paying for such values. Everything is high except the price. The workmanship, material, etc., make a combination of high results that not many can equal.

AS YET

The assortment is fairly good don't wait longer than possible though

IN connection with this regular line of well selected patterns we have placed on sale about fifty suits, odds and ends, consisting of remaining lots of this and last season, with a fair range of sizes and patterns which will be closed at the whole suit and the sizes run 35 to 44.

ANOTHER

bunch of odds and ends in Children's Suits. Price, $1.50 to $2.50 the suit.

HATS

Underwear, Gloves, Neckwear and all the lesser perquisites to complete your toilet. Come look the line over at your earliest convenience. Respectfully

Mrs. J. Carroll Catlin and Miss Margaret Eaton, of Church Hill, spent a part of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Russell.

Miss Catchings, of New York, is the guest of Miss Mary Rogers, on Front St.

Miss Louise Musselman, formerly of Chestertown, graduated at the Cambridge High School last week.

Mr. John D. H. Nelson has invented an improvement to the phonograph by which the sound is transmitted over a wire without the mechanical sound of the phonograph being heard. Mr. Nelson has been offered a position with the National Phonograph Co.

Miss Edith Cooper is visiting Mrs. Wm. E. Jarrell, on Washington avenue.

Mr. LeRoy White, of Philadelphia, and Miss White have been guests of the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. White, at the M. E. parsonage during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay, of Baltimore, have been visiting Mrs. Hiram M. Brown, on Front street.

Mrs. Burgess, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. S. L. Thomas, on Washington avenue.

Mrs. John Hartenstine, of Principo, has been the guest of Mrs. H. Benge Simmons on Spring avenue, during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck, on Maple avenue the past week.

Misses Ethel Brice and Edna Watkins of Baltimore, have been guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, on Washington avenue.

Mr. Fred Hirons is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hirons.

Mr. Emerson Bryan Roberts and Miss Mary Elam Roberts, children of Rev. and Mrs. Emerson P. Roberts, of Denton, were among those who graduated with distinction at the Easton High School last week. Mr. Roberts chose as his graduating theme "Alexander Hamilton," and Miss Roberts chose "Friendship."

Miss Helen Larrimore, of Baltimore, was the guest of Misses Gladys and Rebecca Aldridge, on High street last week.

Miss Rebecca Evans, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Miss Anna B. Smith, on Washington avenue, during the week.

Supt. Clay is visiting friends in Ohio.

Dr. S. A. Hall and family will spent the greater part of their vacation in Michigan.

Mr. Charles W. Kibler and Dr. G. Allen Jarman have rented an office in the Wroth building on Court street. Messrs. E. P. Beck and T. G. Wroth also have an office in this building.

Mrs. Ralph Barnett and daughter are visiting the former's mother at Rock Hall.

Henry W. Catlin, Esq., of New York, was in town Wednesday on business. Mr. C. will leave in a few days for Mexico where he has extensive interests.

Prof. Thomas Kibler, of Columbia College, Ohio, is spending his vacation with his father on Queen street.

Little Miss Helen Gardner, of Baltimore, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. J. Watson at "Skirven Manor."

Misses Julia and Daisy Nicholson have been entertaining Misses Angie Gray, Mildred Crawford and Addie Hurlock during the past week.

Mr. Alick H. Crew is able to be down stairs but is quite weak.

Mr. James W. Crouch removed his family this week to the Wilmer-Stuart house on Queen street. Mrs. Solomon and daughter will occupy the house on Front street vacated by Mr. Crouch.

Mr. George Parrot, who has been very ill at his home in Still Pond Neck, is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Elliott were called to Norfolk, Va., on Tuesday to the bed side of their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Wise, who was taken to the hospital to be operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen B. Crow were visited by the stork last Saturday night and left a healthy boy.

Misses Lilly and May Crow, of New York, are visiting their brother in Chestertown.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Howard, on High St., Chestertown.

My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Live Local Notes.

The Chestertown Cornet Band will be at Betterton July 4th.

C. W. Kibler, Chestertown, was offering 85½ cents for new wheat on Thursday.

Sunday was the longest day of the year. It made a try to be the hottest also but Wednesday won by several degrees. The mercury got up to °94.

The Junior C. E. Society will hold their annual picnic this afternoon in Baker's woods. Miss Fannie Baker will have charge of the little folks.

C. S. Smith picked ripe tomatoes from his garden on Washington avenue Tuesday of this week.

One of the finest fields of corn in Kent is the 70-acre corn field on Tolchester farm tenanted by Mr. Percy Hendrickson and owned by Mr. Walter U. Lusby.

The thermometer registered 116° in the sun and 96° in the shade at noon last Wednesday. It was the highest of the summer so far. Yesterday the mercury was only 72°.

The cost of a round trip to the Denver Convention will reach nearly $250. But what does the cost amount to, when you consider the fact that you will see the next President of these United States nominated!

The stone stable on Water street opposite Mrs. Carolene Hynson's residence has been demolished. A new frame stable will be erected in rear of lot. This will be a great improvement to that section of town.

Hanson Horsey, of Kent, pitched a great game of ball last week for Ridgely against Easton in which he struck out 16 men and allowed but one hit. The score was 3 to 0 in favor of Ridgely. Easton had not been beaten up to that time.

Dr. Simpers began improvements to his house on Queen street this week. The large tree in the yard was cut down as a beginning and favorably commented on by residents. Mr. Walter T. Pippin will do the work.

A party of Eastonians who went to Sharp's Island the first of this week reports that at least an acre has washed away during the winter just past. At this rate the Island will be entirely gone in a very few years.

A Sub-Convention of the Epworth League Easton District, will be held in Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, Tuesday, June 30th, morning, afternoon and evening sessions. Dinner, supper and refreshments will be served. A fine program is promised.

The electric light in Christ M. P. Church lecture room was turned on Thursday night and flooded the place with brilliancy. Supt. Russell has made a good job there and all were pleased. One lady remarked that she had been heretofore unable to see the words of hymns and therefore did not sing but could see plainly Thursday night—and the meeting was enlivened with the best singing enjoyed for sometime!

Prof. L. J. Smith, principal of the Chestertown High School, has a sort of human garden. It has a hundred heads—growing on the cabbage; it has a thousand eyes—showing on the potatoes; it has any number of ears—hanging on the sweet corn; and it has all the toes it wants, too—on the tomatoes; and for strength all you have to do is to pull a few onions.

Change of Schedule.—On and after July 1st the Kent train will leave Chestertown at 1.30 p. m. instead of 2.32 and arrives at 7.09. No change in morning train. By this arrangement passengers will take the Norfolk express at Townsend and arrive in Philadelphia 4.30 and Baltimore at 5.30 p. m. The change will be a great inconvenience to the visitors to Chestertown who make the round trip from up the county.

Author.—The News is in receipt of an advance copy of a well-known book by Capt. J. Washington Thompson, a former popular citizen of Chestertown, Capt. Thompson has made a success in Philadelphia and from the hours of a busy life snatched enough time to write the following books: Lang in England, The Christmas Waif, The Two Sacrifices of Alice Mansfield's Sin or the Power of a Woman's Love, Bunch of Poems, A Wife Forgiven or the True Character of a Husband.

Fish And Frogs.—Captain Urie took a party of friends for a fishing trip down at Tolchester Beach in a launch last week, and in four hours they had landed 726 perch. The catch was made off the Middle Ground Shoal, just off the beach, by Captain Urie, Mr. Jacob Engel, Mr. J. J. Bartholomew and the mate of the launch.

A resident of Queen Anne's is said to have a "frog nursery" up his kitchen stairs!

Some of the young men of Crumpton have been reaping a harvest in frog legs. They sell for $1.50 and $2.00 per dozen.

Small perch are biting off Chester river bridge.

Ex-Sheriff Silcox and Ellwood Baker chased a frog with a gun Wednesday across W. E. Jarrell's stubble field. Sheriff says they shot four times at the big fellow and finally wounded him so that they captured him! Sheriff is a professional hunter and knows the channel of the mill pond so that he can reach the frog places. Mr. Clinton W. Wroth is making arrangements to have buoys placed in the pond so that there will be no danger of his friend losing the channel.

Automobiles.—Automobile visitors are becoming so frequent in Chestertown that horses are seldom frightened. Capt. J. E. Woodall and Mr. J. F. M. Woodall made the trip from Georgetown to this town Tuesday in one hour and ten minutes. Mr. Tunis, of Smyrna, visited his sister, Mrs. Horn, in town Monday, arriving in a fine run-a-bout. The Messrs. George, of Denton, made the run here Saturday in short time. Mr. Harvey Cole, of Baltimore, accompanied by his family, have been enjoying a spin about Kent in his big touring car. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Beck. Mr. Wright Nichols was here Sunday in his fine touring car.

Mr. E. Thomas Massey, of Masseys, has purchased an up-to-date car and can manage same like an expert.

It is said that Mr. H. H. Klinefelter is negotiating for a machine.

There are eight fine turn-outs in Centreville.

A run-a-bout costs about $800, while the ordinary touring cars run from $1600 to $4,500; while there are others that cost a small fortune.
